Church Leaders Meet in Belgium

English Religious Circles Excited Over Effort for Harmony With Rome

Parliamentary Action Seen as Necessary if Move is Successful

BY JOHN STEELE

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, by the Chicago Tribune]

LONDON, May 19.—Great excitement has been caused in English religious circles by the announcement of a meeting beginning today at Malines, Belgium, under the patronage of Archbishop Mercier and dignitaries of the English and Roman churches to discuss the possibility of a reunion of the Anglican with Rome.

It is announced that the English delegation will be under the patronage of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. The delegation consists of Lord Halifax, lay leader of the Anglo-Catholic movement; Dr. Frere, Bishop Gore, formerly of Oxford; Dr. Robinson, dean of Wells, and Canon Kidd, warden of Keble College, Oxford. Among the Catholics participating are Mgr. Vanroy of Belgium and Mgr. Battifol of Notre Dame, Paris.

This meeting will be a continuation of that in 1923, when it was asserted by the Anglo-Catholics that great progress had been made toward harmonizing the differences. The progress of the Anglo-Catholic movement has given rise to great alarm among the Protestant party of the English Church and a few days ago a manifesto protesting against the Romanizing tendencies of Anglican priests and bishops was signed by a large number of clergy and laymen, including Bishop Welldon, dean of Durham; Sir William Joynson Hicks, the home secretary, and Sir Thomas Inskip, solicitor-general.

CAMPAIGN COUNTRY

Sir William and Sir Thomas have been campaigning in the country against what they call the betrayal of the reformation, and recently Sir Thomas declared in a public speech that "before another two or three years have passed the church will have taken decisions which will determine the future of the church, probably of the state, and it may well be of the empire."

The significance of this is the fact that the church of England was established by law and any attempt at reunion with Rome either would involve the approval of Parliament or the disestablishment of the church. The latter is the wish of the Catholic party, which desires the freedom of the church

MEXICO MAY RESUME HER PAYMENTS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Reported progress made toward a revision of the Mexican debt agreement may pave the way for a resumption of interest payments on Mexico's $500,000,000 external debt on July 1, according to private advices received in Wall street. Operation of the debt plan was suspended last July when Mexico defaulted on the first semiannual payment for 1924

Members of the international committee of bankers on Mexico, which negotiated the debt agreement with Finance Minister Adolfo de la Huerta in 1922, were unable to confirm the reports that payments would be resumed and said there had been recent negotiations. Bankers generally accepted the rumors with reserve although Wall street has been under the impression for some time that the Mexican financial authorities were aiming toward a restoration of the agreement in a modified form.

Wilbur Orders Court-martial of S-19 Staff

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—The officers of the submarine S-19, which went aground last January at Nauset Beach, Mass., today were ordered court-martialed by Secretary Wilbur.

The officers are Lieut. Charles F. Martin, commanding the submarine, who will be charged with "thorough negligence in suffering a vessel of the Navy to be stranded;" Lieut. Chester E. Lewis, the navigator, charged with "culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty," and Lieut. (junior grade) Alexander S. Edward, the officer of the deck, who will be brought to trial for "culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty."

A court of inquiry recommended the court-martial proceedings, having held "that the entire administration of the ship from the time of leaving the Isle of Shoals buoy to the time of grounding was loose, haphazard and perfunctory."

German Forest Fire Spreading; $4,000,000 Loss

STETTIN (Pomerania, Germany) May 19.—Damage estimated at $4,000,000 has been done over an area of twenty-four square miles by the largest forest fire in this section in many years. It is still spreading rapidly. The inhabitants of one village have fled. No deaths have been reported so far.

The forest fire started near Altdamm yesterday. In addition to property, much game has been destroyed. Several firemen were overcome by smoke.

CLUB WOMEN OPEN SESSION

BY MYRA NYE

"Times" Staff Correspondent

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA CRUZ, May 19.—Los Angeles with its environs, is contributing 75 per cent of the attendance at the twenty-fourth annual convention of California Federation of Women's Clubs, which opened this morning here.

Mrs. John C. Urquhart of Los Angeles is presiding at all sessions. The first report of the credentials committee, Miss Stella Finkeldey, chairman, shows a record attendance for so early in the four-day meeting.

Mrs. William A. Fitzgerald of San Francisco, chairman of the nominating committee, this morning made her report which, on the surface, indicated a harmonious election for Thursday. But an undercurrent of talk and the report of Mrs. O. W. March of the northern district, as vice-president, indicated a bitter, though one-sided contention, for the office of president. Dr. Mariana Bertola of San Francisco was the unanimous choice of the committee for nominee. Mrs. March states that tomorrow her name will be placed in nomination from the floor by a member of the northern district, of which she was president a term ago. Mrs. March now gives her residence as Los Angeles, having spent the winter with her son in the southern metropolis.

SLAP AT ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. March, in her report, poorly concealed her feeling against the present administration.

"I have not been allowed to be seen in the limelight at any time during the two years of my service as vice-president," said Mrs. March. "Neither have I been given any work to do to show my mettle. Every honor, everything I might desire has been kept from me. Yet I can truthfully say I have grown in capacity and leadership in spite of this." The speaker continued by making suggestions at policy for the next president diametrically opposed to that of the present regime.

Mrs. March is supported by those with a strong belief in the unwritten law that the vice-president should become president, but a still stronger feeling exists among others that since Dr. Bertola defeated Mrs. March for vice-president-at-large four years ago, the choice of the federation is indicated. The unexpected contest is adding zest to the convention.

Nominees virtually sure of election are: Mrs. Lydia Lawhead of the northern district for vice-president; Mrs. Henry Goodcell of the southern district for vice-president-at-large; Mrs. George W. Turner of San Joaquin district, for treasurer, and Mrs. George A. Rigg of the north, and Mrs. Warren G. Holden of Los Angeles, for auditors.

GREETING FROM GOVERNOR

Telegrams were sent to the Kentucky and the Iowa federations, which opened their annual conventions at the same hour with California. Mrs. Fitzgerald, a member of the State Welfare Board, read a telegram from Gov. Richardson felicitating the club women on their achievements. She gave her report as chairman of junior memberships and presented the youngest State president, Miss Ralphine Mills of Lodi, whose club numbers 400, and who made a remarkable little speech.

"We don't need your advice, we younger club women and junior auxiliaries," she said. "We know how to run clubs quite well, thank you. But we do like your interest and co-operation." And she proceeded to give a report of success unparalleled thus far. Next in youth to her were mentioned the newly-elected president of the Sierra Madre Club, Miss Ruth Klemme.

MEANS ASKS PRISON TERM

Figure in Daugherty Case Quits Fight and Asks for Commitment to Atlanta in Dry Law Plot

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—With his back to the wall and facing renewed onslaughts by the agents of the government, Gaston B. Means, investigator extraordinary and central figure in many sensational episodes of recent American history, has sought refuge within the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary.

Means's surrender came today in District of Columbia Supreme Court when he asked to be allowed to begin a two years' sentence imposed in connection with illegal whisky withdrawals. Pending against him when he threw up the sponge was a charge of forgery involving the signing of the name of Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, and relating to documents figuring in the Daugherty investigation.

Sensational testimony was given by Means in the Daugherty inquiry, and since that time his name has been connected with reports and denials of restrictions. A knowing smile and a mysterious air have been his reaction when questioned about these matters.

The date of departure for Atlanta has not been determined, nor has the Department of Justice made known whether it would press at once the forgery charge. It was indicated, however, that it would permit Means to go to Atlanta.

Means is in jail in Washington, D. C. It was said Means's bondsmen had surrendered him on a charge of forging Senator Brookhart's name.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Mrs. Norine Tautphaus, wife of a barber, killed her 9-year-old son, Walter, with an ax at their home here today, and then swallowed poison, from the effects of which she is expected to die. She left a note indicating that slander had driven her to her act.

DEBT FUNDING INITIATIVE IS TAKEN BY BELGIUM

Envoy to Return Home to Discuss Payment; Status of Problem Pleases Administration

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The limelight in the debt funding situation, which has been centered largely on France during the recent discussions, shifted today to Belgium, following announcement that Baron De Cartier De Marchienne, Ambassador of that country, is returning to Brussels early next month to discuss the question with his government, which was considered generally here today as a move of outstanding significance because of the strategic position which Belgium occupies in many ways and also because of the fact that Belgium's debt is large, amounting with accrued interest to $480,509,983.

The whole situation apparently is proceeding as satisfactorily as officials here could expect, and while no formal announcements were made, a spirit of hope and optimism was manifested as to an adjustment of the debt problem being reached.

MAIN DEVELOPMENTS

Other developments of the day were:

Assertion at the White House that President Coolidge had considered this an opportune time to see if some settlement could not be reached.

Presentation to the President by B. F. Yoacum, a former railroad president and financier, of a plan suggesting "an arrangement with our European debtors which would give them 100 years in which to pay us and each other at 2¾ per cent per annum interest charge, commencing two years after date of obligation."

Declaration that most of the exchanges with European governments regarding debt has taken place within the past three or four weeks; and,

Reiteration and emphasis of the denial that there had been any difference of opinion on this subject between the State Department and the Debt Funding Commission.

OPTIMISM SHOWN

The attitude of Belgium was taken to be indicative of what may be expected all along the line, and this was believed to have been responsible, to some degree at least, for the general optimism. The conversations on the subject have been carried on in this case, it was learned, between the American Ambassador in Brussels, William Phillips, and officials of the government. In the case of Italy that country's Ambassador here has discussed the matter with Secretary Kellogg.

In the statement of his plan which he presented to the President Mr. Yoakum, after pointing to the heavy debts and taxes of Europe, declares that "as the world's greatest creditor nation we owe it to ourselves no less than to our debtors boldly and courageously to take the initiative in a movement to restore contentment in the minds of the masses," adding:

"To accomplish this to an extent that would be be immediately felt all that is needed is to get the debtor nations to the United States into an agreement common to all as to an international funding scheme resting upon a long-term basis. A hundred years is none too long upon which to base any practicable and trustworthy funding scheme."

PROPOSAL BY FRANCE EXPECTED IN FEW DAYS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, May 19.—Premier Painleve, M. Briand, the Foreign Minister, and M. Caillaux, Finance Minister, went over the French financial situation together this evening, considering particularly the question of inter-Allied debts. At the conclusion of the conference, the official spokesman of Quai d'Orsay announced to the correspondents:

"The inter-Allied debts question may now be said to have entered the state of real official negotiations. If the negotiations are not yet in an officially international state, internal study of the question here makes it certain that they will be within a few days.

"The Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Finance will confer again this week for the purpose of drawing up suggestions to be presented to the United States government. M. Briand will be assisted by competent Foreign Office authorities, including M. Berthelot, General Secretary of the Ministry, and M. Seydoux, Director of Political Affairs."

The fact that these two high officials will attend the next confer-

Nation Pays Last Tribute to Hero of Civil and Indian Wars

President Coolidge Attends Simple But Impressive Burial Service

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The body of Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles, a nation's hero, rests tonight in the marble mausoleum built on the grassy brow of Arlington, overlooking the nation's Capitol. It was placed there this afternoon with ceremonies impressively simple, but with military pomp unequalled since the burial of the Unknown Soldier.

President Coolidge, Gen. Pershing and other notables of the nation, representing every arm of the Federal government and almost every State in the Union, paid silent tribute to the great soldier.

There was no eulogy. Gen. Miles needed none. His eulogy has stood on the printed pages of history for many years and has been engraved in the hearts of every growing generation since the Civil War.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE

The simple rites of the Episcopal Church, as laid down by the Book of Common Prayer, were read at the church and at the tomb. French 75's, placed upon the grass-grown breastworks of Civil War days, boomed a salute of fifteen guns at minute intervals as the procession moved into the national cemetery—the salute of a Lieutenant-General. Troops of the regular army fired three volleys as the flag-draped, steel gray casket was placed in its marble setting. Then a bugler played the soldier's sombre good night—Taps.

That was all, save that the army band played the favorite hymn of the veteran hero of Chancellorsville, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," just before the white-robed minister read the office for the burial of the dead. It was as Gen. Miles had wished it—in every respect a soldier's funeral.

MILITARY ESCORT

Early in the afternoon the casket was borne from the Rochambeau Apartments on the shoulders of six stalwarts of the Regular Army, placed upon a caisson drawn by six bay horses and taken to St. John's Episcopal Church. A detachment of the Third Cavalry formed the escort through lanes of solidly packed citizens standing with bowed heads. The army band played, "Nearer My God to Thee," the casket was borne into the little edifice where awaited the President and most of official Washington.

The services were short. The procession from the church moved on past the White House and over the bridge which spans the Potomac and links the city with the military road leading up the slopes to Arlington. At its head rode Brig.-Gen. Rockenbach, commander of the District of Washington, and his staff.

Then came the cavalry escort, a battalion of the Sixteenth Field Artillery, a battalion of Engineers, the Twelfth Infantry, a battalion of Marines from Quantico and a detachment of sailors from the Norfolk naval base. The troops

How did masks come into use?

In ancient Greek tragedy, which was an outgrowth of religious ceremonies, masks were used, and soon after they were introduced into comedy. Different characters wore them to represent such emotions as fear, hate, joy, love and sorrow. The familiar masks representing Comedy and Tragedy are often employed in painting and decoration to symbolize dramatic art.

But an undercurrent of talk and the report of Mrs. O. W. March of the northern district, as vice-president, indicated a bitter, though one-sided contention, for the office of president. Dr. Mariana Bertola of San Francisco was the unanimous choice of the committee for nominee. Mrs. March states that tomorrow her name will be placed in nomination from the floor by a member of the northern district, of which she was president a term ago. Mrs. March now gives her residence as Los Angeles, having spent the winter with her son in the southern metropolis.

SLAP AT ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. March, in her report, poorly concealed her feeling against the present administration.

"I have not been allowed to be seen in the limelight at any time during the two years of my service as vice-president," said Mrs. March. "Neither have I been given any work to do to show my mettle. Every honor, everything I might desire has been kept from me. Yet I can truthfully say I have grown in capacity and leadership in spite of this." The speaker continued by making suggestions of policy for the next president diametrically opposed to that of the present regime.

Mrs. March is supported by those with a strong belief in the unwritten law that the vice-president should become president, but a still stronger feeling exists among others that since Dr. Bertola defeated Mrs. March for vice-president-at-large four years ago, the choice of the federation is indicated. The unexpected contest is adding zest to the convention.

Nominees virtually sure of election are: Mrs. Lydia Lawhead of the northern district for vice-president; Mrs. Henry Goodcell of the southern district for vice-president-at-large; Mrs. George W. Turner of San Joaquin district for treasurer, and Mrs. George A. Rigg of the north, and Mrs. Warren G. Holden of Los Angeles, for auditors.

GREETING FROM GOVERNOR

Telegrams were sent to the Kentucky and the Iowa federations, which opened their annual conventions at the same hour with California. Mrs. Fitzgerald, a member of the State Welfare Board, read a telegram from Gov. Richardson felicitating the club women on their achievements. She gave her report as chairman of junior memberships and presented the youngest State president, Miss Ralphine Mills of Lodi, whose club numbers 400, and who made a remarkable little speech.

"We don't need your advice, we younger club women and junior auxiliaries," she said. "We know how to run clubs quite well, thank you. But we do like your interest and co-operation." And she proceeded to give a report of success unparalleled thus far. Next in youth to her were mentioned the newly-elected president of the Sierra Madre Club, Miss Ruth Klemme.

MEANS ASKS PRISON TERM

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, May 19.—With his back to the wall and facing renewed onslaughts by the agents of the government, Gaston B. Means, investigator extraordinary and central figure in many sensational episodes of recent American history, has sought refuge within the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary.

Means's surrender came today in District of Columbia Supreme Court when he asked to be allowed to begin a two years' sentence imposed in connection with illegal whisky withdrawals. Pending against him when he threw up the sponge was a charge of forgery involving the signing of the name of Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, and relating to documents figuring in the Daugherty investigation.

Sensational testimony was given by Means in the Daugherty inquiry, and since that time his name has been connected with reports and denials of restrictions. A knowing smile and a mysterious air have been his reaction when questioned about these matters.

The date of departure for Atlanta has not been determined, nor has the Department of Justice made known whether it would press at once the forgery charge. It was indicated, however, that it would permit Means to go to Atlanta.

Means is in jail in Washington, D. C. It was said Means's bondsmen had surrendered him on a charge of forging Senator Brookhart's name.

MOTHER SLAYS SON, TAKES POISON DOSE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Mrs. Norine Tautphaus, wife of a barber, killed her 9-year-old son, Walter, with an ax at their home here today, and then swallowed poison, from the effects of which she is expected to die. She left a note indicating that slander had driven her to her act.

DEBT FUNDING INITIATIVE IS TAKEN BY BELGIUM

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
WASHINGTON, May 19.—The limelight in the debt funding situation, which has been centered largely on France during the recent discussions, shifted today to Belgium, following announcement that Baron De Cartier De Marchienne, Ambassador of that country, is returning to Brussels early next month to discuss the question with his government, which was considered generally here today as a move of outstanding significance because of the strategic position which Belgium occupies in many ways and also because of the fact that Belgium's debt is large, amounting with accrued interest to $480,509,983.

The whole situation apparently is proceeding as satisfactorily as officials here could expect, and while no formal announcements were made, a spirit of hope and optimism was manifested as to an adjustment of the debt problem being reached.

MAIN DEVELOPMENTS

Other developments of the day were:

Assertion at the White House that President Coolidge had considered this an opportune time to see if some settlement could not be reached.

Presentation to the President by B. F. Yoacum, a former railroad president and financier, of a plan suggesting "an arrangement with our European debtors which would give them 100 years in which to pay us and each other at 2½ per cent per annum interest charge, commencing two years after date of obligation."

Declaration that most of the exchanges with European governments regarding debt has taken place within the past three or four weeks; and,

Reiteration and emphasis of the denial that there had been any difference of opinion on this subject between the State Department and the Debt Funding Commission.

OPTIMISM SHOWN

The attitude of Belgium was taken to be indicative of what may be expected all along the line, and this was believed to have been responsible, to some degree at least, for the general optimism. The conversations on the subject have been carried on in this case, it was learned, between the American Ambassador in Brussels, William Phillips, and officials of the government. In the case of Italy that country's Ambassador here has discussed the matter with Secretary Kellogg.

In the statement of his plan which he presented to the President Mr. Yoakum, after pointing to the heavy debts and taxes of Europe, declares that "as the world's greatest creditor nation we owe it to ourselves no less than to our debtors boldly and courageously to take the initiative in a movement to restore contentment in the minds of the masses," adding:

"To accomplish this to an extent that would be be immediately felt all that is needed is to get the debtor nations to the United States into an agreement common to all as to an international funding scheme resting upon a long-term basis. A hundred years is none too long upon which to base any practicable and trustworthy funding scheme."

PROPOSAL BY FRANCE EXPECTED IN FEW DAYS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]
PARIS, May 19.—Premier Painleve, M. Briand, the Foreign Minister, and M. Caillaux, Finance Minister, went over the French financial situation together this evening, considering particularly the question of inter-Allied debts. At the conclusion of the conference, the official spokesman of Quai d'Orsay announced to the correspondents:

"The inter-Allied debts question may now be said to have entered the state of real official negotiations. If the negotiations are not yet in an officially international state, internal study of the question here makes it certain that they will be within a few days.

"The Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Finance will confer again this week for the purpose of drawing up suggestions to be presented to the United States government. M. Briand will be assisted by competent Foreign Office authorities, including M. Berthelot, General Secretary of the Ministry, and M. Seydoux, Director of Political Affairs."

Body Committed to Tomb

Nation Pays Last Tribute to Hero of Civil and Indian Wars

President Coolidge Attends Simple But Impressive Burial Service

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
WASHINGTON, May 19.—The body of Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles, a nation's hero, rests tonight in the marble mausoleum built on the grassy brow of Arlington, overlooking the nation's Capitol. It was placed there this afternoon with ceremonies impressively simple, but with military pomp unequalled since the burial of the Unknown Soldier.

President Coolidge, Gen. Pershing and other notables of the nation, representing every arm of the Federal government and almost every State in the Union, paid silent tribute to the great soldier.

There was no eulogy. Gen. Miles needed none. His eulogy has stood on the printed pages of history for many years and has been engraved in the hearts of every growing generation since the Civil War.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE

The simple rites of the Episcopal Church, as laid down by the Book of Common Prayer, were read at the church and at the tomb. French 75's, placed upon the grass-grown breastworks of Civil War days, boomed a salute of fifteen guns at minute intervals as the procession moved into the national cemetery—the salute of a Lieutenant-General. Troops of the regular army fired three volleys as the flag-draped, steel gray casket was placed in its marble setting. Then a bugler played the soldier's sombre good night—Taps.

That was all, save that the army band played the favorite hymn of the veteran hero of Chancellorsville, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," just before the white-robed minister read the office for the burial of the dead. It was as Gen. Miles had wished it—in every respect a soldier's funeral.

MILITARY ESCORT

Early in the afternoon the casket was borne from the Rochambeau Apartments on the shoulders of six stalwarts of the Regular Army, placed upon a caisson drawn by six bay horses and taken to St. John's Episcopal Church. A detachment of the Third Cavalry formed the escort through lanes of solidly packed citizens standing with bowed heads. The army band played, "Nearer My God to Thee," the casket was borne into the little edifice where awaited the President and most of official Washington.

The services were short. The procession from the church moved on past the White House and over the bridge which spans the Potomac and links the city with the military road leading up the slopes to Arlington. At its head rode Brig.-Gen. Rockenbach, commander of the District of Washington, and his staff.

Then came the cavalry escort, a battalion of the Sixteenth Field Artillery, a battalion of Engineers, the Twelfth Infantry, a battalion of Marines from Quantico and a detachment of sailors from the Norfolk naval base. The troops

How did masks come into use?

In ancient Greek tragedy, which was an outgrowth of religious ceremonies, masks were used, and soon after they were introduced into comedy. Different characters wore them to represent such emotions as fear, hate, joy, love and sorrow. The familiar masks representing Comedy and Tragedy are often employed in painting and decoration to symbolize dramatic art.

Since "all life is a stage," it may be said that Times Want Ads play a leading role in Southern California, being the agency through which countless needs, wishes, hopes and ambitions are satisfied.

RECORD RAIN IN BAY CITY

Season's Total 30.4 Inches

Southland Due to Get Part of Worst May Storm in History

Petaluma Section Flooded With Rivers Nearing Overflow Stage

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Rainfall records of many years' standing were broken in San Francisco today by one of the heaviest downpours of the season. A cloud so black and heavy as to bring an appearance of night-time hung over the city and Marin county at noontime, covering the bay region with more water than it has had any May since the Weather Bureau office was opened three-fourths of a century ago. The fall to date this season is now 30.4 inches, which is more than during any year to date since 1890, when there were 45.55 inches.

The current storm, which is almost local, according to Forecaster E. H. Bowie of the Weather Bureau, has extended not much farther than the bay counties and a few miles into the Sacramento Valley. Since it arrived off the Golden Gate Sunday the low pressure area has remained almost stationary, moving eastward only a few miles.

DAMAGE LIMITED

Santa Rosa and Point Reyes report even more rain than San Francisco this week. The city has received a total of 1.26 inches since Sunday, while Point Reyes has had 2.19 inches and Santa Rosa, 2.04 inches. Forecaster Bowie points out that because of the limited area of the storm, the damage is not extensive. Hay, grain, berries and cherries in the bay region are damaged. The worst crop hit was hay, which had been cut and was lying in the fields waiting to be baled. Many acres of standing hay were hit by the heavy downpour and can only be cut by hand with a scythe. Royal Ann and early cherries were considerably damaged in some sections where they ripen early, but in most of the bay region the fruit was not far enough advanced to be greatly injured.

The total rainfall for the month is now 3.66 inches, which is .14 inches heavier than in May, 1883, which was the record year for May rain. Only ten times in the last seventy-five years has there been over thirty inches of rain up to May 19 and there has been none to equal the current season since the record-breaking years of 1889-1890, when almost forty-six inches of rain fell.

DUE IN SOUTHLAND

The storm, which came in from the southwest instead of the North Pacific, is expected to extend itself somewhat tomorrow. The interior valleys and Southern California, which have had no rain so far this week and whose seasonal precipitation is far below normal, expect showers before morning.

The normal precipitation in San Francisco to date is 21.86 inches. Last year it was 11.62 inches and this year almost 30½ inches. Forecaster Bowie says:

"The disturbance referred to in previous weather reports maintains its center off the California coast and it has caused showers within the last twenty-four hours along the Northern California coast and in the interior of the northern portion of Upper California and in scattered parts of Oregon and Washington. With the exception of Florida, the rest of the country is enjoying fair weather. The outlook is for continued unsettled conditions for at least another twenty-four hours."

PETALUMA FLOODED

Scores of Petalumans were marooned in their homes this afternoon when downpours approximating cloudbursts flooded the city and surrounding territory.

At the same time, other points north of San Francisco reported flood menace unless the heavy rains ceased at once.

Roads in Sonoma county were under water tonight. The Redwood Highway was one of them. Orchards were flooded.

Light Showers Visit City While Tempest Injures Several and Does Damage in Riverside

The tail end of a storm which has been raging in the northern part of the State came to Southern California yesterday and performed all day in a series of unusual demonstrations. The first arrival of the disturbance was reported from San Diego, where .02 of an inch of rain fell early in the morning.

About noon the storm wave had circled back as far as Los Angeles, where a trace of rain fell in a snappy shower of about five minutes' duration. Then with Monrovia, Pomona and other foothill cities reporting a light shower later in the afternoon, came reports from San Bernardino and Riverside counties that one of the worst disturbances had taken place that had been recorded in many years.

Rain, hail, thunder and lightning featured the storm to the east of Los Angeles to the extent that considerable property damage resulted and several persons were injured. Many were badly frightened by the unusual electrical disturbances.

NEW ESPEE LINE TO TAP OREGON

Road Connecting at Wendel to be Converted

Plans Include Completion of Second Feeder

Program Awaits Approval of Commission

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—A new rail artery through Southern and Central Oregon for through traffic between Oregon and the Eastern States will be made possible through steps taken by the Southern Pacific Company for the conversion of the Nevada-California-Oregon Railway to a standard gauge line and the completion of the Oregon, California and Eastern Railway, it was announced today.

The proposed arrangements which must first be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, provide, according to a statement by President William Sproule of the Southern Pacific, for the rebuilding under Southern Pacific auspices of the Nevada-California-Oregon Railway as a broad gauge line for its entire distance of 156 miles between Lakeview, Or., and Wendel, Cal., where it connects with the Southern Pacific.

The arrangements were made with President Charles Moran of the Nevada-California-Oregon line whereby the Southern Pacific will aid him in securing the money for the work thus giving that company a substantial interest in the road.

At the same time Sproule announced that the Southern Pacific has completed negotiations with President R. E. Struhorn of the Oregon, California and Eastern Railway under which funds will be advanced to aid in the construction of the line of his company from Klamath Falls, Or., to connect with the Nevada-California-Oregon Railway. This would give the Southern Pacific a substantial stock in the interest in the Oregon, California and Eastern, which now extends forty miles from its connection with the Southern Pacific at Klamath Falls easterly to Sprague River, Or.

GIRLS OF 18 LEAD STATE IN MARRIAGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—There were 55,676 brides in California during the year 1924, and of that number the most popular age was that of 18 years, which was in the case of girls who were married for the first time, it was announced today by L. E. Ross, director of the State Bureau of Vital Statistics.

There were 41,008 brides who went through the marriage ceremony for the first time, 8650 divorcee brides and 6018 brides who had lost their first husbands by death.

The "single" statistics showed that one girl was married at the age of 13 years and another at 14. At "sweet sixteen" 942 girls made their first try at matrimony and 1555 at 17. The peak was reached at the age of 18 years, when 6225 girls were wed. Other figures showed one single woman at 71, one at 69 and thirty-four at 50.

Three divorced girls were married at 16, eleven at 17, forty-eight at 18 and in about that ratio until the age of 28 years was reached, when 533 divorcees were shown to have taken unto themselves new husbands. One divorcee was remarried at the age of 74 and another at 73.

Two youthful widows, aged 16, were remarried, as were twenty-three widows who gave their ages as 18 years. Of widows, the peak was reached at the age of 40, at which age, the figures showed, 280 were remarried. There were three aged widows remarried, one at 85, another at 80 and the third at 79.

ence of the ministers is interpreted as meaning the draft proposal to the United States will be complete at this meeting.

PRESS TONE FRIENDLIER

The Painleve - Briand - Caillaux conference occupied two hours. The ministers acquainted the Premier with the present status of the work undertaken by the experts of their respective departments in drawing up proposals which will be sent to the United States and Great Britain simultaneously.

Nothing in the nature of pressure, it is asserted, is to be found to the communications directed by the Washington government to America's European debtors concerning a settlement of the debts and the conferences now going on in Paris will continue without undue haste. The joint efforts of the Briand and Caillaux experts have reached a point where the result can be make known before many days have elapsed.

The entire French press today is adopting a much more friendly tone in which there is a tinge of relief that the United States is sending no official note to France. The newspapers urge the government to make all possible haste in submitting proposals acceptable to Washington. The Petit Parisien, the Matin and the Temps, all publish leading articles asking public opinion to refrain from premature judgment and advising patience and confidence that the government's effort "will not effect the relations between the United States and France, which were never better or more cordial."

marched at quick time across the river, while the three bands which interspersed the procession played the religious marches "Our Fallen Hero," "Pathetic" and "Religioso."

Beside the caisson rode a grizzled sergeant bearing the three-starred blue pennant of a lieutenant-general and behind it in automobiles came the next of kin, the general's daughter, Mrs. Samuel Reber, his son, Maj. Sherman Miles, and the two grandchildren who were at the circus with their famous grandsire when he died.

VETERANS IN LINE

Veterans who fought in Gen. Miles's division at Chancellorsville and Sharpsburg came in the cars behind and a group of Spanish War veterans who served under him as commanding general of the Army, followed afoot. Among the organizations represented were the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, of which Gen. Miles was elected commander-in-chief last year; Grand Army of the Potomac, Indian War Veterans' Society, United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Dames of the Loyal Legion, and Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

At the south gate to the cemetery the mounted detachments left the procession, which wound its way up the twisting road to the slow dirge of funeral marches. Uniforms of other nations—military attaches of the embassies and legations—blended with the olive-drab as the military of high rank moved on foot across the lawn to the mausoleum.

The President did not go to Arlington, but Gen. Pershing was there and Gen. LeJeune, commandant of the Marine Corps, and members of the Cabinet. Throngs lined the roadside the entire distance and so great was the press in the cemetery that ropes had to be strung by soldiers from tree to tree to hold back the crowd and permit a space sufficient for the military and those participating in the ceremony.

But the hush was such that those standing many ranks away could hear the white-robed rector of St. Johns, Rev. Robert Johnson, quoting the burial of the dead: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

Hundreds Attend Consecration of Episcopal Church

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 19.—With the All Saints' Episcopal Church filled with leading church officials and members of the parish, consecration ceremonies were conducted by Rt. Rev. Joseph Horsfall Johnson, Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles. He was assisted in the lengthy ceremony by Rt. Rev. Bertrand Stevens, Bishop Coadjutator; Dr. Leslie E. Learned, rector; and Rev. Rufus S. Chase, assistant rector of the Pasadena edifice.

The new All Saints' Church, one of the most beautiful in the city, was completed but recently. Dean William MacCormack of St. Paul's Cathedral of Los Angeles, preached the consecration sermon. Dean MacCormack is a former rector of the Pasadena church. Two other former rectors, Rev. Albert Fletcher and Rev. J. D. H. Brown, took an active part in the service.

Bishop Johnson was received at the entrance of the church by the wardens and the vestrymen. They marched up the center aisle and laid the certificate of consecration on the communion table. The instruments of donation and endowment were presented to the Bishop by William F. Knight, senior warden. Following the ceremony a luncheon for the distinguished guests was served at the Hotel Maryland.

CHIEF SAYS SHIPS WILL BE JUNKED

O'Connor Avers Experts Turned Thumbs Down on Idle Carriers

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Chairman O'Connor of the Shipping Board, declared in a statement today that his proposal to scrap as useless 400 idle government merchant vessels, was supported by a report of a committee of experts made to him last April.

The experts, he said, found that 521 cargo vessels, of which 302 were lake boats, were in excess of the commercial needs of the country and were not required in connection with the military service.

The committee was made up of representatives of the War Department, Navy Department, Department of Commerce, the Shipping Board and the Fleet Corporation and was said to have acted under the authority of the committee appointed by the President in 1924 to study and make recommendations on matters affecting the American merchant marine. The report of the President's committee was made public some time ago, but it did not go into detail on the question of scrapping.

In the light of the experts' report, Chairman O'Connor is understood to hold that there is no question as to maintenance of a sufficient naval reserve at issue in the pending recommendation of the Shipping Board's subcommittee on scrapping, to dispose of 200 vessels of the idle fleet for junking. The board's subcommittee is in agreement to recommend such a policy, and is expected to submit its report to the full board next week.

Ma, at Her Desk Again, Tells of Vacation Joys

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

AUSTIN (Tex.) May 19.—Gov. Ferguson is back at her desk after a week's vacation. She knocked off from the arduous duties of the executive office to go fishing.

It was not merely a pretense at fishing, either. She actually spent hours under the broiling sun in a row boat on the Sabine Bay, pole in hand, trolling for gamey members of the finny tribe. Liberal catches rewarded her efforts. She also gathered a fashionable coat of sunburn.

It was as guests of Lutcher Stark of Orange, millionaire lumber manufacturer, that Gov. Ferguson and her husband spent their delightful outing.

It was the first vacation Gov. Ferguson has had since she assumed the duties of her office last January. She says she enjoyed every minute of her visit to the gulf waters, and the pine forests of Eastern Texas.

MADRID, May 19.—A decree published today for the protection of the national olive oil industry allows free exportation of oils with registered national trade-marks and regulates the production, blending and sale of such oils.

STORM REACHES INTO SOUTHLAND

woman was injured and many narrowly escaped being hurt in the storm that swept that county. Lightning caused six small fires in the city of Riverside, where phone and car service was demoralized for several hours because of the storm.

Mrs. M. Usher of Hemet suffered a paralytic stroke, rendering useless one of her legs, when a bolt of lightning struck her home tearing away a portion of the rear wall. S. V. Terry, also of Hemet, had a narrow escape from serious injury when the lightning came through the roof of his home and another bolt struck an apricot tree near the house. Both shocks happened the same instant. The house was badly damaged but Mr. Mr Terry was uninjured.

NARROW ESCAPE

County Fire Warden Fred M. Baird of Riverside county had a narrow escape at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon as he was driving his car from Nuevo to Perris. A bolt of lightning struck a gopher hole near the highway about a thousand feet ahead of the automobile. As the bolt hit the earth there was a deafening crash and dirt was thrown into the air and scattered for a considerable distance. Baird declared the effect was similar to that caused by an explosive bomb. Although the warden was shocked by the impact, he was not otherwise injured.

Fire damage was stopped in many instances in the country districts by heavy showers accompanying the electrical disturbances.

The storm in San Bernardino county is reported the worst in thirty years. Rain fell from late morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon with a total fall of nearly an inch. Telephones and power lines were out of commission for hours and the motors on four street cars were burned out.

The Weather Bureau predicts unsettled weather for tomorrow, adding that there may be showers.

RECORD RAINS IN BAY REGION

River was rising steadily to flood conditions.

Marin county residents were preparing to combat conditions similar to last February's flood unless the continued rains ended within a few hours.

The report from Petaluma stated that the Cotati district, north of the city, is all under water and below the city the marshes present the appearance of a vast inland sea. The rainfall for the season there, up to late today, was 32.23 inches.

Following are the rainfall figures for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 o'clock this evening:

STATE ASSISTANCE IN RECLAMATION SEEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SPOKANE (Wash.) May 19.—Development of Federal reclamation projects already established should not be made to await establishment of new Federal reclamation policy. Representative Addison T. Smith of Idaho, chairman of the House Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation, declared here today. He asserted "that active State participation with the Federal government in future reclamation development is almost certain to become a permanent policy."

WOMAN TO BE TRIED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

GLOBE (Ariz.) May 19.—Mrs. Ida R. Williams has pleaded not guilty of a charge of murder of her husband in Globe last February, and will be tried in the Superior Court June 8. The killing is asserted to have been at the family home.

RIVERS OF BEER FLOOD ONTARIO

Border Towns Prepare for Yankee Rush Tomorrow

Good Old 4.4 to be Lure for Thirsty Pilgrims

Huge Sum to be Left Behind at 10 Cents a Throw

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

OTTAWA (Ont.) May 19.—Tonight rivers of beer are flooding in an unabated trek to every point in Ontario that is within a radius of 100 miles of the United States border; for with the government turning on the 4.4 faucets Thursday, the Province of Ontario over the week-end expects the greatest rush of thirsty United States visitors to her soil that she has had at any one time in her history.

Tonight, to cope with the situation, the breweries are working double shifts overtime and trains, motor cars and motorboats are all carrying their big quotas of "wet goods" throughout the entire Province and to all border points. On the St. Lawrence, Niagara, Detroit and St. Claire rivers, the customs and immigration departments have been informed that the ferry companies are all placing on extra boats and expect to handle the greatest number of passengers in their history.

The Federal government has ordered that the customs and immigration officers on this side of the borden see that Federal laws are obeyed to the final letter. But from the provincial government it is announced that the Ferguson government expects the United States visitors and tourists will leave $3,000,000 during the summer months for Ontario 4.4 that will trek into the Ontario government treasury.

The Ontario license board has been devoting much of its attention to getting out permits for the hotels, and it is stated that in the great majority of cases this will have been accomplished by the 21st inst.

Breweries state there has been a great demand for the new beverage and shipments were in full swing. A representative of one concern stated that the utmost efforts were being made to supply agencies throughout the Province in order that they would be in a position to deliver the beer to the hotels in their districts on Thursday morning.

Hotel men express the opinion that the beer will be sold at 10 cents a glass and 25 cents for a pint bottle.

JUDGE HEARS COMMERCIAL ART DEFINED

Counsel Says It's Painting Collar and Chewing Gum Ads for Money

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) May 19.—A commercial artist was defined as "one who paints collar and chewing-gum advertisements for remuneration," as distinguished from "art artists, who live in attics and paint for art's sake," in the Supreme Court here.

Maurice Vuckert, attorney for Mrs. Rose Still of Crotonville, sought an increase in the $50 weekly alimony paid by Roy Still, a commercial artist in New York. Mrs. Still sued for separation and Still countered with a divorce suit in which he named Harry Greene, a former State trooper, as co-respondent.

The definition was offered by Vuckert when he said Still earned $10,000 to $15,000 annually, and Justice Seeger asked what he meant by a commercial artist. Decision on the application for increased alimony was reserved.

Chicago Records Temblor Lasting Over Two Hours

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 19.—An earthquake shock was registered on the United States Weather Bureau seismograph at the University of Chicago at 12:45 a.m. (Chicago time,) tremors continuing until 3:20 a.m. after the first quake there was a distinct second shock around 1:51 a.m. The record indicated the disturbance was 1450 miles away, but the direction was not shown.

At Georgetown University the seismograph showed a quake starting at 12:43 a.m., which corresponds within a minute to the time shown here considering the variance in time standards. It lasted there until 2:35 a.m., and was estimated to be 8000 miles from Washington, D. C.

SCORES HURT IN TUBE PA

Wild Rush of Terror-Stricken Passengers Short Circuit in New York Subway

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—More than 100 persons injured, scores of whom were taken to hospitals, shortly before 10 o'clock this evening when a short circuit on a six-car southbound local train which had just left the Grand Central Station filled the tube with smoke and started the worst panic in the history of the subway.

Men in the forepart of the train, deafened by terror, hurled themselves over children, aside and trampled them as they fought their way to safety. Others smashed the windows and scores were injured by flying glass.

Dozens were knocked down and some were trampled. Others managed to dive head first through the windows. One woman threw herself to the tracks. Others were injured after the doors had been opened and the passengers were headlong in blind terror on the tracks to the Times Square station.

Ambulances were rushed to the scene from various hospitals, police reserves were called to draw up lines. Physicians were brought a detachment of police and nurses from Bellevue Hospital, alarm, which summoned physicians, brought apparatus and nurses from hospitals thousands to the scene.

A score or more of persons were seriously injured was carried from the Hotel Vanderbilt, which was turned into a temporary hospital.

The first policeman to enter the subway was Patrolman Steinwand of the Bleecker street station. He encountered a guard of the passengers, their faces blackened and bloody, their clothes torn clothing, pouring out of the tube. Thirty-third-street station. Steinwand, a rifle, was the first to enter the tube. It was almost ten minutes Steinwand could fight his way down to the platform.

When he finally reached the train he found it empty. He then went through the smoke-filled tube, meeting a long stream of passengers, who were running frantically down the tracks. One girl, who had lost her shoe, was running in her stocking feet. Several girls tripped and fell and were trampled by those behind.

CHURCH HEADS PLAN REUNION

from state restrictions, and which complains bitterly against the appointment of bishops by prime ministers, who may be Baptists, like David Lloyd Georie, Presbyterians, like Ramsay MacDonald and Lord Balfour, or even of no religion.

The growth of the Catholic movement has been the most remarkable in the development of the recent religious history of England. It is said that the Anglo-Catholics would make the Anglican church a patriarchate, with a large measure of independence, retaining the English liturgy. The chief difficulty so far has been the refusal of Rome to recognize the validity of the Anglican order and its insistence on the reordination of the Anglican priests before admittance to the priestly functions of the Roman church.

CATHOLIC CONTROL

It is asserted by the Anglo-Catholics that they now control fully a third of the membership of the English Church, and that masses are said and confessions are heard in at least a third of the churches. Chester Cathedral has a dozen altars where mass is said daily and incense burned.

It is asserted that there are now more monks and nuns in the Anglican Church than before the Reformation. Bishop King of Lincoln is the first Anglican bishop since the Reformation to wear a mitre and the Bishop of London wears a mitre. There is a joke among his clergy that he even sleeps in it.

If the Anglo-Catholic movement succeeds it will certainly mean a split in the English Church for there is a large Protestant party and a large Indifferentist party which will not go to Rome. If it fails a split also is probable because many fervent Anglo-Catholics will be disappointed at the failure to obtain a reunion and will go to Rome anyway. Owing to the self-sacrifice and devotion of the Anglo-Catholic clergy this party is rapidly gaining strength.

DAVIS TRIAL EVIDENCE IN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TOPEKA (Kan.) May 19.—Evidence in the trial of ex-Gov. Jonathan M. Davis, charged with soliciting a bribe, was completed this afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. The court was adjourned at that hour until Wednesday morning, while instructions to the jury are being made up. Tomorrow will be taken up with the arguments of the attorneys.

Resuming the cross-examination of ex-Gov. Davis today, Atty.-Gen. Charles B. Griffith reviewed a long list of pardons and paroles issued by the former executive in the face of protests from jurors, prosecutors and citizens.

In each case the Attorney-General asked Davis:

"Did you receive any money for a parole in this case?"

"No."

Among the cases to which Griffith called attention were those of Glenn Davis, Fred Pollman, Walter Grundy, F. D. Bushnell, S. H. Jamison and Dr. W. A. Nixon.

The Attorney-General accused Davis of setting up his judgment against that of the court, jury and Supreme Court in the case of Jamison.

"There was no consideration of any kind," was Davis's answer.

Emerson Carey, former State Senator, salt manufacturer of Hutchinson, was called to testify that he had protested against the parole of Walter Grundy. Carey said he asked Gov. Davis not to parole Grundy and Gov. Davis replied that he would not do it.

Late today, after character witnesses for Gov. Davis had been examined, S. S. Irwin, pardon attorney under Davis, was called to the stand. The Irwin testimony was to refute that of Anthony L. Oswald. Oswald had testified that no one was in the private office except the Governor and Oswald when Oswald talked about "the Peterson route." Davis testified that Irwin was present all the time. Irwin also said he was present during the conversation with Davis. Irwin testified also he was in the Governor's office all the time Glenn Davis was with Gov. Davis.

STATE BOASTS 4,021,323

Population Estimate Made by L. F. Ross of Statistics Bureau; 500,000 Added Since 1920

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—The population of California now exceeds 4,000,000, according to an estimate today by L. F. Ross, of the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. Ross's estimate is 4,021,323, and is based upon the average annual increase for several years as shown by the United States Census figures.

The estimate represents an increase of over 500,000 since the Federal census in 1920.

Records compiled by Ross show that the natural increase in the State's population last year was 30,148, representing the number of births over deaths, and in addition he estimates the State gained 77,936 new residents due to migration, after making allowance for departures.

California, on this basis, is adding permanent new settlers to her population at the rate of about 214 per day, a large percentage of whom are finding homes in Los Angeles and other cities in the Southern part of the State.

The director of the bureau has been estimating the population of the State since 1920. Here are his figures, showing a steady increase each year in the population:

Year	Population	Year	Population
1923	3,805,155

Woman Seeks Death in Ocean; Gets Mud Bath

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BERKELEY, May 19.—Following a quarrel with her husband, a comely young Berkeley matron today fled their home and walked hurriedly and tearfully in the direction of San Francisco Bay with the announced intention of "ending it all."

Stumbling through the darkness out onto a little wharf, the woman who was tired of life paused for a moment and shuddered as she gazed down into the black waters. Then she gritted her teeth and jumped.

The tide was out. She landed in six inches of water and four feet of ooze. Her screams summoned police. At the emergency hospital attendants scraped off the thickest of the coating of mud and sent the patient home, weeping, with the renewed determination to carry on.

MEXICO DENIES JUNTA TALE

MEXICO CITY, May 19.—The War Department issued a denial of reports ascribed to the "revolutionary junta" in the United States that rebels have crossed into Mexico. The border is well guarded to prevent any such invasion, the department says, and quiet prevails.

TEXAN TELLS OF CHILD SLAVERY

Woman Makes Charges at Conference in East

Foundlings Sent Into Crime and Sin, She Says

Washingtonian Gives Story of Abuses in Northwest

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Thousands of children from foundling homes are shipped by a New York society to Texas farms, where the children are placed frequently in unfit homes, some of them to become criminals, illiterate cotton pickers and social outcasts, Mrs. Bennett Smith of Temple, Tex., charged today at the child welfare conference in the Hotel Biltmore.

Mrs. Smith later characterized the practice as "child slavery," explaining that the children are tagged with the names of their new parents and given a semblance of legality and are adopted as a matter of form by farmers who use them for heavy farm work. Mrs. Smith refused to give the name of the organization responsible.

"There is no kind of supervision," Mrs. Smith said, "over the welfare of the children once they are taken into Texas under this guise of legal adoption. Many persons in Texas object strongly to this unregulated system.

Mrs. D. F. Westmore of Spokane, Wash., made similar charges declaring that young children are taken in large groups from the congested East to Northwestern States and, although legally adopted by farmers, become a part of the migratory labor.

"The adopted parents of such children evade the compulsory education laws," Mrs. Westmore said, "and agents are sent East to arrange for the wholesale transportation to great apple orchards and truck farms."

Justice Samuel D. Levy of the New York Children's Court, presiding, said he did not know such condition existed, nor did he believe the people of the East were cognizant of the conditions described.

MEXICO MAY GET LOAN TO BUILD ROADS

United States Auto Makers Offer $30,000,000 Aid to Increase Markets

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MEXICO CITY, May 19.—A loan of $30,000,000 has been offered the Mexican government by a group of the leading automobile manufacturers of the United States on condition that the loan be used in the construction of roads throughout the republic and particularly in the building of an international highway from Mexico City to the American border.

Newspapers which quote semi-official sources as authority for the offer of the loan state that such a financial advance will be guaranteed by the recently imposed special tax on each liter of gasoline sold in Mexico, the funds thus derived to be used in improving present highways and in building new ones.

The offer, according to local newspapers, is being studied to decide whether it can be accepted and submitted to Congress for final action. It was stated that the American automobile manufacturers were prompted to make the offer because of overproduction, believing that the improvement and extension of the Mexican highways will afford a new market for their cars.

BABY FARM PROPRIETOR IS INDICTED

Substitution of Infants Charged; Indictment on Manslaughter Asked

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Mrs. Helen A. Geisen-Volk, proprietor of nurseries at 235 East Eighty-sixth street, and prior to that at 666 Park avenue, at which forty-four babies are known to have died since 1917, was indicted today for the substitution of Frances Shimkus for Stephen, the infant son of William Angerer.

While Asst. Dist.-Atty. Hastings presented the substitution case to the regular grand jury, Asst. Dist.-Atty. Ryan was asking the additional grand jury to indict Mrs. Geisen-Volk for manslaughter in the death of William Winters, Jr., who died at her Eighty-sixth street nursery on February 3.

The body of the Winters child was exhumed last week from Calvary Cemetery, and Dr. Otto H. Schultze, medical examiner of the District Attorney's office, found he had died as the results of a fracture of the skull and not, as set forth in the death certificate, of "congenital heart disease."

Dr. Charles Cassasa, deputy medical examiner, who signed the certificate, was a witness before the additional grand jury today, as was Detective Fred Winkelman, who directed the exhumation, and has been effective in the investigation.

BAY CITY FERRY LINE WILL CUT AUTO RATE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—The Martinez Benicia Ferry Company, operating between bay points, today voluntarily filed with the State Railroad Commission a petition for a rate reduction from 75 cents to 55 cents for transporting automobiles. The adjustment sought is in line with the recent order of the commission reducing rates charged with the Rodeo-Vallejo and Golden Gate Ferry companies.

Two Killed as Plane Crashes After Tail Spin

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WESTFIELD (Wis.) May 19.—Two aviators were killed near here today when their machine went into a tail spin at 2000 feet and crashed to earth on Bluemke's Hill. The dead are Rellis G. Conant, 29 years of age, of Westfield, and his student, W. E. Herscheleb, 47 years of age, Wisconsin Rapids. Conant, a lieutenant in the air service during the World War and former District Attorney of Marquette county, left Wisconsin Ranids today with Herscheleb, to whom he had recently sold a plane and whom he was instructing in handling the controls.

MEXICO FORBIDS SHRINERS' FEZZES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

JUAREZ (Mex.) May 19.—Shriners hitting the desert sands en route to the Los Angeles Mecca of Shrinedom, must go fezless to Juarez or drinkless to Los Angeles, Immigration Chief Nicolas Perez has ruled.

An old law passed during the administration of Benito Juarez prohibits the wearing of religious or lodge insignia in Mexco. This law would bar the Shriners who are coming this way in caravans to see the old mission church and the municipal monument on their way to Los Angeles. Plans are being made to supply the Shriners with high-crowned Mexican straw hats to wear instead of their fezzes when crossing to Juarez.

Your eastern Shrine friends will appreciate getting the Los Angeles Times during the big Los Angeles convention. Special subscription offer: seven issues of The Times, May 31 to June 6, including beautiful rotogravure souvenir Shrine supplement mailed anywhere in Uited States 50c postage prepaid.

ESCAPED LIFER TRIES TO SLAY

Man Reprieved by Governor Still Murderous

Spouse, in Terror, Reveals His Identity

Kentuckian Who Slew Wife Assaults Second

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FRANKFORT (Ky.) May 19.—Julius Babey, 38 years of age, under life sentence for the murder of his wife Agnes in 1915, is back in the State Reformatory here, whence he escaped in March, 1921. He was recaptured in St. Louis. Jealousy of a woman was the cause of his being "turned up" to the officials.

Babey's arrest followed an asserted attempt in St. Louis to kill his present wife, Mildred Fosser—Babey was sometimes known as Fosser—whom, it is said, Babey attacked with a razor. The husband was in a rage because his wife had attended an amusement park the night before, it is said.

Mrs. Fosser promptly notified St. Louis officers that her husband was a fugitive from justice. She told of the husband's asserted attempt on her life, warned them that he was a desperate man and that he had escaped from the Kentucky prison.

ESCAPED NOOSE

Babey is quoted as having told St. Louis police that he had been sentenced to death, but that Gov. Stanley commuted his sentence to life imprisonment. Stanley stated his opinion at the time that Babey was insane. Babey was a trusty at the prison. He went to Ironton, O., after his escape, took the name of Fosser, later going to Columbus O., and thence to St. Louis.

"Babey will be under close scrutiny," Warden Bastin said when the man was returned.

Babey denied that he had threatened his wife, but said she had become hysterical when he had reprimanded her for visiting the amusement park.

Babey, then 21, wounded his mother-in-law, Mrs. Kate Thorpe, and killed his wife at Louisville the morning of April 23, 1915. Mrs. Babey had sued her husband for divorce and the papers had been served on him in Chicago. He returned to Louisville and was unsuccessful in several attempts to see his wife. They had been married May 9, 1911, and separated February 10, 1915. They had two daughters.

WENT TO KILL

The morning of the tragedy Babey went to the home of Mrs. Thorpe. She saw her son-in-law approaching and attempted to keep him out of the house. Babey, it is claimed, shot Mrs. Babey twice. The wife fled and the husband followed. Two bullets struck her and she died after running to the home of a neighbor. Two men caught Babey and held him until police arrived. Mrs. Thorpe was the chief witness against him at the trial, when Babey pleaded insanity. He was sentenced to death by a jury, June 15, 1915.

A search of Babey's possessions after his recent arrest disclosed a note to his mother, Mrs. Florence Babey, Louisville, intimating that he contemplated self-destruction. He married the wife who gave him away while he was a resident of Ironton, O., it is said.

Senator Fall Turns Farmer; Eschews Oil

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

THREE RIVERS (N. M.) May 19.—Senator Fall and his son-in-law, C. C. Chase, who lost his job as customs collector in El Paso because he would not testify against his father-in-law in the Teapot Dome hearing, are erecting a new cotton gin on the Fall ranch here to handle the crop which will be grown on the Fall and other ranches near here.

Senator Fall has turned farmer and cotton grower and is putting in a large cotton acreage this year. He has entirely recovered from the breakdown caused by worry over the Teapot Dome situation, and life outdoors on his ranch in the foothills of the Sacramento mountains has given him a deep coat of tan. Aside from a much-needed haircut he is the same old "Senator" who carried New Mexico politics around in the pocket for years.

About 4000 B. C., a public dispensary was established in Egypt, the medical attendant for which received the equivalent of $500 a year for his services. This was at that time about five times the amount received by a skilled laborer.

LOVE DREAM SONG FAILS ITS WRITER

Mrs. Sturgeon Charges Mate is Cruel; He Seeks to Avoid Paying Alimony

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 19.—"Hope on, sweetheart, till we meet again;
My love, I wait and wait for you,
Years cannot break the chain of love,
So surely will my dream come true."

The love song was written and published by Mrs. Ricca Sturgeon of Chicago shortly after her marriage on September 27, 1910.

Now her love chain is broken and her dream ended, but her husband, George L. Sturgeon, whom she charges with extreme cruelty, declares that his wife has a large income from her royalties on her love song and other compositions, and thinks they should save him from paying alimony.

Besides the song quoted in the bill, Mr. Sturgeon states in his cross-bill that Mrs. Sturgeon has written a number of motion-picture scenarios, among them "A Doubtful Honeymoon," "The Pledge," and "The Price of a Secret," all of which are paying her substantial royalties.

GIFT TO COP IS ADJUDGED NOT BRIBERY

Kind Grocer Admonished, However, to Give Money in Future to Charity

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—The $2 that Mannie Kleinfelt, grocer of Brooklyn, handed to Patrolman William Schmelter after the policeman had served a summons on Kleinfelt for a sanitary code violation, was a "good will gift," and not a bribe, Magistrate Dale decided in Fifth-avenue Court, Brooklyn.

After service of the summons Kleinfelt gave the policeman a $2 bill, saying "get yourself a cigar." Kleinfelt was fined on the charge of violation of the sanitary code, and the policeman rearrested him on a charge of bribery, on which charges the magistrate now frees him.

"This $2 was a good will gift, made out of the kindness of this grocer's heart," Magistrate Dale said. "If he had given it to the policeman with the request that he drop prosecution of the charge, then it would be considered a bribe." Turning to Kleinfelt, he said: "In the future, when charity wells up in your heart and fills your bosom, give your money to the Salvation Army, and then you won't get into trouble."

Two Sentenced for Reparation Papers' Thefts

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, May 19.—Pierre Michaut and Jean Herbert, former employees of the reparations commission, were sentenced today to eighteen months' and two years' imprisonment, respectively, for the theft of confidential documents belonging to the commission, which were later sold to Dennis T. Myers, an American. The testimony showed that the two Frenchmen abstracted or copied and sold to Myers more than 800 documents for 14,000 francs.

The missing documents of the reparations commission were stenographic reports of the inter-Allied conferences at Spa, Boulogne and Cannes.

Mercury Soars as Hot Wave Hits National Capital

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A sharp rise of 21 degrees in temperature in seven hours this morning presaged what Weather Bureau reports indicate is a warm wave that will last over the next few days and probably for the rest of the week.

"Now we're getting what is coming to us," said Prof. Henry J. Cox, chief forecaster, when he noted that the mercury had risen from 51 deg., at 5 a.m. to 72 at noon.

MURDERS COMPANION FOR DANCER'S SMILE

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PARIS, May 19.—"Perhaps she'll like you dead as well as alive," were the words the merry crowd leaving a dance salon heard, followed by the crack of a revolver. Emmanuel Augustal, 24 years of age, fell dead while his companion, Pierre Haut, was arrested as a slayer. The men, police say, quarreled over one of the dancers who preferred the company of Augustal to his chum.

OYSTER CROP HUGE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) May 19. During the season just closed Galveston, produced approximately 40,000 barrels of oysters, an increase of 28,000 barrels over the previous year. This is an increase of 230 per cent over the year before, according to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. The increase is due largely to the working of abandoned reefs where oysters had become overcrowded, dwarfed and unsuitable for the market.

HURT IN CARBIDE BLAST

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BISBEE (Ariz.) May 19.—Alberto Enriquez is in the hospital after an expensive lesson in chemical reactions. While he was puffing a cigarette he opened a large can of calcium carbide, suffering severe burns in the resultant explosion. It is believed his eyesight will be saved.

STUDENTS' DIETS MENACE HEALTH

Food Fads at University of Michigan Serious

Fats and Leans at Separate Tables One Result

Dietary Conference Called to Combat Vagaries

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ANN ARBOR (Mich.) May 19.—"Crazy Dieting," ranging from pineapple and lamb chop combinations to morning fasting, is so general an obsession among the overweight and underweight co-eds of the University of Michigan that it has prompted the inauguration of public health conferences at the university.

The erratic menus in vogue on the campus were caught from a similar contagion that is rampant at Smith College, many of the eastern schools and at Chicago University, according to Dr. Margaret Bell, who is general chairman of the health conference.

So bad had the dining fads become that at many of the society dormitories and league houses different food was served at different tables to satisfy the whims of the lean and the fat. It was from this source, in part, that the condition came to the attention of the university authorities. In addition, numerous complaints to the university health service by the self-appointed dietitians of nervous troubles and faintness led to the further discovery of the practice.

The most popular of the co-eds' feed is the pineapple and lamb chop delicacy, and abstinence from breakfast is in general favor. Potatoes and butter are taboo, but ice cream sundaes appear to have survived the rigorous menu slashing, according to Dr. Bell.

These practices Dr. Bell stamped as "crazy dieting" that is responsible for many nervous troubles and reduced longevity. The health conference and demonstration will seek to correct this situation. Sessions were held at Barbour gymnasium both afternoons and evenings. Besides displays shown, medical and home economic experts give advice to the thin and the corpulent.

FACULTY BARS SPRINTER

BY BRAVEN DYER

Keith Lloyd, the white-washed wonder, did not enjoy yesterday's showers. The precipitation, slight as it was, served to remove much of the coat of white-wash which has been covering the U.S.C. athlete.

The Trojan faculty committee met yesterday afternoon to O.K. the track athletes whose names Coach Dean Cromwell had submitted. The august body did its stuff with neatness and dispatch, but instead of recommending that Lloyd be sent east to the national intercollegiate with the rest of the runners the officials put Keith on the receiving end of a handful of mud. In other words, his name did not appear among those going to the I.C.4A. affair in Philadelphia.

KEITH LLOYD

TEAM SELECTED

Bud Houser, Leighton Dye, Otto Anderson, Howard Torkelson, Percy Niersbach, Ken Grumbles, Howard White, Norm Anderson, Alden Rose, Les Heilman, Mike Elwood and Bill Cook were O.K.'d. Lloyd was not. Your guess as to why he did not pass with flying colors is as good as ours. Two weeks ago the Pacific Coast Conference stated that Lloyd was perfectly all right for intercollegiate competition, thus going over the heads of the U.S.C. faculty, who had previously declared the runner ineligible because of asserted professionalism.

It is presumed that the faculty athletic committee did not O.K. Lloyd because that body wishes firs to hear from I.C.4A. officials. No word has been received from the eastern authorities other than additional requests for information on Lloyd's case. It wouldn't look too good for the locals to say they were ready to send the runner East and then have the I.C.4A.

GOLF QUEENS CLASH TODAY

Glenna Collett Faces Joyce Wethered for Unofficial World Title on Troon Course This Morning

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, by the Chicago Tribune.]

TROON (Scotland) May 19.—Miss Glenna Collett of America and Miss Joyce Wethered of England will clash here tomorrow morning in a golf duel for the unofficial title of world's woman champion.

The meeting of the two great girl champions was assured today when both, playing below their most brilliant form, beat the second round of opponents in the British women's championship tournament. Miss Collett defeated Miss Margaret Cox, Welsh champion, 5-3, while Miss Wethered disposed of Mrs. Allen MacBeth, veteran English player, and one-time champion, 6-5.

GLENNA COLLETT

Miss Wethered enters tomorrow's all-star match almost the unanimous favorite of the British experts and fans, although they concede that the American girl's fighting courage against odds will produce a memorable battle all the way. Perfect golfing weather, sunny and windless, favored the players today, and if it continues tomorrow it will aid the American, because the British champion appears to be a sure winner in driving rain and roaring gales characteristic of the Troon course.

Miss Collet played in her usual Troon form today, being unimpressive in the first nine, but brilliantly comin- home. She was one up at the turn, winning the third when her opponent faltered after Miss Collett's drive found a water-trap. The rest of the first nine was halved. Miss Collett missing opportunities at the seventh and ninth through short approaches.

After halving the tenth, Miss Collett started the galleries applauding with a birdie three at the eleventh, laying the second shot less than two feet from the pin.

At the twelfth Miss Collett got a nice winning par four with a fine iron shot on the green after her opponent topped the second. The thirteenth was halved, and then Miss Collett won a par three at the fourteenth, missing a two when her twelve-yard putt rimmed the cup. The match ended on the fifteenth green when Miss Collett sank a ten-foot putt for a birdie four.

Miss Collett's driving was clean and true, but failed to outdistance Miss Cox. Miss Collett played her second shots boldly, using a brassie in her attempt to carry the bunkers, while Miss Cox played safely with irons.

Miss Collett's card out was as follows: 5-5-5-5-3-6-5-3-5—42; her card coming back was 5-3-4-4-3-4.

Miss Cox did not win a single hole, either halving or being a stroke behind.

Miss Wethered beat Miss Collett's score by three strokes, her card being 5-5-5-4-3-5-5-3-4—39; back 5-3-4-4.

Promoter Granted Permit to Conduct Milk Fund Bouts in New York

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Tex Rickard, promoter, today obtained permission from the State Athletic Commission to conduct the Milk Fund bouts at the Yankee Stadium, May 29. Last week, the body forbade the further sale of tickets as no license has been obtained. Rickard's agents apologized to the commission.

KAHN LOSES VERNON GO TO LAMAR

Milwaukee Fighter Wakes up too Late to Nab Honors in Doyle's Main Eent

Harry Kahn, another eastern importation, is a good fighter but a slow starter. Johnny LaMar, a local product, defeated the Milwaukee fighter in the ten-round main event at Vernon last night, copping the decision by virtue of a top-heavy lead that he piled up in the first few rounds, while Kahn was getting out of his marks.

Johnny won, but he was a sorry-looking spectacle when the referee raised his glove. He walked all over Kahn in the first five rounds and piled up a long lead. But when the boy from Beerville got moving, he was bad company. In the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds he chased LaMar around the ring, landing a murderous straight left that would have won him the fight had he started it working earlier.

In the first three rounds, Kahn didn't land a punch. He hit LaMar for the first time in the fourth and then started them coming fast and hard in the sixth, after two even rounds. Kahn put up a good exhibition, but he started too late. He had LaMar bleeding from a cut mouth and looked less dishevled, but he started too late.

Employing a bruising body attack, Jimmy Darrah punished Lou Rollinger around for six rounds and earned a very creditable decision for himself in the semi-wind-up. Darrah was rated a loser in last night's struggle, but he speed-

Classy Featherweights Sure to Put on Wild Bout

Opening All-Star Program on for July 15

BY PAUL LOWRY

Jack Root, manager and matchmaker of the new Olympic auditorium which is rising rapidly at the intersection of Eighteenth and Grand avenue, yesterday signed Jackie Fields to appear on his all-star opening fight card the night of July 15.

Fields's opponent will be Jimmy McLarnin, the northwestern flash, if Root can secure the consent of "Pop" Foster, who manages the little Irishman, to the match.

JACKIE FIELDS

In the past Foster has balked at any suggestion that coupled his boy in a match with anyone he did not outweigh, and proponents of a Fields-McLarnin set-to have had a deaf ear turned to their entreaties.

McLarnin weighs 124 pounds, and Fields scaled down to 126 pounds when he met Joe Salas at Hollywood recently, so there would really be little difference in their poundage.

However, if Foster is still unwilling to send McLarnin against Fields, Root announced that he would try and card these two little thunderbolts with logical opponents. That would give him a double main event of featherweights, to be reinforced by a supporting cast of lightweights, he announced.

McLARNIN CERTAIN TO MEET VILLA

BEES STING SEATTLE SUDS IN FIRST GAME

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SALT LAKE CITY, May 19.—Salt Lake won the opening game of the series from Seattle today, 15 to 8. The Bees bunched four doubles and a single in the fifth, made two home runs in the sixth and put a five more tallies in the seventh. After the Indians had chased Hulvey under fire, Mulcahy came in and held Seattle, Lazerre knocked three doubles. Score:

HAP TO BRAVE 1926 BOTTLES

The man with the chin, Leo J. (Hap) O'Connor, has been signed to umpire in the Coast League for the 1926 season, according to announcement made by Harry Williams, president of the League, yesterday. Hap has been seen recently in action at Washington Park, where he has performed his first duties as an ump, in the capacity of relief arbiter. He is to continue in this capacity for the balance of the present season.

CELLO FIGHTS HOPPE

San Francisco Lightweight Meets Glendale Star in Hollywood Main Event Friday

John O. Wiley, chairman of the Hollywood American Legion stadium committee, Manager Si Masters, and Tom Gallery, matchmaker of the stadium announced last night that as officials of the stadium they would not recognize the New York Boxing Commission's tournament champions.

They further stated that the Hollywood club, which conducts the boxing at the stadium, recognizes Ace Hudkins as the Pacific Coast champion and that his claim to the lightweight championship of the world is as good as anyone picked by the New York body.

Hollywood will also recognize the winner of the Fidel La Barba-Teddy Silva fight staged at the Hollywood Stadium Friday night, the 29th inst., as the bantamweight champion of the Pacific Coast.

Dick Hoppe and Tommy Cello are boxing the main event Friday night, the winner of this bout stepping up in the select circle of lightweights. The bout is creating interest, as Cello is undoubtedly the best lightweight from the San Francisco region. He has beaten all the good boys in that section of the State.

Tom Gallery has supported his main event with some very snappy bouts. K. O. Kelly, always a card at Hollywood, is fighting the semi-wind-up with Jimmy Marcus. Kelly recently beat Frankie Tierney at Hollywood. He has challenged about all the best junior welters around here, but that is as far as he gets. Kelly is a southpaw and the boys don't like his stiff punching and peculiar style of going.

Cello is training every day at the newsboys' gym and Hoppe at the Lyceum. Both are making the 135-pound lightweight limit. Hoppe and Cello are legitimate lightweights.

OBSERVATIONS

BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER
BILL HENRY

IT MUST be a lot of satisfaction to a young fellow like Buckman of Occidental to finally burst into the calcium on your last race after a disappointing season. Little "Buck," who captained Occidental's fine track team this year and had one difficulty after another until it looked as though he never would do himself justice, finally came through with a fifty-second lap in the relay at the A.A.U. meet when the Tigers set a new Coast record of 3:20.6 for the mile.

Buckman was the big hero of last season, running the 100 in 9.8s., the 220 in 22s. flat and the relay in under 51s. He was elected captain of this year's team and promptly hurt a muscle. It bothered him so badly that he was unplaced in nearly every meet of the year, but he wound up the season in a real burst of glory with the fastest lap he has ever run for the Tigers—proving that perseverance pays.

Postponement of the north vs. south women's matches at Midwick will prove considerable of a disappointment to tennis followers, but at the same time it will unquestionably lead to something even better in the fall, when it is planned to stage the whole business with top-notch teams representing both the north and the south, which would not have been the case were the matches held this week-end.

Not only will there be a complete north vs. south match after the eastern season is over, but there will also be —it is understood—an East vs. West for men and possibly a California vs. Australia match in both men's and women's tennis as Australian teams of both sexes are planning to return to the Antipodes after the eastern season by way of Los Angeles.

Harold Godshall, who has been threatening to be a great tennis player for something like ten years without ever actually arriving, seems to be making another burst of speed on the cement. Harold has lately accumulated a charming young wife and has begun to take life seriously. It also seems to have spread to his tennis and if he ever takes tennis seriously he's going to cause trouble for everybody.

Godshall was one of the greatest junior players the country ever saw, but proceeded to get careless and as a result has been giving us mediocre tennis with an occasional burst of blinding class calculated to thrill anybody—as when he gave the great Tilden a scare a year ago and when he beat Ray Casey at Midwick. He has beat Tom Ferrandini, his old doubles partner, twice in succession now and seems to be coming right along.

Old Fox Stanton over at Caltech is going to give everybody a chase next year with this boy Schulz. Schulz was a star a year ago, but was an awful in-and-outer. He was credited with 10s. flat, 22s. flat and 50s. flat and yet in several meets he failed to place at all. He has been ineligible this year, however, and has been working out regularly, with the very astonishing results shown Saturday when he won both sprints. The expert Mr. C. Paddock tipped us off to Schulz just before he left on his trip around the world, telling us that the Caltech boy could lick anybody in the conference without drawing a long breath.

HUNT STECHER OPPONENT

Victor Breyer, French Sportsman, Searching Europe For Representatives in Tourney

While Lou Daro is scouring the United States for an opponent for Joe Stecher, former heavyweight mat king, for his opening show of the season here, June 10, Victor Breyer, famous French sportsman and writer, is scouring Europe for talent which he will bring to Los Angeles this summer to participate in the big international wrestling tournament that will be staged in the new Olympic Auditorium, now under construction.

A cablegram from Breyer yesterday informed officials of the new Olympic Club that he had received the news of the tournament and would bring at least fifteen heavyweights that would be the class of the European continent. Breyer, editor and publisher of Echo de Sports, is one of the most noted sportsmen of Europe and promotes boxing and wrestling in Circe d'Paris, six-day bicycle races in the big Velodrome and has various other sporting interests. He has been in the United States on various occasions, the last trip being made as a member of the party which accompanied Georges Carpentier when the latter attempted to lift the crown now worn by Jack Dempsey.

In the meantime Matchmaker Daro is searching industriously for a matman who is capable of making Stecher extend himself. Few heavyweights care for much of the Stecher game and Daro is finding the going mighty tough. However, he is in communication with eastern managers and hopes to be able to announce the man who will contest the power of the Stecher legs by Thursday at the latest.

Daro is also busy arranging the card which will support the main event and has hopes of landing Renato Gardini, Italian champion, in one of the matches. A number of grapplers have wired asking for a place on the first card, but few of them have meamred up to the standard set by Olympic Auditorium officials for their athletic shows. The first show will be held in the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry Armory in Exposition Park.

ATHLETICS, POLITICS MIXED BY SAGEHENS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA COLLEGE, (Claremont) May 19.—With the political pot boiling on the Pomona College campus, Sagehen students are finding it hard to choose between a host of candidates, many of whom are leading athletes in various Sagehen sports this past year. For the office of president of the student body, three athletes, Leslie Goodson, substitute backfield grid man; Paul Jones, track and baseball star, and Bill Snyder, track captain for next year, were all nominated for the job. "Lank" Osborne, whose athletic ability has until this year been shown on the basketball floor, is the fourth candidate.

Sisler Hits, Browns Triumph Over Boston Red Sox

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CLEVELAND (O.) May 19.—Washington rallied in the ninth inning and defeated Cleveland, 4 to 3. Walter Johnson, pinch-hitting for Pitcher Ogden, put the ball over right-field fence. Adams, a pinch-runner for Ruel, scoring ahead of him.

Until this inning, Shaute had pitched excellent ball and had two strikes on Johnson when he made his hit, the first home run ever made over the right-field fence here by a right-hand batter.

Uhle went in as a pinch-hitter for McNulty in the eighth inning, but was replaced by Hendrick before a ball was pitched. Score:

WHEN YOU SEE the jaunty, massive looks of this C-T-C Full Balloon, you sense that here is a balloon you would like to own!

Ride over it—wafted ahead in super-cushioned comfort—and you come to like it still more!

Then when you watch its mileage record mount through the months, you know it for what it is . . . . a genuine C-T-C Cord, one of the three or four really fine tires in America!

Look at this master balloon: Its unusual flexibility is due to the long-staple combed Egyptian cotton cord—and the "preprocessed" friction gum that insulates each cord in a rubber cushion. Firmly joined traction blocks that can not pull apart. An improved riding band that can not split the tread. A fit buddy to the full C-T-C line—the largest-selling exclusively Pacific-Coast-made tires!

Wheels for C-T-C Full Balloons

C-T-C dealers are prepared to furnish a set of 4 genuine Hayes wood wheels and 5 rims, for full balloon tires, at these moderate prices:

4.40-21	(29x4.40)	$13.15
5.25-20	(30x5.25)	19.33
5.25-21	(31x5.25)	19.00

Mrs. Johnstone Is Ojai Medalist

MRS. TED HAAS TOURNEY STAR

Wins Play-Off Honors from Mrs. G. M. Midgley

Miss Louise Hebberd Wins Low Net Trophy

Valley Invitational Draws Three Score Entrants

BY W. C. WISE

Mrs. W. T. Johnstone of La Cumbre finished last in a field of more than three score Southern California women to win medal honors with a well-played 93 in the Women's Invitation Golf Tourney at the Ojai Valley Country Club yesterday. Starting after most of the entrants had completed their 18-hole medal round, Mrs. Johnstone was out in 47 and shot the last nine in 46, finishing just one stroke under Mrs. Ted Haas of Wilshire and Mrs. G. M. Midgley of Los Angeles.

MRS. TED HAAS

Drawing by far the largest gallery, Mrs. Haas played from all over the course and her 94 to tie Mrs. Midgley was much better than the score would indicate. At the request of Oscar Brown and other tournament officials, Mrs. Haas and Mrs. Midgley played an extra nine holes for second low gross honors and the Wilshire Ace recalled enough golf to shoot a sizzling round that placed Mrs. Midgley several strokes down.

Mrs. Midgley played near perfect golf to collect a 94 in the morning but played in bad luck through the extra nine.

GOLFING STARS

With many of the fair entrants in the enjoyable tourney breaking 100, each card proved to be a numerical compliment to the Ojai greens—and the beautifully treacherous fairways and hazards.

A high wind that swept the picturesque rolling course added to the golf test considerably.

Close behind Mrs. Haas and shooting remarkable golf, Mrs. T. H. Pike, finishing with a 95, led the attractive Wilshire delegation, which included Mrs. G. W. Duncan, Miss Thelma L. Jacobson and others.

MRS. PIKE GOLFS

Mrs. Pike, with four 7's on her card, still managed to get home in 95, a remarkable performance for Ojai. Several short putts that should never have been missed lost medal honors for the Wilshire golfer.

COMING LUMINARY

Mary Louise Hebberd, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Alyce Hebberd, electrified the tourney elect by shooting 103, which, with her handicap of 22 won low net trophy, her card totaling 86, three strokes under her nearest competitor.

Mrs. J. R. Baer of Brentwood took 61 going out and then recovered to play perfect golf for the last nine, coming home in 48. Mrs. James F. Horan, after playing a fair 53 on the first nine, shot beautiful golf for a 46 coming in—just 2 strokes more than the best medal for the last nine. Mrs. Pike winning last nine honors with a 44 — as good and usually several strokes better than the majority of the golfers playing the beautiful Ojai Valley course have been able to collect.

SCORING WELL

With more than sixty entrants, including some of the best women players in Southern California, scores in the aggregate were more than creditable.

Leading net scores were as follows: Mrs. Alyce Heeberd, 97; Mrs. J. J. Quinn, 97; Mrs. G. H. Cutts, 96; Mrs. James F. Horan, 91; Mrs. J. R. Baer, 94; Miss Mary Louise Hebberd, 86; Mrs. T. H. Pike, 89; Mrs. G. M. Midgley, 91; Miss Thelma Jacobson, 93; Mrs. Ted Haas, 89; Mrs. E. S. Stanton, 93; Mrs. Ann Riddel, 92, and Miss Kaine, 93.

FAIL TO O.K. KEITH LLOYD

come back with a refusal to let him run.

Our belief is that the Trojan committee wishes to get the I.C.4A.'s approval of Lloyd and then personally O.K. him. The eastern body is taking its time and Cromwell himself said a few days ago that he did not expect to get any word from them until he reached Philadelphia. But he had planned to take Lloyd along, believing that everything would be all right when he got there.

Keith must be learning to be a man of many moods. One day he is as pure—athletically—as fresh-fallen snow. The next he is branded all sorts of an outlaw. Two days ago he thought his troubles were over, but apparently they have only started.

Otto Anderson and Mike Elwood were added to Cromwell's original list. That's a good move. Otto has served U.S.C. faithfully during his four years, both on the football and track teams. He's captain this year and is likely to pick up points in the big meet, as are some of the other men being taken. Elwood is a good miler. We don't think he will place back East, but then again he may, and whatever points he brings in—if any—will certainly be welcome.

The squad leaves here next Friday. There will be a three-hour stop in Kansas City Sunday and a five-hour stop in St. Louis Monday, when the athletes will work out. Philadelphia will be reached Tuesday afternoon. Cromwell wishes he could get his men there sooner, but with academic work heavy at this time of the year there was no chance for an earlier departure.

Nierabach, White, Norm Anderson, Elwood, Dye and Grumbles plan to return via the Canadian Pacific, while Torkelson and Cook will stop at Atlanta, Ga., on their home trip.

There is a possibility that the U.S.C. faculty committee will meet tomorrow for the purpose of further considering Lloyd's case.

TY COBB READY TO END CAREER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

DETROIT, May 19.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, often regarded as the greatest ball player that ever lived, is ready to end his playing days as soon as a younger man can beat him out of his job as centerfielder for the Detroit Tigers. And, yet, although Cobb is 38 years of age, the prospect seems almost as remote as it did a decade ago.

Cobb told the Associated Press today that he intended to play in not more than 100 games this season. Age, he knew, plays no favorites and the Georgian has foreseen that the time is nearing when he will have to leave the place he has held in the Detroit outfield for more than a score of years.

So, he explained today, he has been preparing for that day by grooming younger players to take his place.

RABBIT PUNCHES

HAVING witnessed our first ice shinny match Monday night during the current series between the Vancouver Monarchs and the Los Angeles Monarchs, we are prepared to be distinctly bored the next time we go to a prize fight.

And when we met Mickey Walker, the world's welterweight champion, coming out of the Palais De Glace with Tom Kennedy and Joe Degnan we were inclined to believe that we had supporters in our opinion.

There seems to be nothing the shinny stars stop at. One man was out for five minutes when he crashed on his cheekbone as the result of a neat bit of tripping. Another was taken to the dressing-rooms with a fractured hip.

All during the three-period melee thespient fights were quelled by the referee, a hard-working individual who evaded pile-ups on the ice by dint of superexcellent use of his tootsies.

Ever and anon some hot-headed party raised his stick as if about to club to pieces a perspiring rival, there were pokes in the back when the referee wasn't looking and there were body checks that resulted in dirty spills.

There was action every minute, so much of it that the common spectators found themselves wishing they had two pairs of eyes to keep track of the skirmishes.

Without wishing to seem too partial we cannot refrain from commenting on the wonderful work of an individual on the Vancouver team answering to the grand old name of Smith. A mere kid, he seems, slight of stature, but possessed of winged feet and an unerring aim. He scored the Vancouver team's only points (three of 'em) in the first period, and then they took him out, reinserting him only a couple of minutes at a time.

Little Solly Harris spent most of yesterday bewailing the ill luck that pursued him over the week-end. He went north to see the Walker-Cooper massacre and missed a telegram sent to this city advising him to make his "summer expenses on Flying Ebony."

Flying Ebony was about a 15-to-1 shot, and with Solly figuring to trust a $50 note on the Sande mount it is easy to see that Solly could have counted on a pleasant summer.

He is leaving soon for the East where, he says, Eddie Huffman is booked with either Ad Stone or Bartley Madden for a Washington fight.

There has already been enough said about the New York lightweight elimination tourney to indicate that it is considered a terrible flop in all quarters.

On top of that comes the Mandell foul and the elimination of the only classy fighter in the bunch.

From now on it will be eyes West, where Dick Donald is staging the lightweight scramble of the century.

In the old days California was the home of all the classy lightweight talent in the country. Those days are coming back.

Willie Bernstein came back from Seattle with Jack Britton and a new welterweight named Freddie Mack, who is said to be very good. His record lists twenty-four knockouts out of forty-six battles. Wad Wadhams may use him at Vernon in the near future.

HUSKY CREW TO WORK HARD FOR BIG RACE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SEATTLE (Wash.) May 19.—Between now and June 6, when the champion Washington crew is to leave for Poughkeepsie, Coach Callow has decided to give his men plenty of long-distance pulls and hard work to put them in shape, he indicated today. All outside competion is over, and the Poughkeepsie race is the big objective for which Callow is training the varsity and junior varsity crews.

"Pop" Foster, manager of McLarnin, and Villa's representative, were in conference with Simpson yesterday, but McLarnin's boss haggled over the weight situation and therefore held up the match. The trio will resume the conference again this morning at the Rosslyn Hotel at which time it is certain that the signatures will be appended and the bout formally arranged.

SNYDER ELECTED POMONA CAPTAIN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA COLLEGE (Claremont) May 19.—William "Bill" Snyder, leading two-miler in Southern California, and the star of the Sagehen track team for the last two years in the distance races, has been chosen to captain next year's varsity track season. Snyder was elected to the responsible position at a recent track-team meeting and announcement of the choice was made public today. Snyder, a junior, has been one of the most popular athletes on the team for the last three years and, although diminutive in size, he has never failed to garner well-earned points for the Blue and White in the two-mile.

LATEST DEMPSEY BULLETIN

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, May 19.—Jack Dempsey's new filmdom nose made its first appearance in a Parisian ring tonight when the heavyweight champion, hand in hand with Georges Carpentier, bowed to the public at Gaumont Palace.

Previously some portions of the populace were able to get a glimpse of Dempsey on his arrival in Paris with his bride, but only after they had a battle with the police, who were endeavoring to protect the champion from the onrush of admirers at the railway station.

Jack had an easy evening in the ring, because the bout between Debeve and Kelley, which he refereed and which was scheduled for ten rounds, terminated at the end of the fifth when Debeve took a count of nine and refused to continue.

After his official duties had ended, he went to the hotel and took his wife to a dinner given in their honor at a fashionable restaurant by Carpentier.

HEAVIES HEAD MERCURY CARD

Signorelli Fights Crookston in Semi-Wind-up

Flyweights Tangle in Third Feature Bout

Besides the triple main event, a number of interesting feature bouts are billed by George Blake for the Los Angeles Athletic Club boxing show tomorrow night. One of these is the heavyweight battle between Curtice Meeks and Harry Beum, two husky men who are likely to shake the Mercury building. Meeks is a Texas college man and a newcomer here, who fought his way through some tough opponents in the Lone Star State and will give the L.A.A.C. man something to do. Beum is a busy worker with a punch like an army mule's kick, and not long ago knocked out Merton Rasmussen, Southern California heavyweight champion.

Another match the fans look forward to is that of John Signorelli and Frank Crookston, clever boys. Signorelli is a willing slugger and champion of Willard George, a local business man. Mr. George takes so much interest in this employee that he may always be seen in his corner as chief second. Crookston is less of a slugger, but makes up in other qualities what Signorelli may have on him in this respect, and the two are splendidly matched.

When it comes to fast action Mort Senzel and Sidney Barrett, fifth on the list, are pretty hard to beat. Barrett has done some fine work, and Senzel is the boy who got the decision over Chet Gleason in last month's show. These 118-poundera will keep things moving.

Sammy Rothstein, claimant of the New York State 105-pound championship, is pretty apt to have his hands full when he meets Joe Brennan, one of Blake's classy flyweights, who is coming right along and making a better showing every time he steps in the ring. Rothstein has a a remarkable record and aims to sustain it.

In the opening bout Martin Malone, who walloped his opponent in his last bout, will meet Sanford Risden, the hardest man he ever has tackled. The card:

Sanford Risden vs. Martin Malone, 147 pounds.
John Signorelli vs. Frank Crookston, 126 pounds.
Sammy Rothstein vs. Joe Brennan, 110 pounds.
Curtice Meeks vs. Harry Beum, heavyweights.
Mort Senzel vs. Sidney Barrett, 118 pounds.
Frank Brown vs. Ted Lewis, 138 pounds.
Johnny De Rita vs. Dan Woods, 126 pounds.
Mike Waters vs. Joe Adams, 122 pounds.
Eddie Gleason vs. Clark Williams, 170 pounds.

HEAVYWEIGHTS HEAD BEACH CLUB BILL

Heavyweights will feature the Huntington Beach Athletic Club weekly fistic program this Friday. Nick Newman, who in his last start at the beach arena, defeated Vic Alexander, will hook up with Jack Fitzsimmons, a first cousin of the popular Georgia peach, Young Stribling. The boys are scheduled to go ten rounds.

The semi-wind-up will bring together Frank Freeman of Huntington Beach and Joe Summers, a protege of Jack Dempsey. These lads are also heavyweights and are booked for six rounds or less. This bout should furnish plenty of action as both are of the slugging variety.

Two local favorites will mingle in the special event of six rounds, Tobby Montoya and Sailor Ray Conley. Conley will be remembered for his fights against Johnny Adams and Packey McMullin.

Other bouts:

K.O. Montoya vs. Ed Doolis, four Lovy Gatton vs. Cy Cooper, four rounds.

ECONOMY RUN FRIDAY

Thirteen Motor Cars Entered in Annual Trip to Camp Curry in Yosemite

Thirteen motor cars, representing every price classification from the lowest to the highest, are in the final line-up for the official A.A.A. stock car economy run leaving Friday morning on the annual 360-mile jaunt to Camp Curry in the Yosemite, it is announced by J. A. C. Waters, run manager.

Nine of the competing cars are veterans of economy-run campaigns. Of these the Oakland, with two previous sweepstakes and last year's closed-car championship to its credit, is claimed by its adherents to have an edge on the dope. But, on the other hand, the Gardner, twice a class winner; the Duesenberg, with a 1923 class cup to its credit, and the McFarlan, with a similar trophy from 1924, also have their practiced fingers in reach of the proverbial bacon. While the excellent past showings of the Gray and Star weigh heavily in still other prognostications. The Star is entered in two models—a touring and a coach.

Completely complicating the dope, however, is the imposing line-up of dark-horses. What the Pierce-Arrow, the Roamer, the foreign Minerva, the Rollin and the Stearns-Knight may do to the well-founded predictions for the other contestants is looked upon as the final unsolvable kink in the knot of conjecture. Admittedly it is any car's race until the finish.

Regarded as one of the outstanding features of this year's contest, second only in importance to the official A.A.A. sanction as a strictly stock-car event, is the number of inclosed models among the entries. Five cars, the Star coach, Oakland sedan, Gardner brougham, McFarlan sedan and Stearns-Knight sedan, will compete for the trophy to be awarded the closed car making the best economy showing regardless of class. Giving this feature added interest is the wide range of car prices involved—nearly every price class in the run being represented.

Competing cars will weight in Thursday afternoon and receive their final official inspection before the run, according to Manager Waters. Instructions to drivers and observers were given by Val Haresnape, referee, and George F. Stephenson, A.A.A. technical representative, at a meeting held Tuesday night at the salesrooms of Reeve Gartzmann, Inc., Oakland distributors.

The complete line-up is as follows:

Class 4-A, for eight-cylinder cars—Gardner brougham and Duesenberg.
Class 5-A, for six-cylinder cars, $2351 and over, f.o.b. factory—Pierce-Arrow, Minerva, McFarlan sedan and Stearns-Knight sedan.

Gallery Meets Hinckley for Squash Title

The long looked for squash game between Tom Gallery and Dick Hinckley in the semifinals for the squash championship of the Hollywood Athletic Club and the Pacific Coast will be played Sunday morning at the movie city club. The winner of the match will play Frank Borzage who has eliminated all his opponents in his bracket, and has gray hairs waiting for Gallery and Hinckley to play.

Tom Gallery is favorite to cop the honors providing his leg is in the best of shape. Gallery sprained his toe and then broke his ankle recently and this is the cause for the long delay in the squash game between him and Hinckley. Owing to the high prices of strawberry shortcake at the club, Geo. L. Eastman announced that all members would be admitted to the game free. Bring your lunch.

ACORN JINX IS STILL WORKING

the day an Oakland holiday, turning in a couple of flossy stops that hurt the Angels' chances, both coming with men on the paths.

Wally Hood was the fair-haired boy for the Seraphs, rapping out two singles and a home run, and driving in all of the home town's tallies. Hood's homer was a drive that cleared the left field wall by a mile, the ball sailing out of the park and heading in the general direction of Whittier, Wally's home town. Little Buzz Arlett also socked one over the fence, but his drive was not so robust as Wally's for the simple reason that Fuzz hit the ball with the handle of his bat. Had Arlett connected squarely, there's no telling how far he would have rapped the pill. Buzz was batting right-handed when he made the circuit swat, having changed over to get at Milstead's left-hand shoots.

MAKIN STARS

The Oaks were hitting the ball hard yesterday, getting at least one hit in every inning and drawing down a total of fourteen safeties.

Oakland took a two-run lead in the fourth when Babe Twombly suffered a relapse or something similar. Twombly made two errors on successive chances, which is more than he has made all season. The two boots, with the aid of a couple of Acorn hits, produced the pair of runs. D'Arcy Flowers, whose mates call him by the unromantic name of Jake, started things by beating out an infield tap. Bratcher sacrificed, his first of three, and then Cooper poked at hit over second, scoring Flowers. Cooper rambled clear to third when Twombly let the ball trickle through his shapely limbs. Makin hit a liner to Twombly that Babe dropped like it was a hot potato, a death sentence or grand piano. Cooper scoring and Makin pulling up safely at first. Read flied to Whaley, who threw to Grimes in time to double Makin off first, ending the inning.

The Angels got one in the seventh on Grimes's triple and Hood's slash off Delaney's underpinning. Delaney was lifted in this frame when, after two were out, he walked Beck and Krug to fill the sacks. Pittenger, batting for Ramsey, hit a hard one down the third base line, but Makin came up with it and touched third, forcing Beck to end the inning.

ANGELS GET ONE

A walk to Flowers, Bratcher's sacrifice, two errors by Krug and hits by Makin, Read and Kunz gave the visitors three more in the eighth and clinched the verdict.

Home runs completed the scoring, Hood's coming with Twombly on, and Arlett's with none on. The Angels threatened in the ninth, but Kunz was too strong. Score:

ily dispelled all such ideas when he began poking Rollinger around with lefts to the body and kidneys, interspersed with rights to the head.

Another six-round mill went to a draw when Charlie Feraci and Sailor Ashmore got together. They were evenly-matched and the fight was very pleasing, each trying hard. Billy Bunch and Checkie went four fast rounds to a draw. Red Fitzimmons knocked out Joe Pena in the fourth round of the curtain raiser.

DAVISCOURT TO MEET RENTROP IN PRELIM

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) May 19.—Dick Daviscourt of California and Charlie Rentrop, locally well-known German wrestler, have signed for a preliminary here Decoration Day when Stanislaus Zbyszko, world's heavyweight wrestling claimant, will meet Joe Stecher, Nebraskan, in a $50,000 bout. Another preliminary on the card is a match between Dan Koloff, Bulgarian, and Frank Judson, former Harvard mat instructor, Promoter Tom Packs announced.

UNRUH AFTER WORLD PREP MILE RECORD

Chesley Unruh, phenomenal El Monte high-school track athlete, will attempt to break the world's high-school record for the mile in an exhibition meet to be held at the Los Angeles Coliseum in the near future, according to Coach Ferguson, track mentor at El Monte. Ferguson stated that attempts were being made by the C. I. F. to hold an exhibition meet for Unruh, in which he will try for the record.

THIRD GAME OF HOCKEY SERIES TOMORROW NIGHT

The third game for the Pacific Coast ice hockey championship will be played tomorrow night at the Palais De Glace, when the powerful Vancouver ice hockey outfit and the Los Angeles Monarchs meet. Vancouver has won two straight games, but each was won by one goal and only after the most sensational games ever seen in these parts. For some reason or other there is bitter feeling between the two teams and only the timely arrival of police reserves prevented a riot at the last game played Monday night.

Los Angeles is favored to win the game tomorrow night, as Choppy Anderson, star defense player of the Canadian champs, is out of the game for the rest of the series. He dislocated his hip in the game last Monday. This will weaken the northerners fifty per cent as Choppy was fast, a good shot and a demon on the defense.

Tommy Murray stated last night that his outfit would take the next three games, and only the breaks lost the first two games for his squad. Bill Shaver, Chum Irvin, Moose Galbraith and Russ Clark are in good shape for the game and, barring the breaks, they should win.

MERRITT NAMED COACH BY SAGEHEN FACULTY

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA COLLEGE (Claremont) May 19.—That Earl "Fuzz" Merritt, one of the most popular athletes in Pomona College history, will undoubtedly remain with Pomona College as a member of the coaching staff next year, was announced on the local campus today. Announcement came from the administration that Merritt has been appointed as assistant freshman adviser and as an instructor in physical education for men.

Merritt has been one of the outstanding athletes in the history of Pomona, being a four-letter man in football, basketball, track and baseball. Last year Merritt made all four letters and this year he is repeating his remarkable performance together with completing his four years of college work in three years.

BOB ROPER MEETS WARNER AT LYCEUM

Local boxing fans believe that Bob Roper will have his mitts full to get a decision over Ed Warner, whom he clashes with at the Lyceum next Saturday night in one of the bouts of Dick Donald's pony double main event. The other half of the main event brings Jack Roper and Joe Pena together for six rounds. All the principals are light-heavyweights and are about the cream of the local crop.

Warner recently knocked out Battling Savage and Jimmy Byrne at Mexicali and also beat Vic Alexander, knocking him down five times. He is anxious to get a bout with either Tony Fuente or Eddie Huffman and with that end in view will try to make short work of Roper. Jack Roper won his last six bouts by knockouts and Joe Pena has often appeared at Jack Doyle's arena.

BRITTON IN COMEBACK

Wilmington Club Features Former Welterweight Champion in Weekly Bill Tonight

Jack Britton, campaigning for another shot at Champion Mickey Walker, who grabbed the welterweight title back in 1922, will swing into action tonight in a ten-round bout against Roy Moore at the Wilmington Bowl.

Britton, twice holder of the welterweight title, has taken excellent care of himself in twenty years of boxing and still retains a generous measure of his ring ability. The veteran has been boxing almost every week in recent months and should be in shape to step ten fast rounds with Moore if the scrap goes the route. Moore has a number of good bouts to his credit in the Southland and is expected to keep Britton busy.

Dividing interest with the main bout will be the lightweight tussle between Buck Curtis of Long Beach and Roy Tucker of Oklahoma. This affair also is slated for ten rounds and should be a lively scrap.

Tucker, claimant of the Oklahoma lightweight title, recently invaded the Pacific Coast and has been busy hurling challenges at leading Southland boxers in his weight division. The Oklahoman will be in no soft spot in his first start on the Coast, however, for Curtis rates as one of the most promising young lightweights in this neck of the fistic woods.

Jack Barry and Jack Rogers will travel six rounds or less in the special event. Eddie Brown and Lee Morrisey, old ring enemies, will try to flatten each other in a grudge affair, which will open the show. The winner takes all, so a hectic four-round session is in prospect.

BARBARIAN TAKES ON McCARTHY AT FRESNO

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

FRESNO, May 19.—Sid Barbarian, Detroit lightweight, and Dominick McCarthy of San Francisco, will box the ten-round main event on the American Legion card of Tuesday, the 26th inst., Matchmaker Guy Poulson announced today. Barbarian has made but two appearances on the Coast this season, having beaten young Carmen at Portland and Eddie Mahoney of Fresno. Barbarian began training here today for his affair with McCarthy.

LINCOLN BALL TEAM THUMPS ALHAMBRA

In a wild game, featured by plenty of errors on both sides, the Lincoln High School baseball team defeated Alhambra, 16 to 10, at Alhambra yesterday. Both teams made fewer hits than runs and both made plenty of errors. Lampe, Kondon and Valentino starred at bat for the winners, Blonde, Alhambra pinch hitter, socked out a home run.

...O, May 19. — Partly ...clouds, high above the ... an Army airplane flew ... Scores of land ... infantry, cavalry and ... gathered in Grant Park ... heard the aviators while ... aerial air conditions, the ... tanks of the city, and his altitude.

The radio stunt, believed to be of epoch-making importance in flying, was a mere rehearsal for the show which will open Thursday afternoon in the stadium.

While the plane hummed like a bee half a mile in the air, from the loud speakers in the stadium the noise fairly crackled. But over the crackle the pilot's voice came clearly. The demonstration of communication from the air with large numbers of persons was declared perfect.

The stadium tonight had the appearance of a besieged garrison. Airplanes were practicing night flying overhead in the glare of three powerful searchlights. Pilots dropped dummy bombs, to explode harmlessly over the heads of the sleeping camp.

The participants in the war game are now all on the scene, with the exception of tanks, blimps, coast artillery and chemical warfare troops.

Col. John A. Pagelow of Scott Field will accompany the blimps TC-5 and TC-7 to Chicago.

Every unit of the Army will be represented in the six performances of the three-day show.

Congressman is Accused in Suit Over Stock Sale

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Charges of misrepresentation have been made against Congressman Louis T. McFadden of Canton, Pa., chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, and two New York Stock Exchange firms in a suit brought in Supreme Court as a result of sale of stock in the Federated Radio Corporation, of which McFadden is said to be president.

Supreme Court Justice Lydon yesterday directed McFadden and members of the firm of Carden, Green & Co. and E. W. Clucas & Co. to show cause why they should not be compelled to testify to enable William Rosenblatt to prepare a complaint.

YOSEMITE'S DISCOVERER IS HONORED

Medical Men of State at Parley Present Tablet in Memory of Dr. Bunnell

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

YOSEMITE, May 19.—The California Medical Association paused today in its fifty-fourth annual convention to do honor to the memory of Dr. Lafayette Houghton Bunnell, first white man to explore Yosemite Valley.

A bronze tablet was placed on a rock at the first campsite in the valley of Dr. Bunnell, opposite El Capitan Rock. The presentation was made by Dr. Granville MacGowan, president of the medical association, and was accepted by W. B. Lewis, park superintendent, on behalf of the government.

Francis P. Farquhar of San Francisco, authority on California history, told of early-day incidents in the settlement of Yosemite Valley. The program also included talks by Dr. Emmett Rixford of San Francisco, and Dr. James H. Parkinson of Sacramento.

Battle Fleet Barely Misses Fishing Craft

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ABOARD U.S.S. SEATTLE (At sea off Oahu with United States Fleet) May 19.—Quick action and excellent seamanship by Lieut. Ralph Humphreys, officer on watch aboard the Seattle, tonight averted the running down of four Japanese fishing sampans. The fleet was traveling at about fifteen miles an hour with the Seattle in the lead when the lookout sighted the sampans, only 200 yards ahead of the warship. Simulating war-time conditions, the entire fleet was in darkness.

After the ship's siren had been blown without effect, the Seattle's rudder was put hard over to the right, enabling the vessel to miss the sampans by twenty-five yards.

Another quick twist of the rudder put the Seattle in the clear and she passed between two of the other small boats. Warning was given to the other vessels of the fleet and they avoided collisions.

GOVERNOR SIGNS BATCH OF BILLS

Road District Act Change Among Number

National Guard Allowance Also Approved

Port and Gas Tax Measures Still Pending

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 19. —Eight Assembly and two Senate bills, including Senate bill No. 380, amending the Road District Act so as to expedite road work, were signed today by Gov. Richardson. Several of the outstanding measures passed by the Legislature, including the municipal port district bill affecting the Greater Los Angeles-Long Beach Harbor project, and the gas tax bill, still are awaiting the Governor's final decision.

The bills approved today include the following:

Assembly Bill No. 845, amending the section of the Political Code relating to allowances to National Guard companies. This bill was prepared by Adj.-Gen. R. F. Mittelstaedt, and has his approval.

Assembly bill No. 808, appropriating $250 to pay Attorney H. K. Landram for prosecuting a case in Merced county at the request of the Attorney-General.

Assembly bill No. 1223, appropriating $1250 for the expense of county treasurers in making their semifinal settlements.

Four of the bills signed affect the organization and conduct of county mutual fire insurance companies. They were:

Assembly bill No. 434, improving the present law in regard to county fire insurance companies.

Assembly bill No. 628, providing that mutual insurance companies under the assessment plan may not be formed without 1000 members and $25,000 in the treasury.

Assembly bill No. 641, providing a method for the organization of county fire insurance companies.

MUDDLE IN BREED BILL IS ASSAILED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—Severe criticism of the effect the amendments placed in the Breed bill to increase the tax on gasoline from 2 to 3 cents a gallon would have on future highway construction in California, is contained in a statement by Louis Everding, member of the State Highway Commission, issued late this afternoon through the office of Gov. Richardson.

During a conference with the Governor, Everding is credited with saying he felt that the amendments put into the bill in the Senate would tie the hands of the commission to the great injury of the highway program.

Everding is quoted in the statement as saying:

"The Senate amendments to the gas-tax bill will seriously cripple the commission and injure the road plans, especially in the smaller counties.

"If the roads are to be put on a pork-barrel basis the commission might as well quit business. The Highway Commission will have more than $12,000,000 to spend in the next two years in reconstruction and maintenance under the present 2-cent gas-tax law. In its muddled form I do not see how the Governor can sign the bill. The Highway Commission has never gone on record for the gas bill. One of our members is for the bill and one against it, but I have never committed myself to any particular method of road taxation."

MASONS HIT BY FACISTS' SOCIETY BAN

Government Measure Against Secret Bodies is Passed by Chamber

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ROME, May 19.—The government's bill aimed against secret societies was approved unanimously in the Chamber of Deputies this evening. The bill was put through as a purely party measure, the government having issued imperative orders that all loyal party members be present to lend their support. It was the first time that all the members of the opposition refrained from voting.

The bill provides that all secret societies and clubs file with the authorities copies of their constitutions, as well as complete membership lists. It has been declared by those who interpret the views of the government that the measure was aimed directly at Free Masonry, which, in Italy, is a political organization and is taking a stand against Facism.

Violation will be punishable by imprisonment or a fine, or both.

RIFF OFFENSIVE WORRIES PARIS

Unconcealed Anxiety Felt Over Reports

Pessimistic Dispatches Appear in Press

Casualties and Movement of Troops Withheld

BY HENRY WALES

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, by the Chicago Tribune]

PARIS, May 19.—The seriousness of the Moroccan situation was admitted today by a Quai d'Orsay spokesman, following the publication this morning in various newspapers, including the Socialist and Radical-Socialist organs, of pessimistic reports from Fez, and unconcealed anxiety over the present policy, which is leading to warfare on large, costly dimensions against Abd-El Krim.

The government's spokesman indicated that France is seeking to organize a combined three-power offensive against the Riffians with French and Spanish troops and the British navy co-ordinating.

INFORMATION WITHHELD

Despite the repeated demands of the Left press, the War Ministry maintains silence regarding the casualties in Morocco, and it is stifling all information concerning reinforcements sent to Gen. Lyautey.

One newspaper says that 4000 troops already have arrived in Morocco to reinforce the garrison of 40,000 now there and more are on the way.

Simultaneously with a report published that a certain general commanding in Morocco had been recalled, the news was announced today that Gen. Billiotte, who rushed by airplane to Morocco a fortnight ago in the same machine as Larry Rue, correspondent for the Chicago Tribune, was appointed commandant of the French troops in the region of Ouezghan.

The communiques for the past few days have been silent on Gen. De Chambrun, while eulogizing the work of Gen. Colombat and Col. Freydenburg, all of whom are in the front line, with Mauser bullets from the Riffians' rifles penetrating Gen. Colombat's kepi and Col. Freydenburg having his horse shot from under him.

PREDICT CABINET FALL

Political circles are keenly following the developments, predicting the fall of the government next week when Parliament opens, as the Left, on which the Painleve Cabinet relies for a majority vote opposes the Moroccan campaign—particularly the Socialists, with 105 votes, and it is learned that the government will not accept the Center and Right support for a vote of confidence, and will resign if the Left goes against it.

A significant note of the order of the day was adopted by the Radical party when re-electing former Premier Herriot, Mayor of Lyons, Sunday, which stated:

"We repudiate France's colonial policy, which is a permanent source of conflicts."

STATE HIT IN SHEPHERD CASE

Witness Who Corroborated Faiman Disappears

Defense Hopeful as Failure of Search Reported

Quiz of Fifty Talesmen Fails to Produce Juror

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 19.—William Darling Shepherd, still white and nervous gained a point today. But it was one of those advantages unseen in the official scoring. A witness had disappeared.

Robert White is the witness. His absence brought more or less consternation to the state and to Chief Justice Harry Olson of the Municipal Court, "friend of the dead," who was the relentless leader in the investigation which finally led to Shepherd's indictment. The State had counted upon White to give what corroboration it is possible to give to the story of "Dr." Charles C. Faiman, whose confession led to the indictment of Shepherd for the murder of his foster son, William Nelson McClintock.

Faiman stated that he had supplied Shepherd with typhoid cultures to get Billy McClintock out of the path that led to a heritage of $1,000,000. White was once an instructor in the National University of Sciences. Faiman's school, and told a story which the prosecution said would wipe out prejudice against the testimony of an admitted accomplice.

This morning White was gone. Detectives sent out by the State's Attorney's office to bring him in returned to report to George E. Gorman, first assistant State's Attorney, that he had not been seen since Friday.

The State did not minimize the effect of the possible loss of White's testimony, and the cheerfulness of the defense attorneys may or may not have had something to do with the State's discomfiture.

The drama of the case, however, was all back stage. In the courtroom the veniremen came in and went out with monotonous regularity, answering the same dreary routine of questions and using the same hesitant, doubtful replies.

Court adjourned at 4:30 o'clock until 2 p.m. tomorrow, as attorneys for both sides were still attempting to secure a jury.

As a result of two days proceedings during which approximately fifty talesmen have been examined, no jurors have so far been selected even tentatively, though four of those questioned have been asked to stand aside for further examination.

The West is sending to the eastern part of this country 1,000,000,000 feet of lumber a year. Ten years ago it was shipping practically nothing because then we still had southern pine to draw our supply from.

PHOENIX, May 19.—An odd coincidence was the arrest in Phoenix on the same day for the same offense of driving while intoxicated, of two unrelated men who bore the same name, that of Manuel Martinez. They even looked alike.

But the sentences they drew were different, for the degrees of their offending had been dissimilar. One received a fine of $15 with fifteen days in jail, while the other's portion was $100 fine and thirty days in jail.

...Better by Miles
Ten Gallons Will Tell!
You will find economy in the first ten gallons of Union Gasoline. But your real gain will be at the end of 10,000 miles. Then your motor will testify.
The difference between Union and most gasolines is one of quality. There's no mystery about it.
Union Gasoline is not made to sell at a price. Yet it is the most economical motor fuel on the market today. Its chief economy is in saving upkeep costs.
Union Gasoline is non-detonating. This means that its power-impulses are not sledge-hammer like. Its explosions progress—with a resulting power that is smooth.
With Union, your motor starts quickly—accelerates with a swift, vibrationless pick-up—and easily attains an even, gliding speed.
If a better gasoline were possible, it would be made by the Union Oil Company. And sold wherever you see the sign "Union Gasoline." At Union Oil service stations and independent dealers of the first class everywhere.

FRAUD DENIED IN BANK SALE CASE

Johnson Gives Testimony on Fresno Transaction

Institution Declared to Have Been Near Failure

Disposal is Defended as Only Practicable Course

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19. — Testifying in the case of stockholders of the Valley Bank of Fresno against John F. Johnson, State superintendent of banks, the Bank of Italy of San Francisco and the Pacific Southwest Bank of Los Angeles, and others, Superintendent Johnson today denied that fraud or conspiracy entered into the sale of the Valley Bank to the two defendant banks in 1923, as charged in the complaint.

Johnson declared the Valley Bank was on the verge of failure at the time of the sale and that the Bank of Italy and Pacific Southwest Bank reluctantly consented, at his solicitation, to come to the rescue.

"The failure of the Valley Bank would have spelled ruin to a number of smaller banks throughout Central California which were dependent upon the Fresno institution," Johnson testified. "At the time the deal was made, the Valley Bank could not have withstood a two-hour run, as there had been numerous withdrawals due to persistent rumors of the bank's unsound condition.

"The directors of the Valley Bank took the only course practicable and made the sale, which was ratified by the necessary two-thirds of the stockholders. At that the time the purchasers informed the directors that if the Valley Bank could refinance itself within ten days, or if another purchaser could be found, they would consent to rescinding of the sale.

"The present suit was brought by one of the minority stockholders of the Valley Bank who had been kept in ignorance of the true condition of the institution by its officers."

In the course of the taking of Johnson's deposition, Attorney Clarence M. Booth for the complainants, questioned the witness as to numerous visits Johnson is asserted to have made in 1923 and 1924 to the Wrightwood Ranch near San Bernardino. Johnson admitted having made several visits to the ranch, and also to Arrowhead Lake. Attorney Booth wanted to know whether Johnson's visits to the ranch and lake were official or private in character.

"They were official or semi-official," replied Johnson.

EXPENSES OF TRIP

The expenses of several of these trips, it developed from the questions and testimony, were charged by Johnson to his expense account as Superintendent of Banks. Attorney Booth sought to bring out that Johnson made the trips referred to in pursuance of private business. This was denied by the witness. Attorney Booth explained that this line of interrogation was merely preliminary, leading up to other asserted acts of Superintendent Johnson bearing directly on the case at issue.

Johnson resumed his testimony this afternoon. His deposition probably will not be completed until tomorrow, Attorney Booth said.

Depositions then will be taken from James A. Bacigalupi, president of the Bank of Italy, and A. P. Giannini, chairman of the board of directors of that institution.

DISABLED VETERANS WILL BE WELCOMED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

OMAHA (Neb.) May 19.—Omaha is making elaborate plans for the coming of thousands of wounded and disabled veterans to the fifth annual national convention of the Disabled Veterans of the World War to be held here June 22 to 27, next. Civic associations, fraternal societies, patriotic groups and other organizations are taking an active part in the preparations.

The convention will formally open Monday morning, June 22, at a public session in the municipal auditorium, presided over by National Commander Frank J. Irwin, D.S.C., of New York. Addresses are planned by the national commanders of the Grand Army of the Republic, United Confederate Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion.

One of the features of the program will be the appearance of Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink. She will sing the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Taps" at the June 22 morning meeting, and will give a song recital for the veterans Tuesday night, June 23.

The convention parade will take place Tuesday morning, June 23, and will be a colorful and impressive spectacle.

WOMAN FINDS SON BUT LOSES SPOUSE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BROCKTON (Mass.) May 19.—Mrs. Jennie Woodward Sturtevant, who at Middlebury, Vt., identified Earl Woodward, kidnaper of 11-year-old Lucille Chatterton, as her long lost son, returned home to find that her husband, Simeon Sturtevant, had left. Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant were married in 1901 at Manchester, N. H., and have five children, two of them married. Mrs. Sturtevant says she had failed to inform Sturtevant at the time of the marriage that she had a son.

SQUIRRELS REPORTED MENACE TO REDWOODS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—Reports that gray squirrels in quest of food are stripping the bark from young redwood trees in sections of Sonoma and Humboldt counties and thereby causing heavy damage are to be investigated by State Forester M. B. Pratt. Wade Sturgeon of Sebastopol, a volunteer State fire warden, estimates the damage done by the squirrels is equivalent to a forest fire.

Special Shrine subscription offer: Seven issues of the Los Angeles Times, covering the full convention period, May 31 to June 6, including beautiful rotogravure Shrine souvenir supplement, mailed anywhere in the United States, 50c postage prepaid.

ORDERS MINES DEVELOPED

Canadian Court Holds Mining Property Cannot Be Tied Up to "Freeze Out" Stockholders

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) May 19.—Forsaken by Guggenheim Brothers after about $5,000,000 in gold had been taken from the property in an expensive operation, passed up by many mining concerns with wealth, and finally made the subject of a two years' litigation in the courts of British Columbia, the Lightning Creek Gold Gravels and Drainage Company's properties in Cariboo must be developed, according to an order of the British Columbia courts.

June 4 is the date on which the court insists that Charles H. Unversagt and his associates in the Northwest Company of Seattle must enter their pleadings in the courts here showing that the Mines Operating Company, which is an interlocking concern of Unversagt's, has the right to leases for all or a part of the Lighting Creek properties.

No mining concern in British Columbia has had a more checkered career than the Lightning Creek. Unversagt who for years made his headquarters at 405 Lexington avenue, New York, but is now in this city, is the moving spirit in this notorious mining venture. He and his associates are said to have held the property, refusing to work it and not allowing another group to operate it.

The literature which Unversagt sent through the mails during his stock selling process brought the wrath of the United States government down on him and his case comes up soon in Buffalo, when the government will prosecute him for using the mails to defraud.

Last Fall Unversagt was said to have been kidnaped in this city and taken to Bellingham, where he was in jail for several weeks. He accused the United States authorities with the kidnaping.

Romance has also tinged the Lightning Creek property, as it was there that Baron Nicholas de Rome, Unversagt's son-in-law, spent his honeymoon, and at times lived on the property nearly a year.

LIFE WORK WIPED OUT BY STORM

Maine Man Back Home; Family, Business, Lost in Indiana Tornado

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CORINNA (Me.) May 19.—Walter Davis, 39 years of age, a veteran of the World War, is back in his native town here after seventeen years in the West, having walked, or been given "lifts" by motorists all the way from Bryantsville, Ind., where the tornado destroyed his home, killed his wife and two children, and wrecked his business, leaving him nothing for seventeen years of toil but about $6.

Davis was doing a good business in selling gravel, having the only pit in the vicinity, and his industry saved his life, as he was working late in the pit. The first he knew of the terrific storm was when his team was blown into the pit, nearly crushing him.

As soon as the wind had abated, he rushed to his home to find it a wreck, and his wife crushed to death by the falling timbers his little son died in a short time and his daughter also was dead. He barely saved their bodies from the ruins, which caught fire.

"My only thought was to get as far away from the scene as possible and I turned my face toward my old home-town," he said. "I'm right back where I started from seventeen years ago."

DONATES CAMP SITE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) May 19.—Acceptance of a ten-acre tract of ground thirty-eight miles from San Antonio and eight miles from Boerne, Tex., on the Guadalupe River, as a location for a permanent Girl Scout Camp, was decided upon at a meeting of the Girl Scout Commission. The ground was donated by Albert Kronkosky of San Antonio. June 3 to June 13 was selected as the date for the camp.

UTILITIES MERGED

AUSTIN (Tex.) May 19.—Through the ownership of all the outstanding securities of eleven public utility companies and a substantial interest in two others, all doing business in Texas, the Southwestern Power and Light Company is strongly entrenched in the electric power field of this State. The subsidiary companies serve 144,876 customers, it is stated.

EXPERT HERE
F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Rosslyn Hotel and will remain in Los Angeles this Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday only (from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m., positively no longer.) Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in ten days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position, no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. Warning—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understrape, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

People are Buying too many Automobiles
Unless you are completely satisfied with the motor car you purchase you naturally take the first opportunity to resell or trade it in to get another car. What happens then?
The purchase price of every automobile includes such items as luxury tax, freight, handling charges and selling expense. You absorb all this expense every time you make a change. This makes the cost of automobile service extravagant for people who buy too many automobiles.
But when this expense is spread over many years the annual cost of maintaining an automobile is greatly lessened. Beside the economy there is greater satisfaction and pleasure in driving a motor car that completely satisfies the requirements and pride of its owner in performance, unfailing dependability, comfort and appearance.
NOW—A Ten Year Car
On this basis Case Motor cars are extremely economical,—a recent investigation established the fact that the life of all Case cars then in service was many years beyond the average. And the New Jay-Eye-See Case is by far the best car Case ever built.
How the "Endurance Factor" Determines Value
If you believe trading an automobile every year or two is an economic waste—if you believe a motor car should give ten years or more of satisfactory, economical transportation,—see the Case. In this new ten year car the "Endurance Factor" has been scientifically determined for every part.
You must see for yourself this New Case to appreciate how well a car can be built. These cars, in open and closed models, are now in our Show Room.

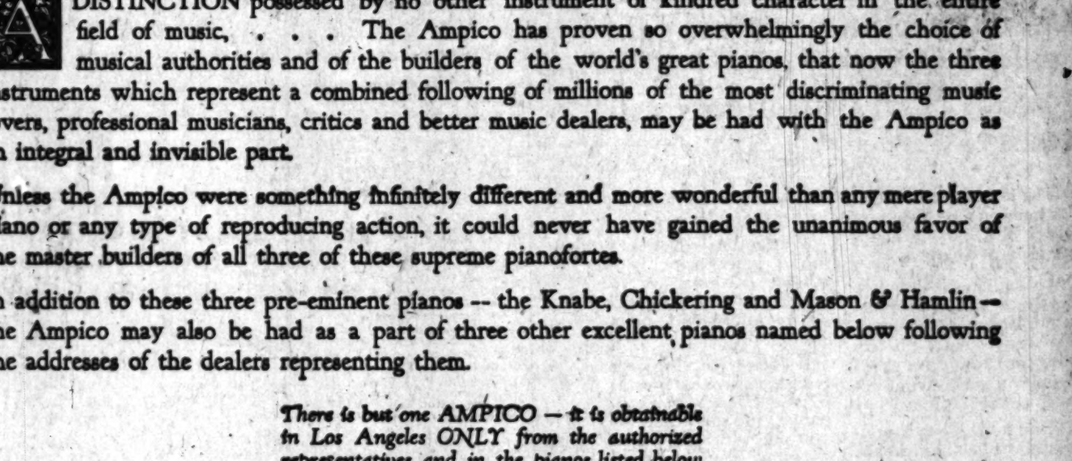
The 3 Pianos of Greatest Following now Come AMPICO equipped



The Ampico is Not Merely for Great Concerts --it is for YOUR Home!

After all has been said about the greatness of the Ampico, its brilliant concerts re-enacting the artistry of famous virtuosi, before vast assemblages.....its use by noted artists.....and its world wide excitement of awe and wonderment.....the greatest thing about this scientific marvel is that it is accessible to every home that appreciates good music. For that art which ALL the people may enjoy is the only really great art. No matter how modest your means, you may easily afford one of the more modestly priced instruments in which the Ampico is embodied. Any one of the dealers listed here will gladly extend to you the fullest possible accommodation of terms, and make you a liberal allowance in exchange for your present piano.

Pedal Operated Models, $845
Electric Models, $1035 to $5000.

A DISTINCTION possessed by no other instrument of kindred character in the entire field of music, . . . The Ampico has proven so overwhelmingly the choice of musical authorities and of the builders of the world's great pianos, that now the three instruments which represent a combined following of millions of the most discriminating music lovers, professional musicians, critics and better music dealers, may be had with the Ampico as an integral and invisible part.

Unless the Ampico were something infinitely different and more wonderful than any mere player piano or any type of reproducing action, it could never have gained the unanimous favor of the master builders of all three of these supreme pianofortes.

In addition to these three pre-eminent pianos -- the Knabe, Chickering and Mason & Hamlin -- the Ampico may also be had as a part of three other excellent pianos named below following the addresses of the dealers representing them.

There is but one AMPICO — it is obtainable in Los Angeles ONLY from the authorized representatives and in the pianos listed below

COLLEGE FINALS ON IN MIDWEST

Oratory Contestants to Meet at St. Louis Tonight

Officials Are Swamped With Seat Applications

Four Regional Champions Chosen for Meet Here

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) May 19.—Final preparations have been completed for the finals for the Mid-western region in the Better American Federation intercollegiate oratorical contest, to be conducted here tomorrow night.

With practically every prominent university in this region represented, some of the best speaking talent from among the collegiate orators will be heard on the local rostrum. Already the directors of the affair have been swamped with applications for seats and every effort is being made to accommodate all who express a desire to attend.

The finals for the Southern District at Nashville, Tenn., last night proved to be one of the most popular of the contests staged thus far. William Ryan Stedwards of the University of Texas, Austin, Tex., was selected as the champion. He will represent his district at Los Angeles when the national finals are conducted at the Philharmonic Auditorium on the night of June 5, next. Seven speakers representing as many districts will compete at the Los Angeles finals.

Besides Stedwards, three other regional champions have been chosen thus far. They include Clarence McLean Gifford of Wesleyan University, Middleton, Ct.; Edward Barrett, Jr., of Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y., and George A. Creitz, Jefferson and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa.

Added to the finals to be held here tomorrow night, the Central States universities will have their finals at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., Friday night, and the Pacific States will conduct their finals at Stanford University on the same night.

MEXICO CITY BANKS HOLD BACK LOANS

Markets Paralyzed by Tightening of Credit Due to Clerks' Demands

BY JACK STARR-HUNT

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MEXICO CITY, May 19.—Though the demands of the syndicalized bank employees have been withdrawn, their effects are still being felt in a scarcity of loans and credits. Little business has been done in these directions for the last twenty days.

The five principal foreign banks will have a meeting tomorrow, it was said by a banker, who expressed the belief that after this loans will again be granted and normal fiscal dealings resumed. The shutting off of credit virtually paralyzed the financial market. The withdrawal of the demands was accomplished, it is said, through the good offices of the government.

Slaying Ends Fight Caused by Derby Hat

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 19.—For some time, the wearing of a derby, or "iron hat," has been incentive to violence and today it resulted in murder.

A stranger, wearing a derby, drifted into the soft drink parlor operated by James V. Tesard, in Posen. Paul Matiocha, Daniel Dore, a special deputy sheriff, and others were in the place, imbibing "soft drinks." Someone took exception to the derby hat and shot a hole through it. The owner of the lid objected and in the ensuing altercation Dore arrested Matiocha for disorderly conduct.

Boleslaus Dryja, town marshal of Posen, says Dore hustled Matiocha into his automobile, intending to take him to Blue Island, as he did not trust the jail at Posen. Both Dore and Matiocha were drunk. Matiocha flopped out of the automobile and started to run away when Dore shot and killed him.

Meanwhile, the man with the derby hat vanished from the scene and may cause other uprisings.

COURT DECISION HITS 3000 FARM VEHICLES

CRITTENDEN ACT DECLARED INVALID BECAUSE OF FEE EXEMPTION

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Motor vehicles carrying farm products or farm supplies, hitherto exempted by the Crittenden bill of 1922, from fees ordinarily required of commercial vehicles, must now pay those fees, according to a decision handed down by the Supreme Court today declaring the Crittenden Act to be class legislation and, therefore, unconstitutional.

The decision will affect 3000 vehicles, authorities estimate. These must pay a fee of $50 apiece. The vehicles will be under the jurisdiction of the State Railroad Commission.

The act permitted the carrying not only of farm products, but implements and supplies. Many complained that frequently a small amount of produce was carried to mask what was otherwise purely commercial transportation.

SAYS PASTOR SLANDERED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

YUMA (Ariz.) May 19.—Rev. R. Glen Edwards, until recently pastor of the First Christian Church of Yuma, has been made defendant in a $20,000 slander damage suit filed by Mrs. Bessie Barnett of Phoenix. The latter last fall sued the minister for $1500, on a note asserted unpaid. Defense was set up that the account had been included in bankruptcy proceedings at Phoenix. Mrs. Barnett lately attached an automobile said to be the property of Mrs. Edwards.

NOTICIAS MUNDIALES DE ULTIMA HORA

En obsequio a nuestros numerosos amigos de habla española, y para beneficio de los lectores americanos de "The Times" que estudien esa lengua, publicamos diariamente esta columna en castellano, con un extracto de las más importantes noticias de última hora.

Buena parte del futuro progreso de Los Angeles, que es la metrópoli de los Estados Unidos que más cercana se halla a territorio latino-americano, habrá de depender de las relaciones que logremos establecer con nuestras hermanas, las repúblicas del sur. Para que lleguen a ser enteramente cordiales, no hay nada tan importante como que nuestros ciudadanos se familiaricen con la lengua castellana. Tan se dan cuenta de este hecho nuestros habitantes que hay al presente más de 25.000 personas que estudian español en Los Angeles. A ellas les conviene leer todos los días esta columna, en la que encontrarán español correcto y enteramente moderno.

NUEVA YORK, Mayo 19.—Poco antes de las diez de la mañana de hoy se produjo un corto circuito en un convoy local subterráneo compuesto de seis vagones, que acababa de salir de la estación "Grand Central". El percance hizo que se llenara el túnel de humo y se originara el pánico más intenso que ha habido en la historia del ferrocarril subterráneo. Hubo más de 100 personas lastimadas, diecisiete de las cuales fueron transportadas a hospitales.

Algunos hombres que viajaban en los coches delanteros, locos de terror, empujaron furiosamente a ambos lados a mujeres y niños, y a patadas y mojicones se abrieron paso hasta las puertas. Otros quebraron los vidrios de las ventanas, y esto motivó que muchos resultasen heridos por fragmentos de cristales rotos.

Docenas de viajeros fueron derribados, y algunos pisoteados. Otros trataron de echarse de cabeza por las ventanillas. Una mujer arrojó a la vía a su bebé. Hubo quienes resultaran lesionados cuando, estando ya las puertas bien abiertas, fueron arrollados por los viajeros que, ciegos de espanto, se precipitaban a la vía y se lanzaban a todo correr hacia la estación de la calle Treinta y Tres.

El primer policía que bajó al subterráneo fue el guardia de patrulla Joseph Steinwand, de la comisaría de la calle Treinta y Cinco Este. Vio que salía de la estación de la calle Treinta y Tres la vanguardia de los viajeros, con los rostros ennegrecidos y sangrientos, y era tan impetuosa la carrera que llevaban, que durante algunos minutos le fue imposible a Steinwand abrirse paso escalera abajo.

Cuando al fin lo consiguió y pudo llegar al piso de las vías, observó una larga fila de viajeros que corrían desaforadamente por los carriles. Una niña, que había perdido los zapatos, iba corriendo en medias. Varios se tropezaron, y, al caer, fueron pisoteados por los que venían detrás de ellos.

Tal Vez Consiga Méjico un Empréstito para Construir Carreteras

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Mayo 19. Un grupo de los principales fabricantes de automóviles de los Estados Unidos le ha ofrecido al gobierno mejicano un empréstito de $30,000,000, con la condición de que se aplique esta suma a la construcción de carreteras por toda la república, y especialmente a la de un camino real internacional, de la ciudad de Méjico a la frontera americana.

Los periódicos, que dicen tener esta información de fuentes semioficiales, manifiestan que el empréstito estará garantizado por la contribución especial con que hace poco se gravó cada litro de gasolina que se venda en Méjico, a fin de arbitrase fondos para mejorar las actuales carreteras y construir nuevas.

NOTAS LOCALES

Se Descubre una Gran Fábrica de Licor

Los agentes prohibicionistas federales descubrieron ayer en un almacén de la calle North Utah, número 143, una inmensa fábrica para la elaboración y el almacenaje de licores prohibidos, y se cree forme parte de la organización que se descubrió la semana próximo pasada en una serie de raids practicados en el mercado viejo de la calle Produce.

En el rótulo del citado local se puede leer "Monarch Products Company"; pero hasta ayer a última hora no había podido darse con el desconocido dueño del licor allí depositado. No había nadie en el almacén cuando se llevó a cabo el raid, y todavía no se ha hecho aprehensión alguna.

DEPORTES

Baseball

NUEVA YORK, Mayo 19.—Babe Ruth, después de perder un golpe, realizó hoy un "home run", habiendo mandado la pelota hasta los bancos que se han hecho en el campo derecho del estadio de los Yanquis. Dirigió una sonrisa al equipo de pintores, cortadores de hierba y reporteros que se habían juntado a su alrededor, y les dijo, "¿No está malo, eh?" Los concurrentes prorrumpieron en ruidoso aplauso.

El "Bebé", feliz y risueño, aunque palidísimo y débil, se presentó hoy por primera vez en pleno sol, desde que cayó enfermo en Florida, donde estaba entrenándose con los Yanquis. Le dieron permiso sus médicos de salir, y cuando un amigo le preguntó adónde quería ir, el "Bebé" le contestó: "Llévame al estadio. Desearía ponerle encima los ojos. Eso me hará mucho bien".

CLAIMANT IN FRAZIER QUIZ HEARD

Ends Story in Suit for War Compensation and is Removed to Hospital

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) May 19. Arthur Lopez-Frazier, who claims to be Arthur Frazier, World War veteran of Winner, S. D., finished his story late today in Federal court here. He is suing the government for war compensation.

At the end of the ordeal, Lopez-Frazier stumbled from the witness stand and dropped into a chair. Later he was taken to a hospital.

A dramatic moment in the trial came late in the day when Lopez-Frazier charged that he had been detained for two months in an insane hospital at Knoxville, Iowa, one month of which was in solitary confinement.

The confinement, he said, was before he was questioned by Michael Johannes, head of the local Department of Justice, and when he signed an alleged confession that he was Arthur Lopez and not Frazier.

Lopez-Frazier said that when he entered the Iowa institution the doctor greeted him with the remark "goofy." He did not say who was responsible for his detention.

Lopez-Frazier declared that he did not even know what he was writing when he scrawled "Arthur Lopez" at the bottom of the confession in Mr. Johannes's office. Previously he had testified he did not know the contents of the document and had signed it in the belief that the ceremony was merely a test of his handwriting.

EVOLUTION MEET ENDS IN FIGHTING

Chattanooga Charged With Trying to Grab Honors in First Test Case

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

DAYTON (Tenn.) May 19.—A meeting of indignant Dayton citizens to protest against Chattanooga's obtaining any of the publicity this town expected in the legal battle over constitutionality of the Antievolution Act today ended in a fist fight between a proponent and an opponent of the evolution theory.

Thurlow Reed, a Dayton barber and antievolutionist, construed a statement of Dr. George Rappleyea, evolution leader, that lower forms of life were man's forebears, as a reflection on his family, and attempted on the rostrum to chastise the physician.

Resolutions adopted condemned the reported plans of Chattanooga to have Chattanooga school teachers indicted for disseminating information about evolution contrary to the new law, instead of allowing Prof. Scopes of the Dayton school to be tried in a test case.

The resolution said Dayton people might boycott Chattanooga unless efforts to change the place of the contest were dropped. Chattanooga school teachers who have been offered the honor of indictment are not enthusiastic about it, according to reports here. The grand jury is in session at Chattanooga now.

A telegram from an actress offering the use of a trained chimpanzee to combat the law was read at the meeting.

CALIFORNIAN HONORED BY PLAYGROUND BODY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Joseph Lee of Boston was re-elected president of the Playground and Recreation Association of America at its annual meeting today. Mr. Lee is known as the "father of the playground movement," and under his leadership playgrounds and recreation centers in the United States and Canada have increased to more than 6000. William Kent of Kentfield, Cal., was re-elected vice-president.

FOREIGN EYES ON CALIFORNIA

London Banker Has Praise for Los Angeles

Coming to Finance Pacific Coast Club

Bay City Exchange Inspects Arizona Mines

Los Angeles is building a world-wide reputation as a world port and financial center, according to H. Poe Alton, foreign representative of Barclays Bank, Ltd., of London, who is in Los Angeles completing a report on general conditions here.

Mr. Alton, in discussing business conditions yesterday with Emanuel Cohen, vice-president of the Heilman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, made particular reference to investments held and contemplated here by the London banking institution. Barclays, Ltd., controls resources around $1,500,000,000, scattered over the world, and Mr. Alton declares no section of the world is at present attracting more attention among British financiers than Southern California.

"The rapid growth of this section in all lines of human endeavor is wonderful to me," declared Mr. Alton. "I was in Los Angeles only four years ago and at that time made a survey of conditions for a report to London. The increase in various lines has been noticeable even in that brief period of time. With more than $1,000,000,000 on deposit in your banks and with revenues greatly in excess of expenditures, it is no wonder your banks are reaching into all parts of the world to seek investment."

Plans for a world harbor interested the visitor. "When your harbor now under construction reaches its full capacity, Los Angeles will be one of the greatest ports in the world. With the Pacific Ocean at your door this should be one of the trade centers that will rival the golden days of Venice and Naples as trade enriched communities."

Offer Long Beach Liens

The Security Company is today offering a $500,000 issue of first mortgage, 7 per cent serial gold bonds on the Pacific Coast Club of Long Beach. The bonds will mature serially, annually from 1927 to 1939, inclusive, and are priced to yield 6 per cent to 6.85 per cent, according to maturity. They are secured by first closed mortgage upon the real estate in fee of the Pacific Coast Club, together with all furniture, fixtures and other property of the club.

The contract for the erection of the height-limit $800,000 club building for the Pacific Coast Club has been let and construction will start immediately. It will be located on Ocean avenue, five blocks east of American avenue, between First Place and Alboni Place.

The Pacific Coast Club is the only exclusive downtown club in Long Beach. Its new building, which will be of attractive Gothic design, will afford the facilities of a beach club, a social club and an athletic club. It draws its membership from all parts of Southern California as well as Long Beach.

May List Kay Copper

The stock of the Kay Copper Corporation probably will be listed soon on the San Francisco Stock Exchange, according to a report from Arizona. Recommendation to that effect is expected to be made by an exchange committee from the San Francisco Stock Exchange that has just made inspection of the property of the company, forty miles north of Phoenix, Ariz., in the Black Canyon district.

The visitors were escorted over the property by Sidney Norman of Los Angeles, with inspection of the two ore bodies developed on the 1200-foot level, and while in Phoenix were guests of President Fred J. Elliott of the Chamber of Commerce.

INVESTMENT BANKERS OFFER MOBILE BONDS

An issue of the city of Mobile, Ala., thirty-year 5-per cent bonds, due November 1, 1954, is being offered by Blair & Co. inc., of Los Angeles at a price to yield 4.20 per cent.

The bonds are legal investment for savings banks and trust funds in New York State. The city's estimated population is 64,816 and it has an assessed valuation for purposes of taxation of $77,894,170 and a net bonded debt of $4,050,446.

BANKERS GATHER TODAY

State Convention Opens in Santa Barbara; Branch Question May Precipitate Interesting Debate

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Today the thirty-first convention of the California Bankers' Association convenes in Santa Barbara. Nearly 500 bankers with their wives are expected to register at convention headquarters as the guests of the Associated Banks of Santa Barbara, and of this number, nearly 100 are expected from Los Angeles alone. The program this year for the business session is particularly interesting and should draw a record attendance, for it is largely devoted to the discussion of timely agricultural questions.

An imposing group of authorities will speak on various phases of agriculture. Leo S. Chandler, president of the California Trust Company, Los Angeles, and head of the California Bankers' Association, has emphasized farm problems throughout his year's administration, and in the numerous reports and addresses at this convention, he plans to summarize the work accomplished in the past year.

LEO S. CHANDLER.

EXPERTS TO SPEAK

In the list of experts who will speak to delegates are such men as C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange and California Walnut Growers' Association; F. W. Fluharty, farm management demonstrator, college of agriculture, University of California; Roy M. Hagen, secretary California Cattlemen's Association, and W. T. Dinsmore, vice-president and cashier Security Savings Bank, Riverside, who is chairman of the agricultural committee of the association.

Legislative and technical questions have an important place on the program, and there is a possibility that the discussion of legislative affairs will subordinate agriculture. Many bankers are anxiously awaiting the report of the legislative committee, of which J. F. Sartori, president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, is chairman. This committee took a positive stand in the recent controversy before the banking committee of the Legislature on the question of granting branch bank applications, and if the convention is asked to approve the course adopted, an opening ought to be provided for some interesting debate.

And then, of course, the independent bankers will gather in meeting to air their views. Led by Howard Whipple, president of the First National Bank of Turlock, and J. S. MacDonnell, president of the First National Bank of Pasadena, the unit bankers will meet this morning on the first day of the convention to elect new officers of their organization, the California League of Independent Bankers, and to discuss their problems. The last two or three conventions of the bankers' associations have been featured by the discordant expressions from this group, but this year it is possible that the topic of branch-bank applications will overshadow the troubles of the independents.

An address of especial import to the entire State will be given by Ralph W. Smith, formerly State inheritance tax attorney, and now a member of a Los Angeles law firm. Mr. Smith will make it his business to disprove the many fallacious stories in circulation of excessive inheritance taxes in California, and is expected to show that California is as cheap a State to die in as any in the Union.

ELLIOTT WILL ATTEND

President Chandler has varied the program with two recognized speakers in the persons of Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific, Stockton, and Moore S. Achenbach, director food products division, K. H. McCann Company, San Francisco. Dr. Knoles is well known throughout the State as a student of politics and international affairs, and Mr. Achenbach, from his familiarity with the marketing of perishable fruits, will deliver an authoritative address on California's fruit industry.

To the delegates in attendance at last year's convention at Yosemite, the reminiscences of J. M. Elliott, chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, provided one of the best features of the meeting, and President Chandler has obtained Mr. Elliott's acceptance to attend again this year. He was the eighth president of the California Bankers' Association, having served as the executive in 1901.

Gov. Richardson may appear as one of the guests of the association, although it is probable that the pressure of legislative business will prevent his attendance. Superintendent of Banks J. Franklin Johnson is expected to attend, and the Arizona Bankers' Association has been invited to send a representative.

Election of officers for the next term will be held Friday afternoon. In accordance with the unwritten policy of rotation of office from North to South, the nominating committee undoubtedly will name a northern man this year.

As for entertainment, the Associated Banks of Santa Barbara, apparently from the program, have drawn on all the multifarious possibilities of this early Spanish city. Yachting, horse back riding, golf, tennis, automobile drives and dances have been arranged for the pleasure of the delegates.

MAY SALES GREATEST IN HISTORY

New Records Being Made by Automobile Companies in All Price Classes

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—In sales and profits as well as in production May undoubtedly will be the biggest month in the history of the automotive industry, according to Motor of New York.

New records are being made by most companies in all price classifications, both big and little.

Earnings reports for April and thus far this month make it virtually certain that the second quarter will be the most profitable ever recorded for vehicle builders, tire manufacturers and many parts and accessory makers. They will reflect not only large output, but increased efficiency and sound economies, especially in merchandising.

There is a moderate shortage in certain lines of passenger cars, which has had a beneficial psychological effect on buyers, but the number of sales actually lost because of inability to make immediate deliveries probably is being exaggerated as it has been in other years.

Demand will hold steady throughout this month and part of next, but then will begin to decline gradually. After June production probably will be much the same as in the corresponding months of 1924. Although the second quarter will set a new high mark, total output of passenger cars for the first half will be about the same as last year.

Wall Street Paragraphs

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, May 19.—The stock market today literally boiled over in its reach for higher prices. That brokerage loans were on the ascent was the assertion among the commission houses here. The public following was found to be expanding and this added to professional activities made for a broader market than thus far had been witnessed. Standard industrials again were moved higher and with them went the motors and power concerns. Rails were firm throughout, but as a body they lacked the same snap that was to be found in other directions. Mack Trucks forged to a new top as did American Can. Associated Drygoods also was strong, but volume was small. Atlantic Coast Line directors ordered an extra dividend and the stock immediately slipped back on the news. Merger talk was widely stressed but the Loree plans were given more attention than were those of the Van Sweringen brothers.

THE MONEY FACTOR

Further price advances in the oil regions revived the oil issues strongest showing. Nash Motors climbed to another record top as the day drew nearer at hand when the board should take definite action on a melon cutting. Money rates again indicated an easy flow of funds for speculative purposes.

THE MACK MYSTERY

Mack Trucks again performed and the mystery deepened concerning the company. The street had its own ideas as to what was taking place and this, briefly, was to the effect that control would be found to have changed when actual ownership of shares was tallied. Officially, nothing beyond a market play was indicated with strong interests in charge of the manipulation. Earnings currently were stated to be running at a rate of between $18 and $20 a share and as this estimate was from a director it was accepted at its full value. A member of the board stated that he had no knowledge of new interests buying the stock, as he explained that transfers thus far failed to reveal concentrated purchases. Identity of purchasers would be hidden, however, until after sufficient stock had been obtained for whatever purposes might be in the minds of the new owners. The thought would not dawn in many places that eventually General Motors would turn up in control of Mack; it had been suggested at frequent intervals in the past few months but with a recurrence of buying and this time violent in nature the matter became almost open conviction in more than one quarter. At one time bankers identified with the management had about one-third of the outstanding shares in their control, but the amount was stated to have been reduced during the past few months.

MAKING GOOD

The move in Famous Players was quite in line with predictions which had been heard during the past week. There was talk of a stock issue the proceeds to be used in absorbing new theaters while earnings also were stressed as warranting higher prices for the shares. It was the same stock on which the question of dividend safety had been raised when it sold some 50 points lower yet the $8 payments were maintained.

BACKING WATER

The commission house, which had been credited with picking up large blocks of M. K. & T. in the open market some months ago today was noted as having been a heavy seller of Marine issues. Both the common and preferred of International Mercantile Marine were weak as 500 shares of the former and 2000 of the senior shares were liquidated from one source. Private wires conveyed to their out-of-town correspondents that the annual report would make a poor showing in efforts to explain the meaning of the weakness.

ANTICIPATE INCREASE

Continuance of the same sort of buying lately noticed came in American Smelting and Refining common and the street assumption was that 120 Broadway again was picking up the stock. Dividends were much in discussion and as the shares approached par it again was intimated that a higher basis of payments might well be adopted before the end of the year.

LOOK TO STEEL

United States Steel was quietly absorbed and market analysts were convinced of their theory that this stock soon would assume leadership of the industrial advance. Bethlehem Steel also stiffened with the premier member of the group. Chartists read from their curves

Wheat Stronger on Expectation of Small Carryover—New High Price Carries Commodity More Than Half Way Back to January Peak.

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Fluctuations in the market for wheat nowadays are not unlike those in stocks, although the change of a few points in this commodity is vastly more far-reaching than the gyrations in cast iron pipe of recent months, for example, which may come to mind in the comparison.

Late in January wheat for May delivery in its mad upward rush touched $2.05 7-8 per bushel, although it had sold at less than half that price in the previous spring. From the January pinnacle wheat fell in as spectacular a fashion as it had risen. In early April it sold as low as $1.36½ per bushel. Obviously, $2.05 7-8 was too high and apparently $1.36½ was too low, the movement having been overdone in each instance by those who use such opportunities for speculative manipulations. These 2 points are interesting, not in themselves just now, but for what they show when the present price of wheat is considered.

WHEAT ON UPSWING

Wheat has been quietly moving forward again in recent weeks until it again has touched $1.74 1-4 per bushel on the upswing, a price that actually is about 38 cents above the April and within 32 cents of the January peak. That the market this time has been less sensational does not alter the fact that the commodity has regained more than half of what it lost between January and April.

Simultaneously with the setting of a new high in the central market there comes through the mail a bulletin from California that says: "It seems probable that carry-overs from the 1924 crops, including invisible supplies, will be lower at the end of this crop year than at any time since the armistice. Although heavy exports from the Southern Hemisphere and the continuance of large visible supplies played a part in the collapse of wheat prices since January, the expectation of low carry-overs has presumably been largely discounted.

"It is not clear that wheat prices have reached an equilibrium since the extreme recession — but the possibility does exist that there may develop a shortage of wheat in advantageous positions in this country which would lead to price increases behind the tariff wall. Important changes in the world prices in the next few months, if they occur, are likely to be occasioned by changes in the outlook for new crops."

AWAIT DEVELOPMENTS

The quotation is from wheat studies of the food research institute of Stanford University and is intersting for the perspective it gives to those upon whom the market presses too closely to permit impartial analysis. The government estimates that the winter crop will be only 444,833,60 bushels, which would be the poorest yield since 1917. Exports have been ungommonly heavy with the result that the carry-over will be the smallest in several years.

It means that all eyes now are turned on the condition of the new crop. After the first of June we will know the government's first estimate on spring wheat. While the fluctuations in wheat are exceedingly important, probably nothing like a real stabilization of the price can be expected until early this summer, when we know not only what the carry-over will be but what the outlook is for the present crop. About all the market is doing nowadays is guessing on such points as these.

JOHNSON TELLS OF BIG MERGER

State Bank Head Reveals Valley Bank Deal

Los Angeles Banks Finance Fresno Institution

Directors Take Only Course Practicable

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—John Franklin Johnson, State Superintendent of Banks, who some days ago declined to give his deposition in the suit brought by stockholders of the Valley Bank of Fresno against the Bank of Italy and the Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank, growing out of the merger of the bank with the latter institutions, because he had been subpoenaed as an individual instead of in his official capacity, today gave his official deposition under the amended stipulation.

"The Valley Bank, a $10,000,000 institution, was shown by the superintendent's examination of November, 1923, to be in bad shape, its dividend of January, 1924, was ordered not paid, and its officers and directors were ordered to appear for conference.

CAPITAL IMPAIRED

"It was found that the Valley Bank owed the Crocker National Bank approximately $250,000, that the surplus and undivided profits had been wiped out and even its capital had been impaired.

"President Mitchell of the Valley Bank asked for time in which to get his bank into shape. This was granted, but early in January the story as to the condition of the Valley Bank became known to the public and funds began to be withdrawn from the institution through incipient runs.

"The bank was offered for sale to a number of financial institutions, including the Crocker National Bank, the Bank of Italy, the Pacific-Southwest, the Hellman interests of Los Angeles, the California Bank, the American and the Sacramento-San Joaquin (now the United Bank and Trust Company,) but the purchase of the institution was declined in all cases.

PROTECT BANK

"The Crocker bank, perturbed over the situation, arranged to have President Mitchell removed from office and for James Ficket to take charge of the bank to conserve its assets, and following a meeting between the Crocker National Bank, the Bank of Italy and the Pacific-Southwest, these three institutions each placed $500,000 behind the Valley Bank as a secured loan in order to protect the banking situation in Central California.

"About this time the governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of the Twelfth District notified the State superintendent that the Valley Bank had exhausted its rediscount abilities with the Federal Reserve and that the Federal Reserve could no longer aid in keeping the Valley Bank in operation.

"The State superintendent then called a meeting of the directors of the Valley Bank of Fresno and notified them that under the law he had only two courses to pursue,

"First: To levy an assessment against the stockholders, to replace the lost capital. This, the directors of the Valley Bank refused to do.

Second: To close the bank.

"A third alternative not within the authority of the State to demand, would be for the Valley Bank to sell to some institution which would guarantee its liabilities and save the depositors.

OFFER TO BUY

"Offer to do this was made by the Bank of Italy and the Pacific-Southwest Bank of Los Angeles through A. P. Giannini and Charles F. Stern, respectively, at the urgent request of the superintendent.

"Stern and Giannini, however, made an additional offer to put up $1,000,000 in support of the Valley Bank if the financially responsible directors of that bank would individually carry the loan, and the bank as well. This the Valley Bank directors also refused to do.

"As the failure of the Valley Bank would carry a number of small banks with it throughout Central California, it was absolutely necessary that the support of the Bank of Italy and the Pacific-Southwest be given to the Valley Bank at once as the latter could not then stand a two-hour run.

"The directors of the Valley Bank took the only course practicable and made the sale which was ratified by the necessary two-thirds of the stockholders, the purchasing banks stating that if the Valley Bank could refinance itself in ten days, or find another purchaser, they would be glad to step out of the picture.

"The present suit is being brought by one of the minority stockholders of the Valley Bank who had been kept in ignorance of the true conditions of the institution by its officers."

BOND QUOTATIONS

Interrupt Upward Trend

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—Several unsettling factors including the appearance of profit-taking sales in the railroad list and a sharp break in Polish 8 per cent bonds, interrupted the upward movement bond prices today although the market's undertone continued firm. Diversion of speculative interest to stock trading contributed to the irregularity of price movements.

Dissolution on the syndicate which recently floated the $35,000,000 Polish loan was responsible for the break in that government's 8 per cent bonds. The decline which set in late yesterday afternoon was extended today, carrying the price down from the pegged level of around 95, which had been maintained for several months, to a low of 87. Subsequently, the bonds recovered to 89, showing a new loss of a point. More than $1,300,000 worth of the obligations were thrown on the market after the withdrawal of syndicate support.

Mixed price movements marked trading in the railroad group. St. Paul liens resumed their upward movement scoring gains of a point or so, but interest in Great Northern adjustment 6's lost yesterday's realizing of more than 2 points and relizing sales caused recessions in a number of other issues. United States bonds worked irregularly higher.

Following are yesterday's high, low and closing prices of bonds on the New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond. These quotations are received over Associated Press wires, and by opposite transmission the closing is omitted when it is the same as the low, and both low and close are omitted when they are the same as the high.

A Tiny Heat Producer

In the realm of small things, a tiny electric furnace, so small that it will slip into one's coat pocket, if one wanted to carry a furnace in that precarious locality, is reported. It is designed for use in laboratories and home workshops. It will produce a temperature of 1600 deg.

RUBBER IN SLUMP

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 19.—After opening strong this morning and giving promise of mounting still higher, the crude rubber market hit an unexpected slump about noon and before the day was over had dropped several points to close at 61 cents. This movement occasioned much surprise, for it came shortly after a Department of Commerce prediction that prices were due to go still higher and after an announcement from London that stocks there were still being rapidly depleted. London had an unusual day, wavering about considerably and closing at 33d.

BIG ADVANCE IN STOCK MARKET

Industrial Specialties Lead Upward Movement

Motors Give Demonstration of Group Strength

Tobacco Shares Attracting Larger Following

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 19.—High-priced industrial specialists reported to be under pool control, led another vigorous advance in today's stock market. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, today's sales running over 1,500,000 shares. While the demand for stocks showed a broadening tendency, the motors and public utilities continued to give the best demonstrations of group strength. Tobacco and steel shares also attracted a larger following.

Financial interest was divided between the buoyancy of the stock market and the strength of sterling exchange, which advanced to within 1 cent of parity and the highest price in nearly eleven years. Buying of sterling bills was stimulated by South Africa's return to the gold standard on the theory that this would lead to an expansion of gold shipments to England.

U. S. STEEL UP

Although public participation in the stock market was still relatively small, there was a better demand for the recognized industrial leaders. United States Steel common was bid up 2 1-4 points to 118 3-4, a new high on the current movement, and Baldwin closed fractionally higher at 114 1-2. American Can continued its steady advance by touching a new peak price at 193, and then slipping back to 192 5-8, where it was up 2 1-8 on the day.

Utah securities was the spectacular individual feature, soaring 17 1-2 points to a new record price at 144, as compared with a low of 41 1-8 only a few months ago. Mack Trucks jumped more than 9 points to a new top at 183 and then dropped back to 177 3-4. Nash motors more than doubled its year's low by jumping 9 points to a new top price of 406. Dupont, which owns a large interest in General Motors and which is said to be negotiating for Mack Trucks, soared nearly 11 points to 165.

Other outstanding individual strong spots included Associated Drygoods, Electric Power and Light certificates, General Electric, Foundation Company, International Business Machine, May Department Stores, Sloss Sheffield Steel, Union Tank Car and Virginia Railway and Power, all of which closed from 3 to 8 1-2 points higher.

OIL SHARES GAIN

Oil Shares were under steady accumulation on the announcement of an increase in Smackover heavy crude prices. Houston Oil stood out with a gain of more than 4 points at 70.

The surprising turn for the better this spring in the automobile industry was reflected in the brisk demand for those shares, the three Pierce-Arrow issues, Willys-Overland and Briggs Body all climbing to new high ground.

Sporadic strength developed in the railroad group, which was featured by the heavy buying of the Wabash issues, all of which broke through to new maximum prices for the year on net gains of 2 to 3 points.

Another advance in the price of lead brought fresh buying into American Smelting, which closed 2 5-8 points higher at 99 5-8.

Call money held steady at 3 3-4 per cent. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged with business quiet.

Foreign exchanges were irregular. Most of the continental currencies lost ground. French francs dropped about 3 1-2 points to 515 cents and Italian lire slumped 6 points to 401 cents.

May Wheat Off at Close; Corn Surges Higher

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 19.—A break of 7½c from the high point on May wheat on the closing out of a fair-sized line by a commission house had a depressing effect on all deliveries early. July broke 1½c from Monday's finish, but the local element became oversold on the decline, and with a bullish crop report from Murray, a strong rally followed. The finish was at net gains of ⅛@2¼c on the distant futures, while May was off 3¼c, closing at 1.66⅝@1.67. July finished at 1.53¾@1.53⅝ and September at 1.44⅛@1.44⅝. Winnipeg May broke 9c, only to rally and close 2¼c lower. Corn was ⅝@1⅝c higher, with May at 1.03⅝. July 1.15⅝@1.15⅞ and September at 1.18⅝@1.19. Oats were ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher and rye 1¼c lower to ⅛c higher.

Murray's report showing a condition of winter wheat of 73.5, and suggesting a crop of 437,000,000 bushels, or 8,000,000 bushels less than the government's May 1 returns, and compared with 800,000,000 bushels harvested last year came at a time when a majority of the local element were short. Strong commission-house buying developed on the break and it took but little buying later to start values upward. In the past few days there has been a steady increase in the number of unfavorable crop comments received from the Southwest, with Hessian fly doing more or less damage in many sections of Kansas, as well as Illinois. The persistency with which these reports have come from a relatively wide territory is attracting the attention of traders, and a more bullish sentiment has gradually developed.

With the May deliveries unsettled, a majority of commission houses are disposed to be decidedly conservative in their views, but the outlook for the new winter wheat crop is so unflattering that a good deal of buying has appeared on all declines. Exporters took 150,000 bushels of hard winter now at an eastern port and Omaha sold 40,000 bushels to go to the gulf at equal to 1c under Chicago May. St. Joseph, Mo., sold 9000 bushels to come here. All to the seaboard, sales abroad were estimated at 750,000 bushels. Liverpool closed 1¼@1⅝d lower. The Minneapolis-Chicago May spread narrowed to 4⅝c, compared with over 11c at one time on Monday.

An improvement in the domestic shipping demand for cash corn, with sales of 200,000 bushels reported by local handlers, and charters for 240,000 bushels at 1½c to Buffalo, advanced the May delivery to 2⅝c under the July and caused short covering in the deferred deliveries. Trade in the aggregate was not large. Replanting talk came from Illinois and Iowa, but the forecast was for mild weather the balance of the week. Oats were affected largely by the action of corn.

Local handlers sold 150,000 bushels to exporters. Rye was dull, with scattered commission-house selling of May having a depressing effect. A moderate export business was put through at the seaboard, with sales estimated as high as 200,000 bushels.

A sharp break in cotton oil had a depressing effect on land and more than offset a further advance in hog prices at the yards, and the close was 5@13½c lower. Ribs were 15c higher to 5c lower and bellies 5c higher to 15c lower. Deliveries on May contracts were 50,000 pounds of land and 100,000 pounds of ribs.

THE INVESTOR

American Power and Light Company Holds Enviable Position in Public Utility Industry of United States—Growth Since Its Organization Has Been Amazing.

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]
NEW YORK, May 19.—Distributing services through operations to a total of 486 communities in eleven states, with its properties stretching from the Atlantic seaboard to Minnesota northward to Minnesota, the American Power and Light Company holds an enviable position in the public utility industry. The growth of the company since its organization in 1909 has been rapid. Gross revenues last year amounted in the aggregate of $42,000,000, or within a small fraction of twice those the gross reported for the full year of operation, in 1910, when total revenues amounted to $2,666,467.

Moving onward in net income as well as in gross, the balance for the year ending with the close of 1924 standing at $5,329,000, compared with $4,000,000 in 1919. Throughout its history the company has been the beneficiary of all the benefits of the supervision and engineering service offered by the forces of the Electric Bond and Share Company, which has piloted a number of the big utility organizations successfully.

DISTRIBUTION OF LOADS

In the recent annual report of the company, one of the most interesting study of the character of business which shows the distribution of electric energy in 1924, the distribution of 1,000,000 kilowatts connected to the company's operating subsidiaries, and load, 411,955 kilowatts, or 41 per cent, were consumed by those engaged in commercial pursuits. Percentage of the total so consumed by the various classes of industry served ranged all the way from 6.1 per cent for those engaged in oil drilling, pumping and refining, which, incidentally, was the largest, down to 3 per cent for slate and stone quarries, and a similar amount for automobile and accessories manufacturing, units served.

Consumption by all other industries taking less than that amount of the total was entered under the head of all other industries, and if some of these had been entered separately, it is certain that the minimum figure would have been a great deal smaller. The wide territory served by the company accounts for the unusual diversification of the business served, and incidentally, makes it plain that the company is well fortified against the unfavorable effect of a temporary depression in one section of the field served. The balance of the load is distributed for commercial and residential lighting purposes, which account for 41 per cent of the aggregate and to other utility corporations.

SUPERPOWER NOT NEW

With all that is being printed correctly about superpower development, those who are not or have not been in touch with the power business in past years probably look upon it as something new, but that is a long throw from the truth. As a matter of fact, the American Power and Light Company has for years been operating one of the largest superpower systems in the country in Texas. Prior to 1912 there were no high-tension transmission lines in the territory, covering an area of 50,000 square miles, which the company serves in that State.

Entering Texas in that year, the company has since built 1914 miles of transmission system of the high-voltage type, and presumably has under construction an additional total of 217 miles. Plants serving that territory are now wholly tied up, and have been for several years, the huge generating stations situated at Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco being interconnected and able to throw their output in any direction necessary. The American Power and Light system now has in operation a total of 4458 miles of high-power transmission lines, and a greater total of low-tension lines.

ACQUISITIONS IN 1924

The company acquired control of a number of additional properties last year, mainly in Florida. These included the Miami Electric Light and Power Company, Miami Water Company, Miami Gas Company, Southern Utilities Company, Daytona Public Service Company, Ormond Suply Company, Lakeland Gas Company and the Miami Beach Railway Company. These corporations served sixty-eight cities and towns and 63,622 customers.

In addition all the common stock and a majority of the preferred stock of the Central Arizona Light and Power Company was acquired, Phoenix, Ariz., which is the principal city served, is the center of one of the Federal government's largest and most successful irrigation projects. Those purchases were financed through the issuance of preferred stock and other capital expenditures were provided for by the issue of $16,600,000 gold debentures 6 per cent bonds. Capitalization at the close of the year consisted of $22,089,000 in funded indebtedness and $37,953,072 in preferred and common stock.

CONTROL SOUGHT

"Merger buying" best described the action at the Wabash Pool, where the "A" shares were in much demand. More than ever the street felt that this road was to be an important link in the railroad chain being welded by the Loree interests and talk of a 6 per cent guarantee accompanied the discussion of its probable future.

ANOTHER ALLIANCE

That Lehigh Valley was slated for the New York Central alliance again cropped out in surface considerations of the consolidation program of eastern roads. It was not a new thought, but the street made mention of quiet buying with the Grand Central as the probable purchaser.—[C. M. W.

MAY LEADS IN COTTON STRENGTH

Advance Made in Gradual Way; Some Resistance at Times Shown

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]
NEW YORK, May 19.—The market was more active today and stronger, with prices working up about 40 to 50 points from yesterday's closing under the lead of May and July of the old crop months before 2 o'clock. May then sold at 22½ cents, July over 22.90, October of the new crop over 22.55, December 22.75, and January 22.37½.

The advance was made in a gradual way, as there was a good deal of resistance shown at times by local and Wall Street traders, the majority of whom had been on the bearish on the cotton market since the long drought in Texas was broken three to four weeks ago. The elimination of that bullish feature in the new crop situation, together with the somewhat exaggerated bearish reports from the New England mill centers and local dry goods districts, where sentiment is generally bearish on cotton, resulted in the market having been well liquidated, as well as largely oversold before the close of last week.

With the prices now near the 23-cent level and contracts in spots having recently sold off to the lowest prices reached since early last fall, the bearish effects of the anticipated favorable government crop report, due June 2, for the first average condition of the new crop for the season has been largely discounted. The expectation at present is it will be as high as about 80 per cent, against 67 per cent, the average for the last five years, when the start of the new crops was unusually late and poor. The trade is also expecting from numerous private forecasts there will be an increase of between 3 and 5 per cent in the acreage planted in this season's crop over the record-breaking area of last year, which would bring the total up to about 44,000,000. There will be no government report on the acreage, however, until the July report.

With the past season's big crop of well over 14,000,000 bales, the third largest produced, having been up well absorbed by the record-breaking consumption likely to approximate 6,000,000 bales, there will be no burdensome supply of cotton to carry over at the end of the present statistical year on July 31 into the new crop season.

Consideration of this fact and the necessity of another large crop being produced with the many uncertainties the new crop will have to face in the most trying months of June, July and August for its development, makes present prices for cotton on a reasonable basis, compared with all other commodities, with Europe's trade expanding on Great Britain back on a gold basis and Holland having followed suit and Australia to do likewise in the near future.

For these reasons the market held up well during the afternoon, despite the usual profit-taking, with Liverpool cotton futures having closed firm at 22 to 26 of their points net advance for the day against 12 to 13 on Monday, and spots there up 15 points to 12¾ cents for middling.

HUGE OIL ORDER IS BEING FILLED

Total of 3,000,000 Barrels in Two Contracts

Gasoline and Crude in Equal Amounts Going East

Tanker Roanoke Here to Take Out First Shipment

Two contracts, both for the Atlantic Coast, one for 1,500,000 barrels of gasoline, and one for an equal amount of crude oil, are now being fulfilled by the Standard Oil Company of California, with ships handled by the firm of McCormick & McPherson, F. B. Benjamin, local agent.

The gasoline will be handled largely by the Texas Oil Company fleet of tankers, the Roanoke, Capt. James Brewer, being in yesterday on her maiden voyage to this port for the Texas company's account. She will be followed June 3 by the Shenandoah of the same fleet from Norfolk, and by a number of other tankers of the fleet of seventeen tankers operated by that company.

The 1,500,000 barrels of crude oil will be lifted by the Swift Oil Company tankers operated by C. D. Mallory & Co., for the account of the New England Oil Company of Fall River, Mass., the contract calling for delivery within six months.

Capt. Brewer, master of the Roanoke, making his first visit here, is the skipper whose name filled the public print July 19, 1919, when the American cruiser N. Y. Brewer was passing by, as master of the Dutch ship Brussum, commandeered to take coal down to Boston. Thirteen hundred gobs were pitched into the sea. Capt. Brewer and his crew rescuing 708 of them. Later, Capt. Brewer's steamer Wilmore was blown up and sank in eight minutes, during which he launched boats and saved his entire crew.

FRENCH TANKER ON FIRST VISIT TO PORT

The French tanker Myrtam of the Compagnie Auxiliaire de Navigation arrived on her first visit here yesterday from Manchuria to load oil with which she will return to Europe. The tanker is commanded by Capt. Pierre Furey, on his first visit to this port, having served as an apprentice aboard the big armored German battleship Asia, bringing relics home as a score of years ago.

Seven passenger carriers are due today, two receiving and five from foreign shores, steamers being as many as the German steamer Hamburg-American Line, the British steamer Union Castle Line, the joint United American passenger service between Pacific Coast ports and Northern Europe, the British steamer Lennox of the Furness Line for Europe, the Japanese steamer Tenyo Maru for fruit trade between Pacific Coast ports and Manchuria, the middle section of Manchuria, and the Canadian steamer Empress of England, Canadian Pacific Line, of the Latin-American Line, with passengers and freight for ports of the Johnson Line, Gothenburg, and the Mexican steamer Washington from Bahia Cruz and ports.

Four baby elephants, fifty monkeys and three zebras are among the wild animals being brought across the Pacific from the Orient by the Struthers & Barry freighter Coast Trader, due in San Francisco. Whether all the animals will be discharged at the Bay City or the Southern California terminus of the ship's voyage has not been decided, according to Capt. consigned to Ansel W. Robinson, San Francisco, and Al G. Barnes, by Barnes Bonnes. The ship has been on the Struthers & Barry line for the menagerie in India and Australia, calling for Northern ports, from which she will load more than 3000 tons before starting on a week later.

The United States cable ship Dellwood is scheduled to arrive tomorrow from the north, marking her return from Alaska, where she has been engaged several months in laying the Alaska cable. Her missing here has not been announced, although it is often the case, or not.

Capt. Harry Miller, pilot for Ford ships and other craft into the Outer Harbor ports, is taking a little thing into the motion picture business with Jack Hoxie, in the Tragedy of a Nation, which Anaheim. The film was purchased outright by Capt. OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

With the completion of two wells making a combined daily production of more than 5100 barrels, the Inglewood field is living up to the optimistic predictions of oil operators who asserted several weeks ago that the district would see a rapid succession of new wells making between 1500 and 2500 barrels a day. In addition to the two completed wells, two others are expected to go on production at an equal initial rate before the end of the week, and the Associated Oil Company has a well on its prolific Vickers lease which should be finally completed today.

The Petroleum Securities Corporation's Cone No. 6 made 2641 barrels in the twenty-four hours ending at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, after coming in at an initial rate of 1500 barrels a day, according to officials of the company. This well was drilled to a little more than 2500 feet, and is making oil of a slightly higher gravity than most of the wells in the field, the product averaging 20.4 degrees. The oil is absolutely clean.

Cone No. 6 is producing from 1329 feet of oil sand, and is the largest well yet completed in the Inglewood field.

The Shell Company's Rindge No. 3, on the lease acquired from the Artesia Land and Water Company, north of the Standard Oil Company's Los Angeles Investment property, started off with a production of 3500 barrels a day, at approximately 2500 feet. This is the only well the Shell has drilled in Inglewood to date.

The Standard Oil Company's No. 8 and No. 9 wells on the No. 1 lease of the Los Angeles Investment Company are both offsets to the Rindge, and are expected to go on production before the end of the week. According to oil men both wells should be as good as the Rindge No. 1.

Get Good Well

The Barnsdall Oil Company has completed its Rosecrans No. 3 in the southeastern part of the field, and is getting a daily production of about 1300 barrels, according to official reports. This well came in at the rate of 1500 barrels per day, from a depth of 4368 feet. The oil is 40.3 degrees gravity.

In addition to the oil production the Rosecrans No. 3 is making about 1,000,000 cubic feet, running nearly two gallons of gasoline to each 1000 feet.

The Barnsdall has spotted a location for its No. 4 well on the Rosecrans lease, which is expected to go to the deep sand found by the Associated Oil Company in its Wanka well. This well is now making about 2600 barrels a day.

Howard Well Wet

Oscar Howard's No. 2 well at Inglewood failed to get a water shutoff in cementing its eight-inch casing, and is wet, according to field reports. The well is down about 3300 feet, and has set two strings of pipe in the attempt to solve the water problem. According to reports in the field the well will be allowed to stand until Howard completes his No. 3 well which is located north of No. 2, and east of No. 1, Howard's producing well.

Wildcat Gets Gas

The Pan-American Petroleum Company's wildcat well at Palms is drilling ahead at about 2000 feet, but has found no indications of oil at this depth, it is reported. The formation is brown shale, and shows some gas, it is said.

Drill New Well.

The Associated Oil Company is preparing to drill its Higgins No. 1 in the Maxwell area of the Rosecrans field, according to field reports. The location has been spotted, and preparations are being made to build the derrick and start immediate drilling operations to get down to the Wanka sand, found in Wanka No. 2.

Start Gas Wells

The Midway Gas Company has rigged up and is preparing to start drilling this week on its prospect wells for gas on the Adolph Lutzinger ranch between Hawthorne and El Segundo, according to field reports. According to the terms of the lease, which covers 160 acres, the Midway is required to drill three wells to test the gas possibilities of the area.

Back on Production

The Marine Corporation's No. 24 well in the Athens area of the Rosecrans field is back on production at the rate of about 1500 barrels a day, according to officials of the company. The well is making more than 2,000,000 feet of gas a day. This well originally was on production in the shallow zone, but was deepened to 4479 feet. The well is making about 30 per cent emulsion and water, but the oil is being treated in a separator and making clean oil.

State Oil Men to Start Thirty Wells This Week

Weeks Goes for First Ride After Long Sickness

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Secretary Weeks has so far recovered from the attack of acute gall bladder colic which retarded for a time the progress he was making against the thrombosis attack suffered April 1, last, that he was able today to leave his home for a short automobile ride through the city parks and spend several hours with his private secretary attending to personal business affairs.

OYSTER CROP HUGE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) May 19. During the season just closed Galveston produced approximately 40,000 barrels of oysters, an increase of 28,000 barrels over the previous year. This is an increase of 230 per cent over the year before, according to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. The increase is due largely to the working of abandoned reefs where oysters had become overcrowded, dwarfed and unsuitable for the market.

CHAPLIN IS VICTOR; NEW FOE LOOMS

Small-Town Salesman Challenges Comedy King as "Aplin" Suit is Won

Even while Charlie Chaplin was quaffing the sweet nectar of victory over his asserted imitator, Charles Amador, yesterday at the end of a long and celebrated court battle, came a threat from a clothing salesman of Greensburg, Pa., to knock the golden goblet from Charlie's lips and the laurels of himland from his brow.

The victory, a partial one at least, over Amador, also known as Aplin, came when Superior Judge Hudner, in effect told Amador that he must not deceive the public into thinking his pictures are Chaplin films.

LAURELS PERILED

The threat, contained in a letter received by The Times, from Jacob M. Grossman, Hamilton street, Greensburg, Pa., follows:

"Who is the funniest man in the movies today? Everybody will say Charlie Chaplin is, but to my opinion, he is not. You will find inclosed several photos of myself.

"You will notice that I look just as Charlie himself, but I don't believe in dressing the same as he. Now look at the other, does it not to your opinion believe it to be a better make-up than Mr. Chaplin's? As for me, I am only a clothing-store salesman, but I expect to come to Los Angeles on or about June 1.

"When I go walking on the streets, most of the people think I am Charlie Chaplin, as many times that I have put on an act in the last two or three years I have all way made a hit in my own make-up.

"Now I am going to challance Mr. Chaplin for the funniest man on the screen."

Until Mr. Grossman makes good his threat, the comedy king apparently will be content with Judge Hudner's decision.

"We won," said Lloyd Wright, attorney for Chaplin, yesterday.

"We won," echoed Isador Morris and Ben Goldman, counsel for Amador, making it unanimous.

Lawyers, it appears, often interpret decisions to their own liking, as preachers are said to interpret the Holy Writ.

Regardless of who won, the decision of Judge Hudner, which is said to "speak for itself," in part follows:

"The court will content itself with announcing its conclusion herein that plaintiff (Chaplin) i...

...OPTS OIL CITY PORT PLAN

...Beach Council Acts on Harbor Development ...th Changes Ordered by Federal Engineers

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, May 19.—The City Council today formally adopted ... plans for Long Beach 's $3,500,000 outer harbor development. Action followed reports by the City Clerk that the minor ... ordered by Federal engineers had been completed and that the ... Long Beach Harbor Commission had approved the plans.

Visitors to the Council chamber in the City Hall today thought for a moment that the municipality had been taken over by the Reds. Grouped around the Council table were several members of the City Hall Red Necktie Club. Among them were Mayor Ray Clark, Councilmen Alexander Beck and Charles H. Tucker, City Attorney Mason and G. L. Buck, chief clerk to the City Manager. All wore neckwear of brilliant red hue.

"It's not politics, but fashion," said Mayor Clark, explaining the red decorations. City Clerk Waughop, at the close of the meeting, stepped out to a haberdasher's shop and purchased that which entitles him to membership.

SANTA FE ASKED FOR SHOWDOWN

State Body Wants to Know Port Entry Plans

Aim to Make Grade Crossing Permanent Feared

Hearing Continued to June 11 After Ultimatum

A demand for a virtual showdown of what plans the Santa Fe has in mind to effect a permanent entry to the Harbor District by taking advantage of a temporary route it is permitted to use, was issued yesterday by State Railroad Commissioner Shore. The ultimatum of the State official came at the conclusion of a day's hearing at which the greater harbor committee of two hundred presented an application asking the commission to annul its order which gives the Santa Fe temporary use of a connection with the municipal belt line railway.

A. K. Etter, general manager of the Santa Fe, took the stand late in the day and frankly told the commission that unless the railroad is permitted to use this temporary route, its entry to the Harbor District never will be effected. He declared the railroad will not consent to use the Dominguez Gateway, which has been planned as unified entry for all rail lines, until the other railroads enter by the route. Up to the present time the Union Pacific is the only one to take advantage of this plan.

HEARING CONTINUED

Last June the Railroad Commission granted the Santa Fe two years' use of a crossing over Anaheim Road by way of McFarland avenue as entryway to the Harbor District. At the expiration of this time the rails were to be torn up and other plans made by the railroad.

Commissioner Shore's statement to company officials yesterday was directed at what plan the railroad has for the future. He asked for a showdown at the next hearing, called for June 11, when the Santa Fe will be asked whether it intends to respect the commission's order, or seek other means to make the temporary grade crossing permanent.

The greater harbor committee of two hundred took the view at the hearing that the Santa Fe has entered into a contract with the city which virtually assures the permanency of this temporary route. The contract was entered into a few weeks ago and the committee took immediate steps to thwart the move by asking the State body to annul its temporary order.

COLDEN TESTIFIES

In support of this position the committee put a number of witnesses on the stand.

Charles J. Colden, president of the Board of Harbor Commissioners, was called during the morning session. He said the board went on record Monday in favor of asking the State body to annul its temporary order. This was based on the fact, he said, that a year has elapsed and the Santa Fe has taken no action to reach the Harbor by the temporary route.

Under the contract between the city and the Santa Fe, an expenditure of $75,000 is necessary to complete the temporary route, but as less than a year remains if the commissioners' order is to be respected, the money would be worthlessly spent, he declared.

Besides this, Colden said, the Harbor Board has obligated itself to the extent of $70,000 to help pay for the Dominguez Gateway which, in his estimation, is the most logical route for the Santa Fe to reach the Harbar.

Other witnesses called by the committee of two hundred were Robert Allan, City Councilman; Maynard McFie of the committee of two hundred; Franklin D. Howell, president of the Municipal League, and C. E. Gordon, Long Beach Harbor Commissioner.

Pending the hearing of June 11, the Santa Fe stipulated that no steps will be taken to rush the temporary route to completion.

COFFEE QUEEN IS VISITOR

Senora Ruano of San Salvador and Niece Stop in Los Angeles; Plan Trip to Europe

Reminiscent of the spacious and romantic days when Spanish dons ruled nearly all that was ruled in the western world, Rosario Ruano, coffee queen of San Salvador, maintains an establishment where all the ancient Castilian glamour still prevails.

Accompanied by her niece, Miss Rosita Thibault, Senora Ruano arrived at the Biltmore yesterday for a brief visit before resuming her journey, the final destination of the travelers being Europe, where they will spend several months in touring the continent.

Senora Ruano is the owner of the largest estate in San Salvador, located near the capital, which bears the same name as the country. There she reigns like a queen over a vast domain, embracing hundreds of thousands of acres of fertile lands. She employs between 4000 and 5000 men on her plantations, where she grows coffee, sugar and cotton.

She stated that while her coffee plantation is one of the largest in Central America, she is at this time giving more attention to the development of cotton, which is becoming one of the leading products of San Salvador. She manages the entire estate herself with the assistance of her son, who is in partnership with his mother.

The home of this plantation queen is a magnificent hacienda conducted along lines that were established by the old Spanish grandees who first established themselves in that part of America. A few modern features have been added to the ancient mode of life, however, including bobbed hair. Miss Thibault, for instance, who makes her home with her aunt, exhibited a head of abbreviated tresses of the most flapperesque type. "Fiesta gatherings at the hacienda today differ very little from those of bygone days except in the one feature of the bobbed hair worn by nearly all the women," she said.

BUILDERS MEET TONIGHT

A special meeting of the South Main-street Builders and Business Men's Association will be held tonight at the headquarters on Main street to formulate plans for the proposed all-southwest celebration of the completion of the southwest storm drain. The organization originated the plan for the celebration and asked the aid of other southwest civic organizations. The plan of the association, as outlined at a previous meeting, is to have a barbecue dinner in the storm drain at its outlet.

WAIFS' HOME CELEBRATES

Fifth Birthday is Observed at Castelar Creche, Founded by Mrs. M. J. Connell

One of the most interesting philanthropies in the city is the Castelar Creche at 818 Castelar street, established five years ago by the late Mrs. Michael J. Connell for the homeless little waifs who otherwise would be neglected and undernourished and drag out a pitiful existence instead of being the living examples of the slogan of the Creche, "Healthy, Happy Babies," which celebrated its fifth birthday anniversary yesterday.

These little waifs, many of them the children of working girls, are taken at the time of their birth and kept until 1 year of age, the mothers giving what they can afford for their maintenance, however little that may be.

There is room for only twenty-five kiddies, who must first go through a medical examination, so as not to bring any contagion into the Creche, and there is always a long waiting list.

NURSES IN CHARGE

The superintendent, Miss Mary Pickrell, is a graduate nurse of St. Luke's in Chicago and with her assistant, Miss Amy Hunter, is always at hand to give advice and succor to the mothers of the neighborhood, as well as fresh milk, which is always provided by Mr. Connell, if there are no funds otherwise to take care of it.

Creed, color or sect have no ruling out at Castelar Creche and many are the families which have been reunited and made happy by aid of the social-service work done by the Creche workers. The neighborhood also is much improved since the establishment of the home there, cottages being repainted and window glass replaced, the front steps repaired and many other necessary things done to keep up to the standard set by the clean white building with its grass plot and spotless windows, doorsteps, sidewalk and front yard.

Inside there are spacious cool white rooms, with two airy nurseries and an observation nursery, the white-enameled beds bearing a blue plate with the name of the donor of the bed.

Every day each child is wheeled out into the spacious patio and yard and the work is being carried on by the many friends of the late Mrs. Connell, whose interest in little friendless undernourished babes was one of the great motives of her busy life.

TABLET TO FOUNDER

Each year a tiny bag is sent out to the friends of the Creche, and its official family, with the request to mail back as many pennies as one is years old, and strange to say, nearly everyone acknowledges to be 50 or 100 years of age.

A beautiful old bronze tablet to the memory of Mrs. Connell has recently been placed in the reception room, found in Italy by two of her warmest friends, Mrs. Eugene O. McLaughlin and Mrs. Secondo Guasti.

The officers of the Creche include Mrs. Granville MacGowan, president; Mrs. Daniel Murphy, first vice-president; Mrs. Godfrey Holterhoff, second vice-president; Mrs. Hugh Stewart, secretary; Mrs. Harold Brent Wrenn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Calhoun Drake, treasurer; Edward D. Lyman, legal adviser, and Gurney Newlin, auditor. The board of directors includes: Mr. Allan C. Balch, Dr. Ernest A. Bryant, Mrs. Gardner Bullis, Mrs. Leo Chandler, Mrs. Albert L. Cheney, Mr. William A. Clark, Jr., Mr. George I. Cochran, Mr. Louis Cole, Mrs. Edward L. Doheny, Mrs. James Calhoun Drake, Mrs. Frederick Flint, Mrs. Jackson A. Graves, Mrs. Secondo Guasti, Mrs. Maurice Hellman, Mrs. W. Rhodes Hervey, Mrs. Godfrey Holterhoff, Mrs. William S. Hook,

MYRIAD LIGHTS IN FILM PARADE

Thirty Million Candle Power to Illumine Line

Fete Planned for Shriners Unique to City

Twelve Divisions to March With Glowing Floats

Thirty million candlepower will be generated to illuminate the million-dollar motion-picture electrical parade and pageant, on the night of Thursday, June 4, in Shrine week, for the visiting Nobles of the order and the host of visitors who will accompany them. "Nothing comparable in parades ever has been attempted and nowhere else would it be possible.

From end to end the long line of floats and marching units, gorgeously costumed, will sparkle with incandescent energy which mobile units of the parade itself will generate. In no other city of the world could be assembled sufficient portable, gasoline-driven generator sets to make such a brilliant spectacle. There are twelve divisions of the pageant and each will supply its own illuminating current. Universal Film Company and the William Fox Studio will carry three generator sets each. Others are distributed to make up a total of twenty-one.

The result will be such a profusion of blazing, pulsing color as never before filed down a line of march. Each set will be connected by concealed flexible cables, with the illuminated floats and pedestrian units of its division. Al Malaikah band, marching in the first division, will be flooded with multi-colored radiance from one set in the middle of the division and Sheriff Traeger, following with Al Malaikah patrol, 200 strong, will seem lost in a thicket of swaying roses. Every member of the patrol will carry a huge California rose, glowing with electricity supplied by a second unit that will bring up the rear of the division.

UNITS AND ROUTE

The parade has been organized under the personal supervision of Director-General Motley H. Flint, in charge of the conclave, with Joseph M. Schenck acting as his grand marshal. First in the order of formation will be six illuminated motor cars, carrying Grand Marshal Schenck and his aides, the director-general and the new Imperial Potentate, the electrical engineers in charge and the Queen of the imperial session, Miss Irene Rich.

Then comes the Al Malaikah division, leading the parade proper, followed by a division made up of entries by the Pickford-Fairbanks, F.B.O. and West Coast Theaters organizations. Succeeding divisions are composed exclusively of units from participating studios. Al Malaikah Temple and Moslem Temple of Detroit in the the fourth division are the only Shrines represented. The others, comfortably seated in the Coliseum, will watch at leisure.

After the parade has circled the Coliseum, a huge pyramid of flowers, built up in the center of the field from the glowing roses carried by Al Malaikah Patrol in the first division, will be lighted, and the comedy of the evening will begin. A motion-picture company on location will take the field, under the personal direction of Noble Fred Niblo, and a desert scene will be enacted and photographed, showing how motion pictures actually are made in the open. Portable equipment never before seen by the public will be operated.

STARS WILL APPEAR

Stars of the first magnitude, appearing through the courtesy of their studios, will form the cast, each to be introduced from the field after his or her appearance. Both the parade and the entertainment were made possible only by the co-operation of motion-picture studios and producers, the Electrical Illuminating Engineers' Society, the American Society of Cinematographers, the Motion-Picture Directors' Association, the Assistant Directors' Association, the Wampas and all companies doing business with the studios. Each division has two marshals of its own from the studios composing it. Harry D. Brown and Frank N. Murphy are the electrical engineers responsible for technical detail, and associated with them is L. L. Ostrow as business representative and organizer.

The parade will form on Figueroa street at Washington and thence will move south on Figueroa to Vermont, south on Vermont to Santa Barbara, east on Santa

by Harry Carr

JUDGE SUMMERFIELD doubtless followed the strict letter of the law when he granted this divorce.

But all I can say is that the gentleman named Winslow is a singularly patient and long-suffering man. According to the testimony all he did when his wife refused to help him find a lost collar button was to take an ax or something and break down the doors of the house.

Many men of less self-control would have indulged in real violence when refused help in such agony. A gentleman reaching under a bureau for a collar button is not one to be tampered with; or to be refused help when he yells for it.

By the regulations of the sea heavy penalties attach to the ship which refuses to answer an SOS signal. Some such protection should be thrown about men with lost collar buttons.

SHAKING KINGS' HANDS

There is a serious side to the incident of the genial Iowa tourist who insisted upon shaking hands with the King of England.

The dispatches state that an Englishman was thereby encouraged yesterday to dash up and offer his right mit to His Majesty. After a moment's hesitation the King handed him the fingers of a limp hand.

All there is to kingship in Great Britain is prestige. The King has no power and no real official functions. All he is there for is to cheer at. He holds the job of permanent hero.

The minute you begin to "old fellow" a figurehead, you dangerously weaken the whole idea.

HINDENBURG'S BOOK

The most interesting book I have read for a long time is Gen. Von Hindenburg's biography, "Out of My Life."

There is something simple and touching in his naive creed; in his unquestioning faith in "Our Lord God," and in the German royal family . . . who, he seemed to think, were especially ordained to send soldiers out to die for this and that.

Until this book was written I think that no one had realized the ghastly peril of the German Empire in the first two months of the World War when the Russians had a chance to rip through East Prussia and charge through to Berlin. Even Von Hindenburg is unable to account for their failure to do so. Without any military reason they hesitated and ran away.

HIGH-SMELLING BOOKS

The plan of the Federal officials to burn risque magazines is well enough, but what about the books?

As a general thing these wicked magazines are limited in their sin to imbecile smart cracks that can be read two ways. They suggest nothing except possible congenital weakness in the brain pans of the editors.

It must be confessed, however, that if the postoffice officials started burning the off-color books, the conflagration would look like a forest fire.

There are very few of the novels of the day that Ma can read aloud to the family without mumbling and coughing in many places.

Chief Heath Reports Difficulty in Finding Young Men For Force Training School; Class of 71 Drops to 25 as Men Fail to Report; Five Old Line Men Let Out

There was in one of Gilbert and Sullivan's comic operas as a mournful ditty sung by a policeman in which he bewailed the sad lot of an officer of the law, and that there may have been more truth than humor in this complaint was indicated yesterday when Police Chief Heath reported to the Board of Police Commissioners his sad experience in trying to secure new patrolmen.

Chief Heath reported that on the 1st inst. a total of seventy-one young men were sworn in as probationary patrolmen and sent to the police school for training. One by one, the Chief said, the recruits dropped out, until out of the seventy-one a total of forty-six had resigned.

And in addition to struggling to recruit efficient new men for the department, Chief Heath also has the executive's usual difficulties in keeping some of the older men on the straight and narrow path, for when a policeman falls by the wayside, morally speaking, off comes his bade. So the Chief yesterday reported to the commission that he had dismissed from the department Sergt. Wallace A. Garad, Patrolman Fred F. Schrage and Patrolman Joseph A. Ayres, as they had been indicted by the grand jury for alleged bribery and extortio. in connection with liquor law violators; that he had dismissed Patrolman John J. Casey for conduct unbecoming an officer, and had dropped from the force Patrolman Charles M. Bunjes, who was charged with staging wild drinking parties at his home.

ORANGE REALM SPIRIT AT KHJ

Valencia Show Offers Highly Original Program

Studio Artists to Pay Visit to Exhibit in Person

Prize Offered for Farthest Radio Listener

BY CLAIRE MELLONINO

The spirit of California reigned last night at KHJ. Laughter, song, heart-warming hospitality, both toward artist and listening guest, filled the studio, and penetrating every nook and corner of the spacious rooms was the scent of Valencia oranges whose round golden beauty was plied by the basketful ready to be eaten for the asking.

The program was presented through the courtesy of the California Valencia Orange Show, which will be held at Anaheim the 22nd inst. to June 1, next, and the delightful entertainment was arranged by Walter Biddick. The artists were Raymond and Ralph Cowley, in vocal duets; Lyric Quartet, Juanita Kelsey Ross, Elma Howell Swenker, Lela Gray Pemberton, Evelyn Dunham Knipe and Marion Field Wallace, accompanist; Fay Kern Schultz, reader; Frank R. Harden, known as "Cousin Oswald;" the Orange Blossom Trio, Neva Chilberg, violin; Mary Novis, 'cello; Lillian Ariel, piano; Uncle Remus; E. K. Barnes, celeste; Reginald Taylor, baritone; Queen Titania and her Sandman.

WILL VISIT SHOW

Queen Titania and her Sandman opened the program. The Fairy Queen brought from the country of the radio fairies a verse about the symbolism of the orange written for the occasion by her Minstrel Fairy. Both she and the Sandman promised to be on hand at Anaheim on the night of the 25th inst., when KHJ artists are to be present in person at the California Valencia Orange Show. The Sandman read to Radioland a verse entitled "The Sandman" which had been sent to him by Mother Trevor, beloved poet of KHJ.

This was a radio evening that all Californians thrilled to, for the orange industry is the backbone of the Southland. In 1870, A. B. Chapman grew the first Valencia orange in California in Fullerton, Orange county. There are now more than 79,000 acres planted to Valencia oranges in Southern California. More than 5,000,000 boxes of Valencia oranges are shipped yearly from Southern California to all parts of theworld, the retail value being more than $50,000,000.

PRIZES OFFERED

Our radio family were asked to send a telegram, card or letter stating what was liked best on our program last night. It is to be mailed to California Valencia Orange Show, in care of KHJ, The Times, Los Angeles. Two standard-sized boxes of Valencia oranges will be given away, one to the listener-in who is the greatest distance from Los Angeles, and the other to the listener-in whose name will be selected by Queen Titania from all the replies, regardless of distance.

A genuine feature of the evening's entertainment was the Woman's Vocal Quartet. They came to us from Anaheim and do more than merely bear the title professional. Each voice has solo possibilities but in the quartet there is intelligent blending of both individual personality and vocal equipment. This results in an ensemble that can be used freely for fine interpretive work, and in such numbers as "The Barcarolle" from Tales of Hoffman, and "I'm A'Longing for You," achieved splendid results.

This was also the occasion of the KHJ debut of Frank B. Harden, known as "Cousin Oswald." You probably gathered from the name that his professional nationality is Swedish and last evening Radioland rocked with laughter during his clever dialect readings.

The entire program was refreshingly original in character and appeal. Uncle Remus was his usual jolly self and the Orange Blossom Trio breathed of romance. E. K. Barnes, our assistant announcer, is also the only perfect celeste player that I know of. He handles the little instrument so adroitly that the beauty of its silver strings is kept clear and free from roughness.

We must mention also the nice balance and fine diction of the vocal duets of Raymond and Ralph Cowley, while the readings of Fay Kern Schultz added a charming dash of color to the occasion.

The noontime program presented Major and his Forum Ballroom Orchestra from the Forum Theater, F. J. Major, leader. Karl Brandenberg, whose tenor voice is always a delight, sang, in honor of the Carrie Jacobs Bond week, a group of her songs. He appeared through the courtesy of the Tait's box lunch service.

The Pacific States Electric Company matinee presented Les Roscoe, jazz pianist, the Rag Man of KHJ—Arthur Raymond Hill, tenor; Nikolas Ocki Albi, 'cellist, and Frederick Lloyd, banjo-baritone.

The children's program presented Prof. Walter Sylvester Hertzog in his daily story of American history, Floryane Thompson, soprano, accompanied by Grace Eaton Dow, and dear Charles Leslie Hill, 4-year-old reader, who, I am sure, is always eagerly awaited.

TO DREAM CASTLE

Shortly after the Children's Hour opened last evening the sound of the Sandman's whistle was heard. Queen Titania did not appear with the Sandman and this somewhat surprised Uncle John, until he remembered that the Fairy Queen had promised to take Radioland through the Dream Rooms in her Castle o' Dreams. He then realized that she was waiting for them in Fairyland, and, closing his eyes, upon the Sandman's request, he quickly found this to be true, for when he opened them again, he was standing beside the Fairy Queen in the Hall of Harmony.

Accompanying the Radio Fairies, Uncle John and Radioland were taken through the Curtain of Drowsiness into the Realm of Sleep. Here they passed through the Room of Baby Dreams, the Room of Childhood Dreams, the Room of Youth's Dreams, the Room of Adult Dreams and finally through Memory Dream Room, where the dreams of older people were seen. In all of these rooms the dreams were seen to be good and fine and Uncle John asked Queen Titania about the dreams which on earth are called nightmares. She explained that these dreams had no place in the Fairyland of Love, but took him into another room, where, on a screen, she showed that these bad dreams were all caused by a beast named Guilty Conscience.

One of the most interesting Dream Rooms was the Room of Childhood Dreams, where everything was found to be made of candy; the houses, animals, dolls and even the fish in the soda-water brook. All the trees had fruit which proved to be ice-cream cones.

Returning to the studio, our Radio Faries bade good night to Uncle John and Radioland after promising another trip next Tuesday evening.

At 7:30 Fred L. Goddard gave one of his interesting talks on Hawaii.

At 7:45 we listened to another charming talk in the series given through the courtesy of the Santa Fe Railroad. This was read by Prof. Hertzog.

BEAUTY SCHOOL IS HIT

Students Tell Labor Deputy Beach Concern Promised Positions

Complaints that the Hamilton School of Beauty Culture at 1234 American avenue, Long Beach, is promising students employment in violation of the trade-school law, were heard yesterday here by the State Department of Labor.

Nearly a score of girl students appeared before Deputy Labor Commissioner Lowy and testified that the school has advertised as well as promised positions. They said the school does not hold a trade-school license. Tuition varied from $40 to $85 for the course, the girls said.

Mrs. William Hamilton Brown is named as principal of the school and Miss Corey Mickey, manager. Deputy Lowy continued the hearing to the 26th inst., for further testimony.

TWO HOLD UP GARAGE MAN AT PISTOL POINT

Robbers put in a few minutes pretending to buy a tire till Edgar Mills opened the cash drawer in a garage at 4021 Pasadena avenue, Monday night, then produced revolvers and compelled him to hand over $19.50, he reported yesterday to the police. The robbers, Mills said, made him walk with them to the spot where their car was parked, then drove away and left him. J. D. Fowler, 1321 East Forty-eighth street, reported he had been robbed of $35 by two negroes in an automobile at Forty-eighth street and Hooper avenue.

KID BOOZE WINS

Herrera, Once Star of Ring, Takes Count in Court

"Kid Booze is one fighter who cannot be whipped as long as you fight him."

Aurelio Herrera, known a score of years ago as one of the gamest lightweights, who ever donned the gloves, with a record of close battles with Bat Nelson, Abe Attell, Eddie Hanlon and other topnotchers, admitted defeat yesterday in Police Judge Pope's court.

Charged with being a habitual drunkard, the former scrapper, now 49 years of age, a gray, wrinkled shell of his former self, asked for a chance to climb on the water wagon for good.

Judge Pope gave him a 120-day jail sentence, which was suspended on condition that the ex-boxer goes to his family in Ventura county at once.

"You fought and whipped the best of them in your day," Judge Pope said, "leave booze alone and you will win in this fight, too."

entitled to injunction forbidding the use of the name Charlie Aplin by the defendant or other imitation by him or associated defendants whereby the public would be likely to be deceived into believing films or screens acted and offered by the defendants were those of the plaintiff, leaving it to be determined by themselves what constitute such imitation, advertising and deception, and to the court, thereafter, on contempt proceedings, to determine whether acts, charged and committed, constituted violation of the terms of the injunction.

CONSCIENCE TO GUIDE

During the trial Chaplin's counsel sought to show that Amador, backed by the Western Feature Productions Company, had planned a systematic piracy of the character of the wistful, comical wanderer that Chaplin asserts is a character he created as a "satire on all mankind."

Amador's counsel countered with assertions that Chaplin's work was but a hodge-podge of stage "business," and that the characteristic costume, after all, was nothing but an oversized pair of pants, a garish vest, a dented derby, ash can shoes, and a lithe cane, which everyone has access to and a right to wear.

Observers summed up the decision as meaning that Judge Hudner said to Amador "Let your conscience be your guide," and "Hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

GUERARD WILL SPEAK ON POST-WAR FRANCE

"France Since the War" is the topic of an address which will be delivered by Prof. Albert Leon Guerard of the University of California, Southern Branch, tomorrow night at the City Club, at the monthly dinner of the Southern California Council on International Relations. Dr. Ernest C. Moore, director of the Southern Branch, will preside, and several members of the French colony will be present. Prof. Guerard is an author and professor of French at the Southern Branch. Reservations may be made by telephoning the City Club.

AUTHOR OF "THE TIDE" VISITS FRIEND HERE

Mildred Cram, well-known eastern novelist and short-story writer, whose latest novel, "The Tide," has attracted much literary attention during the year, is visiting in Los Angeles as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Barber at their Highland-avenue home in Hollywood. Miss Cram also holds the distinction of having one of her short stories listed among the ten best of the year. Mrs. Barber (Dorothy Farnum) and Miss Cram were struggling writers together in New York before the former achieved note as a scenarist and the latter as an author.

HOLD-UP TRIAL CONTINUES

The trial of Mark Gorfrey and Russell Smith, on trial on robbery charges in Judge Reeve's court, continued yesterday with the hearing of several prosecution witnesses. It is charged they robbed a Pacific Electric train in October, 1923. The case will continue today with Dep. Dist.-Atty. Orme prosecuting. James Hovermale was convicted of the same robbery and is now in San Quentin. So is Sidney Wood, but Dist.-Atty. Keyes declared he was convicted wrongfully and has asked the Governor to pardon him.

FISH STORY WINS WIFE DECREE

Woman Tells Court How Husband Used Green-Eyed Live Lobster as Alarm Clock to Rout Her and Girl Guest Out of Bed as They Sought Beauty Snooze

"Dismaying for the girls, and virtually fatal for the lobsters" was the method selected by Josiah Victor Harmon to rouse his wife and her guest out of bed, Judge Gates commented yesterday, after hearing the affair described by Mrs. Elsie Gertrude Harmon in her suit for divorce.

"I never was so horrified in my life," Mrs. Harmon summed up her reaction to the proceedings.

It was early one morning—"altogether too early for me to get up," according to Mrs. Harmon. But Harmon thought it was just about the right time for his wife to be stirring.

"Shake a leg there. Look lively," he shouted at the door of her bedchamber, she told the court.

"But I had a girl friend staying with me, and we were sleeping together. We did not want to get up, so we just stayed in bed," she related. "Mr. Harmon went on out, and we went to sleep again.

"A little later—I don't know just how long, but it seemed like only a second—and we awakened by something falling 'plop' on the bed. I looked down and screamed. For there staring me in the face out of fishy green eyes, was a great big, ugly lobster, waving his claws at me in a threatening manner. My friend looked, and she screamed, too. We both jumped out of bed and ran out, shivering with fright. I do not think I will ever really get over it."

"Well, Mrs. Harmon, I can give you a certain measure of relief in the premises by awarding you a divorce, which I hereby grant you," Judge Gates declared, after hearing this lurid tale. "But I do not see what I can do for the lobster thus injected an innocent and hapless third party into these proceedings. Let a decree be entered for plaintiff, and the court's condolences for the lobster."

TRADE MARK SUIT FILED

Tennessee Company Charges Illegal Use of Name by Local Firm

Suit charging infringement of trade-mark in equity yesterday was filed in Federal District Court by the Sullivan Corporation of Memphis, Tenn., against James A. McBride, doing business in Los Angeles as the McBride Company.

Illegal use of the trade name "Konset" is alleged. "Konset" is declared to be the name for a material used in the hardening of cement.

It is asserted in the complaint that on October 4, 1923, James A. McBride sold out his half of the business known as the Sullivan Corporation to F. Daly Sullivan.

An accounting of the profits gained by the McBride company and an injunction against using the name "Konset" is asked.

EX-DEPUTY SHERIFF FREE IN FRAUD CASE

Reopening the hearing after the defendant had been held for trial, Justice Russill yesterday dismissed a charge of obtaining money wrongfully against Arthur Loeb, former deputy sheriff. Dismissal was with the consent of the District Attorney's office and was at the request of defense attorneys, who declared the case properly belonged in Police Court. Loeb was charged with accepting $45 from Charles F. Mahler to "fix" a speed tag and keeping the money. Mahler made the charge against Loeb when he was arrested on a bench warrant f · failure to obey a traffic summ

WEALTHY EASTERNER HELD IN DESERTION

United States Commissioner Turney yesterday held Morris Sisselman, wealthy Washington (D. C.) merchant, for removal to the capital city on a charge of deserting his wife, Minnie Sisselman. The Sisselmans became estranged several months ago and the husband came to Los Angeles with his daughter. A deposition received from Mrs. Sisselman contained a denial of Sisselman's allegations that he had not left his wife unprovided for.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 19. Magdelene Ybarra a resident of Watts, has been placed under a bond of $500 in Judge Edward Miller's court, charged with a system of treating the sick and afflicted without having a valid certificate of license from the Board of State Medical Examiners. Her case is set for hearing the 27th inst.

OPEN WAR ON LABOR AGENCIES

Police Commissioners in Move to Check Abuses and Regulate Fee Practices

The Board of Police Commissioners declared war on those employment agencies, which Police Chief Heath told the commission were guilty of "sharp practices, excessive charges and other outrageous methods" of business. The Chief declared in his report to the commission that "workers seeking employment are imposed upon, burdened with debt, harassed personally and through the courts at the very time when they are struggling to survive their jobs, and that employers are likewise subjected to annoyance and imposition."

Commissioners Birnbaum and Foss went on record as sustaining the Chief's report which urged that steps be taken to provide by ordinance or any other method regulation of all private employment agencies in the city with strict requirements as to methods practiced and absolute limitation on fees charged.

As the first step to regulate the methods of the employment agencies, the commission declined to transfer the employment agency permit held by Anna M. Collins from 424 South Broadway to 541 South Broadway, and Chief Heath was instructed to prepare a citation calling her before the Police Commission to show cause why her present agency permit should not be revoked.

Local Woman Killed in Auto Mishap in East

Mrs. Benjamin G. Jones, 65 years of age, 442 West Avenue 56 Los Angeles, was instantly killed yesterday when her husband's automobile overturned on a sharp curve on the Chicago-Toledo Pike a mile south of Kendallville, Ind. Mr. Jones escaped with a few cuts and bruises.

The couple left Los Angeles three weeks ago by motor for a six months' visit at Youngstown, O., their former home. Mr. Jones, who was driving the automobile, failed to negotiate an abrupt turn and the machine upset, pinning Mrs. Jones underneath. She was dead when taken from the wreckage. The body will be shipped to Youngstown for burial.

Mrs. Jones is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. May Williams, of 3223 Huron street, Los Angeles; two sons, Donald and Eugene Jones, and one grandson, Danald William, all of Los Angeles. Mr. Jones is a retired steelworker, formerly in the employ of the Carnegie steel mills at Youngstown. He and Mrs. Jones came to Los Angeles nearly four years ago.

Mrs. Williams with her son and two brothers left last night for Youngstown.

Examiner Hears Creamery Facts in Rate Dispute

Readjustment of freight rates for milk and cream for both long and short hauls is being considered by the Interstate Commerce Commission in connection with action started against the American Railway Express Company and interstate railroads by the Mutual Creamery Company, a national concern. A hearing on the proposed changes was called here yesterday by Examiner Jess Harriman of the commission and the case continued to Phoenix, Ariz., for hearing Friday.

The Mutual company is asking for lower long-haul rates and is agreeing to an increase in short-haul charges to compensate for the readjustment. Local creameries, however, are opposing this action, holding out for the present short-haul charges or lower ones if they can be secured.

Sitting with Examiner Harriman yesterday were Judge John C. Denny, of the Washington State Department of Public Works, and Amos A. Betts, president of the Arizona Corporation Commission. Previous hearings on the case have been held in Salt Lake City, Boise, Helena, Spokane, Seattle, Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. Andrade to Sell Realty as Maintenance Aid

Petition to sell three parcels of real estate said to be community property of Helen Louise Andrade and Albert Francis Andrade, reputed millionaire Mexican landowner, was granted yesterday by Judge Shaw of Superior Court. The court also gave authority to Willard L. Goodwin, receiver pendente lite, to sell household effects located on the property.

The petition was filed by Mrs. Andrade in connection with her separate-maintenance suit against her husband, who is asserted now to be in Mexico. Mrs. Andrade asserted she is in stringent circumstances.

In her divorce complaint, Mrs. Andrade named Miss Sammie Harris, Judith Lane Lavender and Margaret Plato. Mrs. Andrade was represented by Attorneys Newby & Palmer.

CONDITION OF STREETS TO BE MEETING TOPIC

Plans for the inauguration of policies which will prevent unsafe places being left in city streets after excavation work has been completed, will be the chief topic for discussion at a joint meeting of the committee on public safety of the Downtown Business Men's Association and a committee from the Associated General Contractors of this city, to be held at 3 p.m., tomorrow, in the offices of the Downtown Business Men's Association.

INDORSES JAMES FOR ROSS POST

County Committee Urges State's Claim to Place on Circuit Court Bench

Judge William P. James of the United States District Court was today indorsed by the executive committee of the Los Angeles County Central Committee for the vacancy on the Federal circuit bench caused by the resignation of Judge Erskine M. Ross. Judge James formerly served in the Superior as well as the Appellate Court of California. The Ninth Circuit Court comprises the seven western slope States, and it was pointed out to the committee that California has a greater population and a larger Republican vote than all of the other States in the circuit combined.

In the event Judge James receives the appointment the committee indorsed Superior Court Judge Charles S. Crail of Los Angeles for appointment to the United States District Court.

The committee was practically unanimous in stressing the importance of distributing patronge throughout the Southern California district, centering in Los Angeles, but it was brought out that the outlying sections have received recognition in the recent appointments of S. W. McNabb of San Bernardino as United States Attorney and of E. J. Henning of San Diego as Judge of the Federal District Court.

Converted Navy Boat Scorched From Backfire

A fire, starting from backfire of her port engine, on the converted subchaser Swallow yesterday at Los Angeles Harbor resulted in D. Lindsey, engineer, receiving slight burns on his hands. The blaze was extinguished by the harbor fireboat with damage estimated at less than $300. On board at the time were the owner, R. McAlister, 1735 Cherokee avenue, and C. Ali.

The fire was watched from the dock by members of the Marion Mack Production Company, which is using the craft in a rum-running motion picture.

KEITH LORD MARRIES

Associate of Bay City Jazz Girl Matricide Weds Dancer

Keith Lord, associate of Dorothy ("Dot") Ellingson, the jazz girl matricide of San Francisco, was married yesterday at Santa Ana to Margory Lunn, 21 years of age, a professional dancer of Venice.

The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Mofett Rhodes, pastor of the Spurgeon Memorial Church of Santa Ana. Lord gave his occupation as musician and his age as 21 years. Lord was charged with contributing to the delinquency of the Ellingson girl, but this charge was later dismissed.

CROSS-WORD WIRELESS
Recently a cross-word puzzle was sent by wireless. But there will be a lot of cross words going back by mail and phone if this thing is to be kept up.

A PRINCE OF RHYMERS
With the Prince of Wales writing poetry there is hint that the new regime will do its own laureating. Some poor bard will lose the advertising.

REAL ACROBATICS
Joseph Caillaux is declared to have a stupendous task in balancing the French national budget. A performer must needs be a mighty good head and hand balancer to perform this miracle.

RUINS A FASHION
Hairdressers are sorry that the Queen of the Belgians has shingled her hair. The Queen has thus given the crowning triumph to shingling, which infers that the fashion has reached its apex and now something else must be found. Today it is a battle between hair and hats. The big hat is coming back and, as it cannot be comfortably worn on shingled heads, women may have to let their hair grow again to keep in style.

THE SMUGGLERS
According to government officials, there are about 400 vessels of all kinds—alien and domestic—now engaged in the outlaw trade in liquor. But our Coast Guard and other forces of suppression meet this piratical armada with 340 boats—ranging from armored cruisers to patrol craft. The figures are here for a naval battle that would make Salamis resemble a kissing game, but most of the embroilments are skirmishes or races. There are occasional exchanges of shots, but in the main the engagements are merely the efforts of the smugglers to dodge armed espionage under cover of the night. The government feels that it has the rum-runners on the run. They are still running.

REACHING THE FARMERS
The new Secretary of Agriculture is going to use the radio to reach the farmers. A hundred or more experts will broadcast information of value to those who till the land. There will be regular lectures upon subjects relating to the improvement of crops or increasing markets. Secretary Jardine has designated one of his former assistants at the Kansas Agricultural College to have charge of the extension of radio service for the farmers of the nation. In no better way can so many people be reached at so little expense and the possibilities of the service are extending every day. The radio will be a regular clearing-house for all the information that the department assembles. The idea is to take the government into the home.

CEASE FIRING
Uncle Sam's consular officers are said to have been instructed to discourage the sale of American arms and ammunition abroad. This is a change of front. There was a day when our consular agents and even our diplomatic representatives were considered as advance men for the Colts and Remingtons. If they are really going to turn down orders for cannon or cartridge it is an indication that ultimate disarmament is not wholly a dream. It had always been argued that fighting men and revolutionists would get guns and pistols somewhere and, therefore, we might as well sell them our own efficient weapons. It will be a great day for the world when they quit making guns and it will be speeded up when Uncle Sam ceases the solicitation of orders for them.

HAND TO MOUTH
There are many critics of the public motor camps as we have them today. The American Forestry Association is now officially opposed to free sites offered as an inducement for lingerers. What is recommended is a camp made sanitary and equipped with certain recognized comforts and conveniences. For these accommodations a charge should be made sufficient to pay for maintenance and interest on the investment. The free camps should be discouraged. There are too many penurious and irresponsible tourists. Somebody will get hold of a second-hand Ford and spend a season in idleness and vagabondage. He will go into one of these free camps and sponge on chance acquaintances for gasoline and provender. He will take advantage of such friendships as he is able to form for the purpose of borrowing money, clothes and repairs. Such travelers are a dead loss to any community they infest and they are to be found in any free camp. Even now there are thousands of battered cars on their way to California and those who occupy them will have to beg or borrow to complete the journey. On their arrival they merely glut the labor market to the extent of reducing wages, but without taking any of the jobs. The community could hardly be expected to get out a brass band to welcome such arrivals.

DODGING THE ISSUE
Mr. Coolidge writes a note to France regarding the refunding of the French war debts, and all the newspapers, with the exception of the Journal des Debats, raise a chorus of protest.

The peculiar tone of the comments on Mr. Coolidge's note is that they accuse the United States of working in the interests of Germany and of being used as a catspaw of Great Britain. They see in the pressure of a financial settlement an aim at dictation of all France's foreign policies rather than a reminder of an overdue account. It may be presumed, therefore, that it was not so much the note as Ambassador Houghton's remarks at the Pilgrims' dinner to which the French newspapers object.

The Liberte is particularly vitriolic when it asks:

. . . Do the Americans realize what they are doing in wantonly thrusting a knife in our throats? The natural tendency of a creditor state is to exert pressure politically. What the Anglo-Saxons refused to let us do to Germany they are preparing to do to us. . . .

They forget that the United States, and the Coolidge administration in particular, have no desire to treat the French otherwise than any other nation which ignores its financial obligations to this country. The principal aim of the government is emphatically stated to be a desire to revive international trade and credit on a more stable and normal basis and to increase business and commerce as a result of such a settlement.

The franc and the lira fluttering in the air between the scales without making up their mind to settle down on the credit or debit side of the balancing indicator naturally keep the whole world back in its resumption of a normal pace of progress. To call America Germanophile or Anglophile owing to the latest note is avoiding an issue which is not Teutonic, Anglo-Saxon or Latin, but just plain "bunk" expressed in the clearest international language known in the world. The franc and the lira will go up in value as soon as war debts are condensed into refreshing rain from the nebulous clouds which now leave the financial world in doubts whether they will evaporate or revive the parched fields of industry and credit.

It is, therefore, encouraging to see the Journal des Debats sounding a counternote of warning against French alarmists when it says: ". . . Our sacrifices were useless if it were not for the Allies, particularly the United States, who determined the victory. What a peculiar way of thanking the people who saved us by saying, 'We owe you nothing. It is we who saved you.' . . ."

With Great Britain coinciding with the United States on the stand which the Coolidge administration has taken the world has a chance to emerge from its post-war lethargy.

LAST OF THE INDIAN FIGHTERS
One by one they are falling like winter leaves—the men who made American history in the last half century of this amazing era.

Each one of them did his part and left behind his record. From the tree of patriotism, deep-rooted in the soil of their beloved country, they drew the sap of life and helped to fructify and swell its spreading branches.

Year after year, month after month the gaps grow wider in the ranks of those still earlier heroes, who, in the darkest days of '62 and '63, upheld the banner of the Union.

Of those hardy frontiersmen, blazing a trail across a continent for the feet of peaceful trade to follow, only a handful now remain. It was their task to clear the wilderness of its streaks of savagery that women and children might pass along unharmed, and they did that duty as commanded.

Still later another group of veterans claim their country's homage, sent forward by their government to break the savage grip of the butcher Weyler on the hapless Island of Cuba and carry democracy and a cleaner civilization across the broad Pacific.

And now one who belonged to all three groups of these wonderful Americans, perhaps the only leader to claim that grand distinction, has closed his aged eyes amid scenes of peace and plenty that he—and fighters like him—made possible for the present generation.

Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles is dead. Yesterday all that was mortal of him was laid to rest with military honors. Thank God he lived long enough to see the splendid consummation of his life work.

He lived to see the Union that in his gallant youth he defended on the bloody fields of Chancellorsville and Antietam cemented so strongly that the memory of that titanic struggle is now but one of admiration for the misguided devotion of the rebels who followed Lee and Stonewall Jackson no less than for the invincible patriots who fought with Grant and Hooker.

He lived to see his title as the greatest of Indian fighters justified by the fraternization of the conquered and the conqueror by the stilling of the feuds stirred by such irreconcilables as Geronimo, Chief Joseph, Sitting Bull, Crazy Horse and Natches, and the rights of citizenship at last conferred on the remnants of our first Americans.

He lived to see the West Indian Island, the pearl of the Antilles, free and prosperous and full of gratitude for the country that delivered it and one war really ended in a better understanding between the ancient and the modern nations that opposing ideals brought to grips.

Los Angeles has especial call to honor the memory of this national hero. For many years he made his headquarters here as commanding officer of the Army Department of California and Arizona. His name is still inscribed as a Mason in a Southern California lodge. He has relatives living today in Pasadena. In the early days of Santa Monica Gen. Miles was a prominent figure at the social gatherings in the old Arcadia Hotel.

So, at the next Memorial Day celebration, when all over the United States a tribute will be paid by admiring thousands to the grand old Indian fighter who yesterday was laid to rest, in that wreath the May blossoms of California will be twined with a richer sympathy and a more intimate significance as an offering to another departed pioneer in the mighty epic of the conquest of the West.

NO KNEE BREECHES
Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer by this sun of New York. Those of us who can't afford fancy golf suits or any other kind are all right in the opinion of Dr. Shaw, professor of philosophy at New York University. Knee trousers in fetching grays, as worn by modern male leaders of fashion, on the links or in the street, are, in Dr. Shaw's opinion, all wrong. "Those who appear in short breeches," he says, "tend to create the impression that they prefer an aristocratic, privileged form of government." Only by sticking to long "pants" can our democracy be preserved. Knickerbockers, which our betters would force upon us, cannot be worn with safety to the republic.

Dr. Shaw recalls that the war between long and short breeches was "one of the sharpest phases of the French revolution." Those men who don't care whether the ship of state sinks or floats may parade the streets in long hose and short "pants," but those who would see it sail on and on over the tranquil sea of destiny must see that their trousers extend well below the knee, though they needn't "break" over the instep.

When Oscar Wilde tried to get mankind into velvet knickerbockers he was laughed out of court and the word "esthetic" was brought into contempt. The present effort to revive the leg garments of olden times already are arousing the colyumists to action, and when a costume gets to be funny it is doomed.

Dr. Holmes, the sprightly New England versifier, poked a little fun at knickers in his "Last Leaf" and showed his devotion to pantaloons of respectable length in his "September Gale," a heartfelt lament over a pair of them that had been swept off the clothesline into abysmal space. One has but to note the high esteem in which full-length trousers are held by the poets to feel that there is much merit in the contention of Dr. Shaw that they, and not the abbreviated sort, should adorn the legs of the male representatives of our species. And, of course, any footnote Dr. Shaw might write in explanation of Carlyle's phrase, "a better day—a day when the worth of breeches will be revealed to man"—would interpret those breeches as trousers of a length meet for serious and worthy consideration.

But, of course, these reflections are of small import compared to that concerning the provocation to class warfare implied by the learned professor when he cites "one of the sharpest phases of the French revolution" as that of the contending trousers and knee breeches. In the interest of world peace we must uphold our democratic institutions and our long "pants."

A SENSIBLE MAN
President Coolidge warms the cockles of the American heart, not alone for the reason that he is determined to reduce taxes.

We admire him because he is serious and in earnest, because he is mentally and spiritually opposed to the government folderol principle of doing foolish things just to be talked about, with the taxpayer footing the bills. Mr. Coolidge's policies of tax reduction and economy are no more than fruits of that plain, direct and matter-of-fact manner of facing things for which the average American pines in a wilderness of political buncombe, as desert wanderers pine for an oasis. He is a sensible man. That is what commends him to us. We follow him because we are convinced that he thinks straight, sees straight, acts straight.

Foolish Washington Democrats have tried to throw obstacles in the way to which he adheres, the way in which Americans are determined to sustain him.

Calvin Coolidge has made common sense popular and good form. A very great many of us have long wanted to be sensible, but we lacked leadership. The chances are that many men now in public office feel freer to do what they felt all the time was the sensible thing.

Just About It
by James J. Montague

BE CONSIDERATE

A writer begs people to spare the rattlesnake because of the pleasure afforded to some people by watching his engaging ways.

If you should meet a rattlesnake,
Don't seize a club and scotch him,
But treat him kindly for the sake
Of those who love to watch him.
Although, indeed, no charms are his
Of manner, mind or feature,
Yet certain parties think he is
A most engaging creature.

He is not bound by any laws
That you and I can measure,
He bites his enemies because
It gives him simple pleasure.
And there are people, we are told,
Who gain much satisfaction
What time the reptile they behold
In fierce and deadly action.

If you should meet a rattlesnake
Upon the rolling prairie
Or by the margin of a lake
It's wiser to be wary,
But do not crush him 'neath your heel—
Have some consideration
For those who, when they see him, feel
A thrill of fascination.

Suppose he sinks his fangs in you
In a vindictive fashion,
As rattlesnakes will sometimes do
When in the heat of passion;
Bear with him, for the sake of those
To whom this fell employment
Will plunge in the delightful throes
Of genuine enjoyment.

IS CRIME TOO SAFE?
Walter B. Pitkin of the Columbia School of Journalism has arrived at the uncomfortable conclusion that crime in America is being made far too easy by our lax system of administering justice. To drive home his point he has published some rather startling figures. To 679 killings in New York, a year's supply, there was only one conviction for murder. For every 146 homicides in the whole country only sixty-nine indictments were recorded. Of the sixty-nine indicted only thirty-seven received prison sentences and only one was executed. The American Bar Association declares that a burglar has thirteen chances to one of escaping punishment in the city of New York. It says "attempted suicide, seduction, adultery, perjury are all crimes, but there are less than 500 persons in jail for these offenses." Yet every newspaper reader knows that these crimes are tragically abundant.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

It's natural for people to talk, but they must be taught silence.

Figures may not lie, but estimates have been known to mislead.

Up-to-date hairdressers have the newest kinks at their fingers' ends.

He who trusts everybody makes as big a mistake as he who trusts nobody.

If a man makes a fool of himself twice in the same way, his case is hopeless.

A young man naturally uses a choice expression when he asks a girl to become his wife.

"Evil is wrought by want of thought," says the poet. Very true, and much unhappiness comes from thoughts of want.

One thing may be said in favor of Mormonism: It doesn't throw the entire burden of supporting a husband upon one woman.

There is no harm in a man's being in advance of his age providing he has money enough to live on until his age catches up with him.—[Chicago News.

THE CRY OF THE BA

BY ELLANORE J. PARKER

The narrow street of the old French town hel together little houses. And, as they hugged the narrow saw through the windows into the rooms of the little the home life there, within.

And as two of the houses opened wide their windows, there on the narrow street, a medley of baby voices fell upon the ear; babies were crying and babies were laughing; babies were sitting in unchildish silence, and there in a corner two golden-haired infants were quarreling. And then above the tears and laughter of those baby voices a cry came, piercing the heart like a dagger, "I want my mother."

Behold a little house, its torn side showing the narrow bed, and showing, too, the lovely, dark head of a woman, young and of a marvelous beauty. Beside her lay a newborn child, still living, and on the floor a toddling child cried in despair, "I want my mother."

Shells burst in the air, all through the long night, and there the living children were alone, for their mother was dead.

Now came the tramp, tramp of soldier feet; now the gruff command to halt, and in the soft darkness men peeped into that little house of the living and the dead. Hands, so lately holding a bayonet, trembled in fear to touch the newly born. Tears fell from eyes grown used to suffering, for the wailing babies cried in vain for the fair young mother. A pause, then out stepped a young and fair-faced boy, "I am a doctor, give me the child." Again the tramp, tramp of feet as they carried the girl to her narrow bed. Then, with husky, roughened voices, they asked, "Where can we send the children?"

In the houses on the narrow street, there in that little French town, self is forgotten. All day long the little band of American women play mother. It is a heartbreaking part to play, a drama of untold misery. For, even with lips yet forming the words, they cry, the children of the women of the war, "I want my mother."

* * *

Night, folding her wings over the camp, hears the soft voices from the hospital tents; night, that covers and conceals so much; night, that by the dim rays of a lantern sees what the day concealed. The mask, worn so bravely, slips a little; tears are upon the white cheek of the nurse as she sees another slipping away. The hunger of homesickness lies on many sleeping faces, and from the fevered lips of a young soldier comes the cry, "I want my mother."

ARE YOU ALIVE?

By the Foothill Philosopher

Many of us are more than half asleep during our waking hours. We are living, but only half alive. We require an alarm clock or a baby to awaken us, a constantly-gnawing, though usually overfed stomach, to make us go to work and the presence or influence of the "boss" to keep us at our task.

When we pass a Main-street museum and hear a barker crying "It's alive!" we are always tempted to stop, because anything alive interests us. Our admiration of the animals of the instinctual world is chiefly inspired by their livingness. While an animal is alive he is "all there" to the extent of his physical and mental capacities. Man, with superior powers, is not one-tenth as responsive to environment as his brothers of a lower order of life's manifestations. If an animal could choose to live up to but half of its powers, it could not be ashamed of the fact. If man only half-lives he cannot be otherwise than ashamed. Walt Whitman said he could have gone and lived with the animals. That was sentiment, not truth. He could not have lived with them because he could not have lived like them.

Californians Are Loyal Boosters

Gosh, but those California folks are touchy about their old climate. Just ought to see the calling down we got from our old friend Oscar because we said they didn't have any variety out there. Among other things he said one could go bathing in the ocean, with water and air delightful and invigorating, and in less than two hours could be up in the mountains at Little or Big Bear lakes where there is good skating and plenty of snow. So we apologize, but we can show records where, in Michigan during the past month, we have had changes almost as great without moving out of our tracks.

However, perhaps it's only fair in passing that we give space for a delightful little "pome" effused by Leota Wheeler Keil, former Nashville girl, last Christmas time, so here goes. We want to be fair.

"Do We Miss the Snow at Christmas Time?"

No jingling of sleigh bells,
No snow and ice and sleet—
No mounting of the coal bills;
Also no frozen feet.
No rattling of the windows
By harsh nor'easter's blast—
In fact, not any winter
Where our happy lot is cast.
"Do we miss these things at Christmas?"
Do we miss a pain that's cured?
Do we wish again for troubles
That a long time we endured?
Hardly!—In this land of sunshine,
Land of flowers and odors sweet—
Land of everything that's perfect;
No extremes of cold and heat.
In this land there's nothing missing
That we'd have at any price—
Neither thunder storms in summer,
Nor in winter snow and ice.
These high favors we will gladly
Let some other folk enjoy—
As for us, this blessed sun-land
Is a heavenly place—Oh, boy!
—[Leota Wheeler Keil, from the Nashville News of Nashville, Mich.

headquarters and reporting his loss. He was not recognized and left with the assurance that the authorities would do all possible to recover his money.

But the suspect was left entirely without funds, according to the facts developed by police. He sent a telegram to a friend back in Youngstown requesting a temporary loan of $100 until he could obtain further funds.

The telegram gave Youngstown police and the Burns Detective Agency, which had also been employed in tracking down the former bank employee, their first real clew. They traced the telegram back to Schilling's local address.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Lieutenant Warn and Operative Renfro of the Burns agency repaired to Sixth and Spring streets and there found the long-sought suspect. The detective approached Schilling and greeted him by name.

"I'm from your home town, Youngstown," the detective remarked.

"Oh, yes," responded the suspect. "I remember you."

Then they exchanged cards. The face of the suspect blanched, according to the officer.

"Well, I'm glad it's all over," he remarked as he was led away to the City Jail pending further advices from the Ohio city.

Other evenings during the week and on Sunday afternoon the William T. Baker orchestra will play from the pontoon on the lake.

JURY IS TOLD OF "BUNKO"

Supervisor Woodley and Others Testify; Six Said to Have Lost from $1000 to $31,000

Secrets of the scheme which is said to have netted Harry D. Hibbs and Thomas Hennessy a sum estimated between half a million and a million dollars through their mythical "ten-for-one" railroad merger were told for the first time yesterday to the county grand jury by six of the asserted victims who lost amounts varying between $1000 and $31,000 in the asserted bunko plot engineered by the two so-called promoters.

The principal witness of the day was Supervisor F. E. Woodley, chairman of the County Finance Committee, and who dropped $31,000 in the asserted bunko venture. Supervisor Woodley had lost this amount in sums varying from $1000 to $5000, which he had paid in to the asserted $6,000,000,000 railroad merger," and which, according to the information obtained by the supervisor, was to pay a commission of $200,000,000.

WOODLEY TESTIFIES

Supervisor Woodley told of the various investments he had paid into the Hibbs & Hennessy combine and of the $5000 bonus which he received from the organization. This bonus according to information gathered by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hamner, was paid for "steering" other victims into depositing large sums of money with the "railroad mergers."

Other witnesses were E. F. Waite, who lost $1000; Harold Wright, who has been seeking to recover $15,500 since Hibbs and Hennessy were submitted to the rigid grand jury investigation of their operations; J. E. Ransford, local business man who "dropped" $2000 cash in the "merger;" J. B. Isham, who lost $1000, and F. C. Bohrl, a $5000 "loser."

While the grand jury was prying into the methods of "high finance" said to have been used by Hibbs and Hennessy, the two defendants appeared in Justice Russell's court yesterday morning for plea. They are at liberty on bonds of $75,000—$50,000 for Hennessy and $25,000 for Hibbs. Upon the request of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hamner, who is conducting the prosecution, and Defense Attorney Paul Schenck, the case was continued until the 28th inst.

PAIR ARRESTED

Hibbs and Hennessy were arrested several days ago by Investigators Reimer, Ramsey and Brain on three charges of grand larceny following the filing of complaints by several well-known business men, who declared they had been tricked out of sums estimated between $1000 and $30,000 through the fictitious operations of the two promoters. According to the complainants, the promoters had been collecting large sums of money through their brokerage office in the Lane Mortgage Building, where they contracted to pay $10 for every $1 contributed toward the execution of a merger of several western railroads.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

Billy Maxey, one of the Maxey Brothers late of the Orpheum, is the producer and is also an excellent dancer. His star comedian is the well-known minstrel, Ed Tolliver. Blanche Brown and Baby Rushing are giving a great exhibition of the Charleston dance, which is so popular now. Two male dancers try their best to outspeed the music. A black-and-tan chorus, nattily costumed, gives a demonstration of what high-speed dancing means. The company carries its own jazz band, which is owned by Spikes brothers, the colored composers and record makers. The show is featuring a number entitled "Roll Those Dice for Me." Each girl represents a dice, and the male cast stages a novel game of "galloping dominoes."

Elaborate preparations are being made for the debut in Miller's Cafe Lafayette on the 27th inst., of Peggy Prevost, sister of Marie Prevost, film star, and ballroom danseuse de luxe.

A Los Angeles girl, Peggy Prevost started her career as a custard pie target for Mack Sennett. Later she entered the serious drama as a leading woman for Charles Ray, and then turned to the polished floor as the scene of subsequent entertainment endeavors. She recently returned to Los Angeles from Manhattan triumphs, and after refusing many offers for her services was induced by Harry M. Miller to become the featured enterainer in the Lafayette.

Brandstatter's Hollywood Montmartre Cafe will celebrate Vincent Rose night tonight, in addition to the regular Bohemian night festivities, in honor of the popular leader and musicians of the Montmartre orchestra, who have just returned from a triumphant engagement at the fashionable Ritz Carlton Hotel in New York.

In addition to a big surprise vaudeville number, Brandstatter has secured Tilda Rohr, the famous Swiss yodeler, who created such a sensation at the New York Embassy Club, to entertain the cafe patrons this evening.

The unique scheme of naming each table after a different port has been instituted in the Ship Cafe on the Venice Pier by Ward McFadden, due to the confusion arising in identifying tables when patrons telephoned to reserve certain ones. For example, if a party desired to reserve a table at the stern of the ship he may ask for the anchorage privileges of Sebastopol, Shanghai or Port Arthur, for some designated date. McFadden is studying his son's geography in working out the proper appellations for the different sections of the restaurant.

Hubby Charges Mate's Parents With Alienation

Charging his parents-in-law with alienating the affections of his wife, Charles H. Haupt, Jr., yesterday filed suit for $50,000 damages against Edward S. Swan and Francese Swan, formerly of New York.

The wife in the case is Mrs. Etta Haupt, to whom the plaintiff said he was married in October, 1923. Haupt charged his wife's parents slandered and vilified him to his wife while the loatter was spending a week with the defendants in a New York hotel.

Haupt's complaint was prepared by Attorney Everett K. Ball.

Orphan Tries Death Plunge; Breaks His Leg

Joseph Perez, a 14-year-old orphan, homeless, penniless and friendless, jumped yesterday from the second story of the Tivoli Theater at Sawtelle in an apparent attempt at suicide, according to police report.

Suffering from a broken leg, he was given emergency treatment at the Sawtelle police station and sent to the General Hospital.

PROXIMO CLUB ADDRESS

Will G. Farrell will give an address on "An Afterthought" at noon tomorrow before the Proximo Club at the Westlake Park pavilion.

HISTORY OF SHOES TOLD TO AD CLUB

Illustrated Lecture Gives Progress of Footwear from Time of Ancient Egypt

"To successfully occupy the shoes of a great man is quite a feat and those who succed in doing so must have great souls. True success consists not only in being well heeled, but in having strong eyes, a straight tongue and a good understanding — for a poor foundation makes a shaky garret."

These bits of pholosophy were voiced by Carl A. Bundy in his illustrated address on "Mending Soles" given yesterday before the Advertising Club at the Biltmore. Attired in the cosume of an old cobbler, Mr. Bundy recited the history of shoes from the time of the ancient Egyptian sandal down to the present day, giving an interesting account of the sentiment and superstitions which have been connected with the manufacture and wearing of footgear from time immemorial.

Among other speakers were A. D. Smith, president of the club, Ray Nimmo, chairman of the day, and Ferris Miller, head of the Better Business Bureau. A musical program was given by Harold Proctor, accompanied by Miss Madelyn Hardy.

Donald K. Thomas, secretary of the club, announced that a Memorial Day program will be given next Tuesday at noon. The principal speakers will be Maj. Walter K. Tuller and William McElmeel, and the latter will repeat the oration, "The Constitution," that won for him the second prize in the National Oratorical Contest.

"The Slaughter of the Press Agent" is the subject of addresses to be given at the Round Table meeting at the City Club at noon on the 22nd inst., and among the speakers will be F. H. McMahon, Alma Whitaker, Marc Goodnow and Lieut.-Col. L. Sutphen.

RAILWAY TO AID STATE FETE YEAR

Chicago and Northwestern Road Assists in Boosting Travel to California

Advertisement of 1925 as California's Festival Year will receive notable co-operation from the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, according to a letter received yesterday by C. G. Milham, executive secretary of the All Year Club of Southern California, from Charles A. Cairns, passenger traffic manager of the railroad.

While California has enough attractions even in ordinary times to suit the widest range of desires, this additional touch of the glamour and color of the old Spanish days should be an important influence in causing thousands of people to go to California this year, the letter stated.

Included in the letter was a request of the All Year Club for several thousand leaflets advertising the Festival Year to be placed in letters sent by the railroad to the public regarding California fares and train service.

There is every indication that this is going to be a great year for California travel, the letter added.

Ruling Today on Floyd Appeal in Fine Theft Case

The appeal of Alva H. Floyd, former City Recorder at Culver City, for a new trial from his recent conviction on thirteen counts of embezzlement and mutilation and falsification of public records, was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Crail of the Superior Court. Briefs were submitted in the case yesterday afternoon and Judge Crail is expected to deliver his decision on the appeal today.

Floyd, in his capacity of Recorder, was known as the nemesis of speeders and traffic violators. But he diverted the excessive fines he imposed to his own uses and sought to cover up his peculations by destroying the public records, according to the charge made against him.

Sandberg Faces New Charge as Robber Suspect

Sam Sandberg, asserted professional gunman, who was held to answer yesterday with Charles Wagner on robbery charges, was charged with another hold-up yesterday in a complaint issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ryan.

This time the bandit suspect was accused of participation in the hold-up and robbery of George A. Russell, manager of the Hollywood Theaters, Inc., of $900 in cash and checks the night of December 15, last. Russell identified Sandberg yesterday out of a group of ten prisoners.

Sandberg and Wagner, police declare, are the men who held up and robbed two employees of the Julian Petroleum Company of more than $10,000 in cash, checks and bonds recently. They are awaiting trial in Superior Court on this charge.

PANAMA CLUB TO MEET

Panama Canal Zone Club will hold its next monthly meeting at Taft Hall, Walker Theater, 730 South Grand avenue, —tomorrow evening. There will be a dance and card party. Arrangements will be made for the annual picnic next month at Sycamore Grove., The officers of the club are: President, Dr. H. G. Hambleton; vice-president, Miss Mary O. Gorman; secretaries, Francis Joseph Norton and G. M. Dehn; treasurer, Mrs. F. S. Watkins; directors, Mrs. K. E. Indersoll, Mrs. T. F. Stocchini, Mr. E. M. Ploessel, H. A. Miller and O. Olson.

MAYO'S WIFE ASKS DECREE BE SET ASIDE

Former Wife of Film Actor Says 1921 Divorce Suit Was Defaulted by Error

Petition to set aside an interlocutory decree of divorce granted Frank Mayo, screen actor, from Joyce Eleanor Mayo in 1921 was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Shaw of Superior Court.

The motion was made by attorneys for Mrs. Mayo, who asked that the decree be vacated on the ground that her default was entered by mistake and that she had a meritorious defense to the complaint of her husband.

The case was tried before Judge Toland, who, in granting a decree to Mayo, also set aside part of a property settlement Mayo entered into with his wife agreeing to pay her alimony of $150 a week. Mrs. Mayo now has pending in Superior Court a suit to force her former husband to comply with the terms of the agreement.

Mayo asserted in his answer to this suit that he was induced to enter the settlement on the belief that Mrs. Mayo was a woman of good moral character. Later he learned, he said, that she had been carrying on a clandestine relationship with a man named James Anderson.

JEWISH SOCIETY WILL GIVE MUSIC SERIES

Neginah, a society for Jewish art, will present a musical series at the Gamut Club the evening of Sunday, the 24th inst. The program will include Mme. Feigel Panitz, in Jewish folk songs, Prof. Paul Lamkoff, musical director of Temple Emanuel, Wilshire, who will direct a double quartet, especially trained for the occasion, and an old-time Jewish jazz band, or Kapella in historic wedding and other music.

BARBECUE PLANNED AS ST. PAUL BENEFIT

A typical Spanish barbecue will be given on the school grounds of St. Paul's parish, Washington street and Bronson avenue, next Sunday. The proceeds will go to the parish for maintaining the school. Senor Romero, peer of the Southland's barbecue artists, will prepare the food. A grand prize will be awarded to a ticket-holder and prizes also will be awarded winners of the various games and contests.

JURY IS TOLD OF "BUNKO"

Supervisor Woodley and Others Testify; Six Said to Have Lost from $1000 to $31,000

Secrets of the scheme which is said to have netted Harry D. Hibbs and Thomas Hennessy a sum estimated between half a million and a million dollars through their mythical "ten-for-one" railroad merger were told for the first time yesterday to the county grand jury by six of the asserted victims who lost amounts varying between $1000 and $31,000 in the asserted bunko plot engineered by the two so-called promoters.

The principal witness of the day was Supervisor F. E. Woodley, chairman of the County Finance Committee, and who dropped $31,000 in the asserted bunko venture. Supervisor Woodley had lost this amount in sums varying from $1000 to $5000, which he had paid in to the asserted $6,000,000,000 railroad merger," and which, according to the information obtained by the supervisor, was to pay a commission of $200,000,000.

WOODLEY TESTIFIES

Supervisor Woodley told of the various investments he had paid into the Hibbs & Hennessy combine and of the $5000 bonus which he received from the organization. This bonus according to information gathered by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hamner, was paid for "steering" other victims into depositing large sums of money with the "railroad mergers."

Other witnesses were E. F. Waite, who lost $1000; Harold Wright, who has been seeking to recover $15,500 since Hibbs and Hennessy were submitted to the rigid grand jury investigation of their operations; J. E. Ransford, local business man who "dropped" $2000 cash in the "merger;" J. B. Isham, who lost $1000, and F. C. Bohrk, a $5000 "loser."

While the grand jury was prying into the methods of "high finance" said to have been used by Hibbs and Hennessy, the two defendants appeared in Justice Russell's court yesterday morning for plea. They are at liberty on bonds of $75,000—$50,000 for Hennessy and $25,000 for Hibbs. Upon the request of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hamner, who is conducting the prosecution, and Defense Attorney Paul Schenck, the case was continued until the 28th inst.

FAIR ARRESTED

Hibbs and Hennessy were arrested several days ago by Investigators Reimer, Ramsey and Brain on three charges of grand larceny following the filing of complaints by several well-known business men, who declared they had been tricked out of sums estimated between $1000 and $30,000 through the fictitious operations of the two promoters. According to the complainants, the promoters had been collecting large sums of money through their brokerage office in the Lane Mortgage Building, where they contracted to pay $10 for every $1 contributed toward the execution of a merger of several western railroads.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

Billy Maxey, one of the Maxey Brothers late of the Orpheum, is the producer and is also an excellent dancer. His star comedian is the well-known minstrel, Ed Tolliver. Blanche Brown and Baby Rushing are giving a great exhibition of the Charleston dance, which is so popular now. Two male dancers try their best to outspeed the music. A black-and-tan chorus, nattily costumed, gives a demonstration of what high-speed dancing means. The company carries its own jazz band, which is owned by Spikes brothers, the colored composers and record makers. The show is featuring a number entitled "Roll Those Dice for Me." Each girl represents a dice, and the male cast stages a novel game of "galloping dominoes."

Elaborate preparations are being made for the debut in Miller's Cafe Lafayette on the 27th inst., of Peggy Prevost, sister of Marie Prevost, film star, and ballroom danseuse de luxe.

A Los Angeles girl, Peggy Prevost started her career as a custard pie target for Mack Sennett. Later she entered the serious drama as a leading woman for Charles Ray, and then turned to the polished floor as the scene of subsequent entertainment endeavors. She recently returned to Los Angeles from Manhattan triumphs, and after refusing many offers for her services was induced by Harry M. Miller to become the featured enteralner in the Lafayette.

Brandstatter's Hollywood Montmartre Cafe will celebrate Vincent Rose night tonight, in addition to the regular Bohemian night festivities, in honor of the popular leader and musicians of the Montmartre orchestra, who have just returned from a triumphant engagement at the fashionable Ritz Carlton Hotel in New York.

In addition to a big surprise vaudeville number, Brandstatter has secured Tilda Rohr, the famous Swiss yodeler, who created such a sensation at the New York Embassy Club, to entertain the cafe patrons this evening.

The unique scheme of naming each table after a different port has been instituted in the Ship Cafe on the Venice Pier by Ward McFadden, due to the confusion arising in identifying tables when patrons telephoned to reserve certain ones. For example, if a party desired to reserve a table at the stern of the ship he may ask for the anchorage privileges of Sebastopol, Shanghai or Port Arthur, for some designated date. McFadden is studying his son's geography in working out the proper appellations for the different sections of the restaurant.

Hubby Charges Mate's Parents With Alienation

Charging his parents-in-law with alienating the affections of his wife, Charles H. Haupt, Jr., yesterday filed suit for $50,000 damages against Edward S. Swan and Francese Swan, formerly of New York.

The wife in the case is Mrs. Etta Haupt, to whom the plaintiff said he was married in October, 1923. Haupt charged his wife's parents slandered and vilified him to his wife while the loatter was spending a week with the defendants in a New York hotel.

Haupt's complaint was prepared by Attorney Everett K. Ball.

Orphan Tries Death Plunge; Breaks His Leg

Joseph Perez, a 14-year-old orphan, homeless, penniless and friendless, jumped yesterday from the second story of the Tivoli Theater at Sawtelle in an apparent attempt at suicide, according to police report.

Suffering from a broken leg, he was given emergency treatment at the Sawtelle police station and sent to the General Hospital.

PROXIMO CLUB ADDRESS

Will G. Farrell will give an address on "An Afterthought" at noon tomorrow before the Proximo Club at the Westlake Park pavilion.

HISTORY OF SHOES TOLD TO AD CLUB

Illustrated Lecture Gives Progress of Footwear from Time of Ancient Egypt

"To successfully occupy the shoes of a great man is quite a feat and those who succed in doing so must have great souls. True success consists not only in being well heeled, but in having strong eyes, a straight tongue and a good understanding — for a poor foundation makes a shaky garret."

These bits of philosophy were voiced by Carl A. Bundy in his illustrated address on "Mending Soles" given yesterday before the Advertising Club at the Biltmore. Attired in the costume of an old cobbler, Mr. Bundy recited the history of shoes from the time of the ancient Egyptian sandal down to the present day, giving an interesting account of the sentiment and superstitions which have been connected with the manufacture and wearing of footgear from time immemorial.

Among other speakers were A. D. Smith, president of the club, Ray Nimmo, chairman of the day, and Ferris Miller, head of the Better Business Bureau. A musical program was given by Harold Proctor, accompanied by Miss Madelyn Hardy.

Donald K. Thomas, secretary of the club, announced that a Memorial Day program will be given next Tuesday at noon. The principal speakers will be Maj. Walter K. Tuller and William McElmeel, and the latter will repeat the oration, "The Constitution," that won for him the second prize in the National Oratorical Contest.

"The Slaughter of the Press Agent" is the subject of addresses to be given at the Round Table meeting at the City Club at noon on the 22nd inst., and among the speakers will be F. H. McMahon, Alma Whitaker, Marc Goodnow and Lieut.-Col. L. Sutphen.

RAILWAY TO AID STATE FETE YEAR

Chicago and Northwestern Road Assists in Boosting Travel to California

Advertisement of 1925 as California's Festival Year will receive notable co-operation from the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, according to a letter received yesterday by C. G. Milham, executive secretary of the All Year Club of Southern California, from Charles A. Cairns, passenger traffic manager of the railroad.

While California has enough attractions even in ordinary times to suit the widest range of desires, this additional touch of the glamour and color of the old Spanish days should be an important influence in causing thousands of people to go to California this year, the letter stated.

Included in the letter was a request of the All Year Club for several thousand leaflets advertising the Festival Year to be placed in letters sent by the railroad to the public regarding California fares and train service.

There is every indication that this is going to be a great year for California travel, the letter added.

Ruling Today on Floyd Appeal in Fine Theft Case

The appeal of Alva H. Floyd, former City Recorder at Culver City, for a new trial from his recent conviction on thirteen counts of embezzlement and mutilation and falsification of public records, was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Crail of the Superior Court. Briefs were submitted in the case yesterday afternoon and Judge Crail is expected to deliver his decision on the appeal today.

Floyd, in his capacity of Recorder, was known as the nemesis of speeders and traffic violators. But he diverted the excessive fines he imposed to his own uses and sought to cover up his peculations by destroying the public records, according to the charge made against him.

Sandberg Faces New Charge as Robber Suspect

Sam Sandberg, asserted professional gunman, who was held to answer yesterday with Charles Wagner on robbery charges, was charged with another hold-up yesterday in a complaint issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ryan.

This time the bandit suspect was accused of participation in the hold-up and robbery of George A. Russell, manager of the Hollywood Theaters, Inc., of $900 in cash and checks the night of December 15, last. Russell identified Sandberg yesterday out of a group of ten prisoners.

Sandberg and Wagner, police declare, are the men who held up and robbed two employees of the Julian Petroleum Company of more than $17,000 in cash, checks and bonds recently. They are awaiting trial in Superior Court on this charge.

MAYO'S WIFE ASKS DECREE BE SET ASIDE

Petition to set aside an interlocutory decree of divorce granted Frank Mayo, screen actor, from Joyce Eleanor Mayo in 1921 was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Shaw of Superior Court.

The motion was made by attorneys for Mrs. Mayo, who asked that the decree be vacated on the ground that her default was entered by mistake and that she had a meritorious defense to the complaint of her husband.

The case was tried before Judge Toland, who, in granting a decree to Mayo, also set aside part of a property settlement Mayo entered into with his wife agreeing to pay her alimony of $150 a week. Mrs. Mayo now has pending in Superior Court a suit to force her former husband to comply with the terms of the agreement.

Mayo asserted in his answer to this suit that he was induced to enter the settlement on the belief that Mrs. Mayo was a woman of good moral character. Later he learned, he said, that she had been carrying on a clandestine relationship with a man named James Anderson.

JUANA NEAL LEVY

Miss Dorothy Gray, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walden Gray of One Berkeley Square, has chosen Monday evening, June 15, as the date for her marriage to Thaddeus Libby Up De Graff, the ceremony to take place at 8:15 at the family home. Miss Mary Gray will assist her sister as maid of honor, while other attendants will include Mrs. Francis Emmett Browne (Margaret Gray,) sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Wallace Neff (Louise Up De Graff,) sister of the Mr. Up De Graff, Miss Margaret Kellogg and Miss Florence Marsh. Mr. Neff will serve Mr. Up De Graff as best man, but the ushers have not yet been chosen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray are still in the East where they went immediately following the wedding of their daughter, Miss Margaret Gray, and Dr. Browne, but they will return before the wedding date. One of the enjoyable affairs given this week for Miss Gray and Mrs. Browne was the supper party with which Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pilson (Emily Earl,) entertained at their home in Wilshire Boulevard, Monday evening. A number of other affairs have been planned in honor of Miss Dorothy Gray and her sister, Mrs. Browne, before the wedding.

Attractive Affairs

One of the delightfully planned affairs given in honor of the bride-elect of the season was the tea with which Miss Frances Yeager entertained yesterday afternoon at the Mary Louise, the tables being arranged in the Rose Room and the decorations exquisitely carried out in the tones of old rose and green. The especially honored guest was Mrs. Sally Taft Somers, whose wedding with Frederic William Teschke will be one of the brilliant events of June 20. Forty guests were bidden, and the hostess was assisted by Miss Margaret Barnard and Miss Dorothy Taft.

Mrs. Somers also will be honor guest at a bridge tea with which Mrs. Duane Jones (Shirley Craig) is entertaining at her home on Burgen avenue Saturday afternoon. Thirty guests have been asked, all intimate friends of the honor guest, and the decorations will be effectively carried out with spring flowers and feathery ferns. Mrs. Jones, who is one of the brides of last January, will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Roy Henley, and her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Stonier.

Going Abroad

Mrs. Frances Layng Spence of 817 Vermont avenue is planning a delightful summer trip abroad, leaving here Friday morning for New Orleans, where she will remain for several days, then going on to Washington, D. C., for a few days' visit. She is sailing from New York aboard the Cedric for London, where she will visit with her old friend, Mrs. Mary Reed, who has a charming home in Nestlewood, Kent. Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Spence are planning to cross to France and will make an extended stay in Paris, later touring the continent. Mrs. Spence is planning to be gone for four months and returning will dock in Canada, coming home by way of Montreal and Quebec.

Dickens-Pitts

The marriage of Miss Minnetta Dickens, daughter of Mrs. Andrew V. Dickens of Atlanta, Ga., to Walter C. Pitts, foster son of Judge Rex B. Goodcell, was solemnized at the home of the latter yesterday morning, Rev. Walter Thornton of Fullerton Christian Church officiating in the presence of immediate relatives and a few close friends, the house being beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns for the occasion. The bride, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Harry Hoover, comes from the well-known Willoughby family of Georgia and is a direct descendant of Charles Dickens, the famous English novelist. Mr. Pitts has made the Goodcell home his home for many years. After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Pitts left for an extended honeymoon trip through Northern California and will not return to Los Angeles for several months.

Wedding Plans

Miss Harriett Cheesman, daughter of Mrs. Jane Cheesman of Pasadena, whose engagement was announced in The Times to John Bonner Semple, Jr., of Sewickley, Pa., will be married in All Saints Church, of the Crown City. Miss Cheesman has chosen her sister, Mrs. Frank Hall, to assist as matron of honor, while Miss Katherine Ware will be maid of honor, the other attendants to include Mrs. Paul Hunter and Mrs. William Lawson, Jr., Miss Susan Valentine and Miss Alice Ayer. Frank Hall will be best man, and the ushers will include Dr. Richmond Ware, Howard Cunningham, Taber Mahler, Dr. Paul Hunter and William Lawson, Jr. After a wedding trip, Mr. Semple and his bride will make their home in Sewickley.

For Visitor

Honoring her daughter, Mrs. William Alston Turnbull of Shanghai, China, who with Mr. Turnbull and their two sons arrived Friday afternoon, Mrs. Anna O. Haas is entertaining this afternoon with a reception at her home in Rodney Drive, Hollywood. Spring flowers, roses and trailing ferns will be combined in the decorations of the house, 100 guests being bidden, all old friends of the honoree who, before her marriage, was Miss Carrie Olson. Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will remain here until after July 1.

For Bride-Elect

Miss Betty Robbins, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Robbins of the Talmage, is being the honor guest at many delightfully planned affairs prior to her marriage to Harry F. Haldeman June 2. The ceremony will take place at the country home of the Robbins in the Uplifters' Ranch Country Club estate, and will be followed by a reception and supper. Miss Dorothy Haldeman will assist as maid of honor, while Mrs. Paul Reynolds (Hortense Robbins) and Mrs. Louis Jarvis of Grand Rapids, Mich., will be the other attendants. Albert C. Robbins, Jr., will serve Mr. Haldeman as best man, while the ushers will include Norman Chandler, Arnold Fitger, John Mage and Henri De Roulet. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Reynolds entertained with a luncheon at the Country Club in honor of her cousin, while Mrs. C. Robbins, Jr., members of the bridal party and a dinner at the home this afternoon Mrs. is giving a farewell bins, who will sail vitations after the other courtesies planned for her till after the return ding trip. Mysterious Art—Woman's Secret

"There's a science in housekeeping that every woman knows."

And that science comes with the ability to find a place for everything and keeping everything in its place.

That science of the orderly, well-kept household, and the well-cooked meals is a supposed "heritage" of every woman. But the good housekeepers will tell you that it is nothing of the sort—that good housekeeping comes as a result of experience and study.

"Thorough cleaning," like good housekeeping, is not a "mysterious" art. It's science that has been developed by men who have had experience in handling textiles and who have learned the 91 formulas for cleaning most every kind of spot that can be accumulated. See that your cleaner operates his own plant.

Plant owners know the exact combinations to clean various textiles. They understand "how" to remove each kind of stain.

Because he owns and operates a cleaning plant every legitimate cleaner in the country is admitted to the National Association of Cleaners and Dyers. And, as association members, progressive cleaners know that a cleaning business is "not a heritage" or a "mystery," but an exacting science.

STORE ADDS NEW LOUNGE FOR WOMEN

Latest Features Found in Rest Room on Entire Floor

BY OLIVE GRAY

What is unquestionably the finest rest room—I prefer to call it a lounge—in the West probably the most complete of any similar establishment installed at Bullock's.

An entire floor has been given to luxurious comfort in the manner of an exclusive hotel, the latest decorative ideas offsetting the most substantial furniture, rugs and draperies. They are located a travel bureau, commodation desk, writing room, and adjacent to telephone booths, which are closed. A novel feature is a reading corner devoted to the use of men who here may entertain friends. Despite the announcing that the new lounge is for the use of men, it was evident here the women first congregated.

The quarters for comfort and commodation of patrons are exceptional in their beauty of finish and appointments. Mauve tile, bordered by a deeper mauve, sage and black, forms the walls. A distinctive decorative feature is embedded in the tile ways between the mauve tiles here, where twisted rope design, Moorish design, are formed from tile, in mauve and black, embodying the same color scheme, the interminglings of mauve and black.

Here are commodious dressing tables, with expansive mirrors of French plate, inset along the walls, with ample space adequate to the requirements of many patrons. Individual modation booths of generous size are here in effect, which are open to all; one bathroom is for by a maid, where a small charge is made for the accommodation; a third room for additional charges. The main lavatory is to be found in a booth being, in effect, a miniature ous little dressing-room.

Forty of these booths are provided, all equipped with mirrors and most sanitary type.

Ample light, both natural and artificial, radiates from the new rest quarters, which, with and so handsomely appointed, the new lounge, to be an inspiration as well as a home for shoppers.

COUNTRY SAUSAGE

Run through the fine knife of the meat chopper one pound of lean pork and half a pound of fat pork, season with salt and fresh ground black pepper, if liked add a little sage and mace, add one tablespoonful of ice water and mix well. Form in six even-sized round cakes, dip in beaten eggs, roll in fine bread crumbs, place in a baking pan in a moderate oven twenty-five minutes or fry a nice brown over a slow fire on both sides in a frying pan.

EGGS, RIVERSIDE

Butter the required number of shirring dishes and place in each dish four tablespoonfuls of fresh tomato cut in small cubes, add a seasoning of salt and pepper, two tablespoonfuls of chopped boiled ham and simmer on top of the stove for two minutes; add one tablespoonful of chopped pimiento and two raw eggs; season with salt and paprika, dot with bits of butter and set in a moderate oven five minutes.

RHUBARB PIE

Place fur cupfuls of peeled and diced rhubarb in a saucepan, add half a cupful of water and cook five minutes. Mix one cupful of sugar with two tablespoonfuls of flour and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and stir into the rhubarb; stir and cook until the mixture is thick; pour into a pastry-lined pie tin, dot with two tablespoonfuls of butter broken in small bits, cover with pastry and bake in a moderate oven thirty minutes. Five minutes before removing from the oven brush with beaten egg white and water and sprinkle with granulated sugar.

BEEF A LA MODE

Have the butcher lard a four or five-pound piece of shoulder of beef with fresh pork; place in an earthenware jar, season with salt and pepper, cover with two-thirds water and one-third vinegar, add two stalks of celery, one clove of garlic, one bay leaf, one sliced onion, one sliced carrot, six whole cloves and three branches of parsley; cover and let stand twenty-four hours. Heat two tablespoonfuls of butter in a Dutch oven, add the beef and fry a nice brown on all sides. Remove the beef, place on a platter, add to the Dutch oven two tablespoonfuls of butter and two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir and cook until brown, add the water, vinegar and vegetables used in the earthenware jar, bring to a boil, add the beef and simmer until the beef is tender. Place the beef on a hot platter and strain over the sauce from the Dutch oven. Serve with horseradish sauce.

HORSERADISH SAUCE

Mash the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs in a bowl and gradually add three tablespoonfuls of vinegar and work to a cream; stir three tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish and half a teaspoonful of salt.

Wedding Bells Hush Wails of Divorce Seekers

Pealing of wedding bells drowned out the clanking of the loosened marital chains yesterday in the corridors of the Courthouse.

The same courtrooms where irksome marital knots have been cut were the setting for two weddings, in which all of the principals are of stage or screen.

David Henry Swim, film director of Universal City, and Cecyl Margherita Kennedy, actress, became man and wife in a ceremony performed by Superior Judge Hollzer. Frances Hatton, director and playwright, attended the bride. After the tying of the knot the couple left for a motor trip to California points. Swim is 45 years of age and his bride is 30.

John H. Elliott, 48, an actor at the Morosco Theater, and Jane C. Hinckley, 39, a musician, were married by Superior Judge Crawford at high noon in the judge's chambers.

Touched Button Opens Gin Cache to Police Gaze

Accidental touching of a button revealed to officers yesterday a secret cache of liquor in a house at 318 Witmer street, which they had entered with a search warrant, according to the report of Officer Appledorn who led the raid.

When the officers entered, a woman who described herself as Mary Williams was busy pouring liquor down the sink, they said.

In trying to extract their evidence from the drain pipe, one of the officers pushed a knob, and immediately a trap door in the floor of a closet opening off the kitchen opened, bringing to light eighteen quarts of gin and eight of whisky, the report declared.

Mary Williams, though she protested she was merely the maid, was arrested on a charge of possessing liquor.

Add Variety To Your Dinner

At certain times of the year it is difficult to have something different. During the hot weather one does not care for much meat or too heavy food. Fish and sea food are necessary and healthful for growing children, and oysters make a good hot-weather diet. Canned oysters are convenient and easy to use. There is no other food product with which you can make such a variety of palatable and enjoyable dishes—and so inexpensively—as with canned oysters.

Eat Oysters All The Year 'Round

Get into the habit of serving, two or three times a week, a delicious oyster stew, oyster patties for lunch, a pie for dinner, or an unusual delicacy, such as oysters a la Brochette (with bacon.)

These dishes can be prepared by any housewife with very little trouble. Canned oysters, packed at Biloxi, Miss., by the Biloxi Canners, are the highest quality, uniform in size, full weight, coming from uncontaminated fields and packed by processes that retain all of the flavor of the oysters. They come to you a health-giving, delicious and safe food. Buy a can to-day and try the recipe given here.

Stuffed Oysters

1 Can of oysters from Biloxi.
1 small onion (chopped fine).
3 tablespoons butter.
½ cup bread crumbs.
½ loaf of bread.
2 eggs.
1 lemon.
Salt and pepper to taste.
Parsley.

Soak bread in oyster liquor. Have saucepan hot; put in the onions and butter, and fry until light brown; squeeze liquor from the bread, and fry with the onions. Chop oysters into small pieces, add pepper and parsley and add to first mixture of bread; cook for five minutes, and just before taking off the fire, add the egg and work in well. Put into ramekins; sprinkle bread crumbs on top and garnish with slices of lemon and minced parsley. Bake in oven until tops are brown.

TWO NABBED IN HERMIT MURDER

Adams Confesses to Killing With Iron Bar

Second Man, Accused of Being Accomplice, Held

Police Hit in Freeing of Asserted Aide

[Illustration on Picture Page]

With two men under assert for the slaying of T. K. Ullman, Elizabeth Lake hermit, one of whom is said to have confessed the killing and named the other as his accomplice, deputy sheriffs felt last night that one of the most difficult cases with which they have had to deal for years was nearing a successful conclusion.

PHYLLIS McDANIELS

Difficulties encountered in the unraveling of the crime, it was said at the Sheriff's office, were increased by a local newspaper and two detective lieutenants of the police department. In a stenographic statement made to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Harold L. Davis, chief of the county homicide bureau, Joe Para, taxicab driver, named the two detectives as Charles Jarvis and Charles Craig.

WITNESS GIVEN LIBERTY

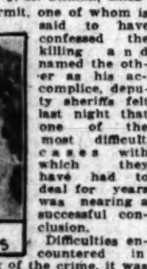
A man who, by his own statements, made himself a material witness to a murder and subsequently admitted aiding in the disposal of the body, was questioned and allowed to depart without notification being given the Sheriff's office, investigating the case, according to deputy sheriffs.

Subsequently to the questioning, the two detectives named members of a party who gathered at a rendezvous assertedly for the purpose of meeting the witness, also without notifying the investigators handling the case, deputy sheriffs charged.

The man about whom all the trouble revolved gave his name as Alphonse Rincon. He is accused by Willie Adams, a 22-year-old Mexican ranch-hand, of participating in the slaying of the Elizabeth Lake recluse.

Questioned by Deputy Sheriff Bright and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Davis last night, Rincon maintained that he took no part in the actual slaying, denying an accusation that he struck two blows while Ullman was mortally injured. He said that he was forced to drag the body out of the house later and helped pitch it into a well, in fear of his life.

Adams confessed that he struck the first blow that ended in the killing of Ullman shortly after noon yesterday, after he had been subjected to a lengthy questioning by Deputies Bright and Hunter and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Davis.



MARIE ZARILLA

"Alphonse told me Saturday we kill him because he got a lot of money," Adams declared. "I get iron bar in blacksmith shop on Ullman's ranch and we go to the house. I hit him first—back of the neck, like this. He fall on his face. Alphonse hit him then—twice—he say he is still alive.

"We pick up the money. Get $6. We split the money. I get $2.50."

At which point some one facetiously remarked that Adams had been cheated of 50 cents, probably because he hit only once.

Following the murder, Adams said, he and Rincon carried the body outside and pitched it into a well. Adams said he threw broken boxes and dirt on top of it so it wouldn't be found.

Several women were questioned during the day, two of whom, Marie Zarilla and Mrs. Phyllis McDaniels, were living at 512 Lorena street, where the suspects went after the crime. They were separated of any connection with the crime, but have been subpoened as witnesses to testify at the inquest over Ullman's body. The official inquiry will be conducted at 1 p.m. today at the Mumaw chapel in Lancaster.

CAMPBELL RITES SET

Ex-Officer in Army Finance Corps Died Suddenly Sunday

The body of Edgar Clark Campbell, 52 years of age, retired, of 4266 West Second street, who died suddenly Sunday night, will be placed in the vault at the Hollywood Cemetery Thursday afternoon, following services at the Ruppe Undertaking Parlors, 812 South Figueroa street, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Campbell, who was the son of Frank L. Campbell, Assistant Attorney-General under McKinley and Assistant Secretary of the Interior under Roosevelt, was born in Washington, D. C., on October 5, 1872. He was retired from the finance corps of the Army in 1916, and came to California five years ago from Washington.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his widow, Catherine S. Campbell, and one daugteh eBtty, of Los Angeles, and a sister, Mrs. Willard S. Buell, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Cryer is Gaining After Surgical Ordeal

The condition of Mrs. Isabel Cryer, wife of Mayor Cryer, who submitted to an appendicitis operation at the Westlake Hospital Monday, was yesterday reported to be satisfactory. While she is still suffering some pain, Dr. Clarence Moore, who performed the operation, said her condition is the usual one following an operation of this kind, and that no complications are anticipated.

It may be two weeks before Mrs. Cryer is able to leave the hospital. She is unable to receive callers at present.

TICKETS FOR SHRINE EVENTS AT COLISEUM NOW ON SALE

The fifty-first annual session of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will be conducted in Los Angeles, June 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Motley H. Flint, who has had charge of numerous successful conventions and drives, is director-general and active head of the executive committee.

Seven spectacles, band concerts and parades will be staged in the Coliseum, at Exposition Park. It is expected that 2,000,000 people will want to see these attractions, but only 60,000 seats are available.

This is the first time in the history of this country that the attempt is being made to put on a convention costing $400,000 without soliciting donations or program advertising from any firm or individual, and the funds can only be raised by the sale of Coliseum tickets. It is the civic duty of every citizen to co-operate in this great event for Los Angeles. There will positively be no funds requested or donations solicited from anyone, outside of Shrine members, except the sale of these tickets and each purchaser of tickets will more than get his money's worth in events to be staged at the Coliseum.

The B. H. Dyas Company, Seventh and Olive streets, is handling the sale of season tickets covering the entire week's events at $5.50 each.

NINE FILE CAMPAIGN COSTS

J. L. Edwards Heads List With $1032.70; Municipal League Announces Indorsements

J. L. Edwards, who failed to land a nomination in the Twelfth Councilmanic District, personally spent $1032.70 on his campaign, he reported yesterday to City Clerk Domingues in filing an expense account as required by the State election laws.

His was the highest campaign expense reported in those accounts filed yesterday. Others filed were as follows: Arthur O. Parker, Third Councilmanic District, $450; Howard W. Davis, nominated in the Seventh Councilmanic District, $236.62; James H. Dodson, Jr., nominated in the Fifteenth Councilmanic District, $429; John Topham, nominated in the Fifth Councilmanic District, $240; Edwin O. Loucks, nominated in the Third Councilmanic District, $479; Boyle Workman, elected from the Fourth Councilmanic District, $290; F. C. Langdon, nominated in the Eleventh Councilmanic District, $694.48, and George A. Bell, Tenth Councilmanic District, $35.35.

Indorsements of candidates and propositions at the June 2 election were announced yesterday by the Municipal League. They were as follows:

First Councilmanic District, Charles H. Randall; Third Councilmanic District, I. F. Hughes; Fifth Councilmanic District, R. S. Sparks; Sixth Councilmanic District, C. W. Clegg; Seventh Councilmanic District, R. L. Criswell; Eighth Councilmanic District, Frank L. Shaw; Tenth Councilmanic District, Charles E. Downs; Eleventh Councilmanic District, Pierson M. Hall; Twelfth Councilmanic District, A. J. Barnes; Thirteenth Councilmanic District, defeat of Joseph L. Pedrotti recommended; Fourteenth Councilmanic District, L. C. Ash; Fifteenth Councilmanic District, C. J. Colden.

Propositions: No. 1, water bonds, yes; No. 2, bonds for Colorado River aqueduct engineering surveys, yes; Nos. 3 and 4, bonds for branch libraries and bridges, action to be announced later; No. 5, bonds for pedestrian tunnels, yes; No. 6, ordinance to permit passenger motor busses on Hill street from Second street to Fifth street, no; No. 7, "straw vote" on enabling act for securing for Southern California cities of Colorado River water, yes.

CAFE GIVEN DANCE PERMIT

The Board of Police Commissioners yesterday granted a dancing-with-meals permit for the Girard Inn, a cafe owned by the Boulevard Land Company at Topanga Canyon and Ventura Boulevard. It is located in the town of Girard section of the city.

Inspector Rook Seeks Salary Rise to $7500

That the salary of Inspector of Public Works Rook be increased to $7500 a year was the request made of the City Council yesterday by the inspector, who pointed out the large increase of public improvement work being done under city inspection.

The value of paving, sewer and other contracts under way has increased during the past two years, he said, to $21,000,000, which is a 100 per cent increase, while the value of the work completed each month has increased from $500,000 to $1,500,000. The number of inspectors has been increased from 130 to 132. The volume of public work under way in Los Angeles, he said, is certainly as great and probably greater than in any other city in the United States.

EVANGELINE BOOTH WELCOME PLANNED

Plans for the reception next week of Commander Evangeline Booth, who is coming here the 29th inst., for a three days' visit to dedicate the army's new rescue home on Griffin avenue, will be completed tomorrow morning when divisional officers of the Salvation Army from all over Southern California meet at the local headquarters on West Ninth street. The meeting will be conducted by Lieut.-Col. C. R. Boyd, commander of the Southern California division of the Salvation Army. Miss Booth will be accompanied on her visit here by Commissioner Henry W. Mapp of the Salvation Army international headquarters in London. Miss Booth will give a lecture on "The World's Greatest Romance" at the Philharmonic Auditorium on the afternoon of the 31st inst.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

CLEAN HANDS

"If I had to name one health measure which would be most effective in the control of the great transmissible diseases, but when we consider how easy it is for the hands, and especially the finger nails (the dirt under the finer nails is especially full of organisms) to become contaminated with infectious germs; how frequently we put our hands to the eyes, mouth, nose and chin, and how easly the germs can be transferred to the system by food handled by contaminated hands, it does not seem so far-fetched.

Teach the child (and practice yourself) to keep the fingers away from the face as much as possible and to wash the hands very thoroughly before handling any food.

LEGS AND LIMBS

"Dear Doctor: I have followed your instructions and am pleased to report wonderful progress. I have lost over forty pounds, although I presume I could and should lose more. In my reduction my legs and limbs haven't reduced any to speak of, the big reduction coming in the bust and hips. Is there anything you could suggest to reduce the legs and limbs. If I should keep on reducing the way I started I fear I would look bad, as my face is already very small and should I reduce more, it would show in my face, and I would look a sight. I weighed about 155 a year ago, but am now 146, and as I am no longer young I feel it would produce wrinkles if I lose more, so would be glad to hear from your personally about reduction in legs and limbs. I exercise to music reducing records every morning and find that they are wonderful for toning up the system.

"Most grateful to the Peters reducing method.—Mrs. S."

There are some hand rollers on the market with which you can do more effective work than with your hands. One of the best features of these rollers is that you give yourself a good exercise at the same time that you are getting your massage.

The face looks drawn and pale in about one-half of the reducing cases. The judicious use of a little rouge, I believe, is justified in these cases. Better not get too much of it on, though, as that makes it look worse.

Those music reducing records are splendid.

VEGETABLE AND YEAST EXTRACTS

Mrs. H.—There are several extracts of yeast put up under various trade names. They may be called vegetable extracts. You should be able to get them in any large grocery store.

These extracts have a high concentration of the antineuritic vitamins. Aside from this they have practically no food value. So they are "top hole" for the reducer! They make nice flavorings for soups and sauces, and broths made with them and some hot water are good to stop the hunger pains.

The bouillon cubes also make good broths with hot water. These would have a little stimulating effect, but you need not count any food value for them.

L. J.—Send for our articles on Atonic Abdominal Wall, Acidosis and Balanced Diet. The reducing booklet is the only material for which 10 cents extra must be sent in addition to a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents.

Mr Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must inclose 10 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the stamped, self-addressed envelope if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

MANY FAVOR BOND ISSUE FOR LIBRARY

City School Head Among Number to Indorse Plan for New Branches

Mrs. Susan Dorsey, superintendent of the Los Angeles Public Schools, heartily indorses the proposed $500,000 bond issue for branch libraries, in a letter received yesterday by Everett R. Perry, librarian. Her indorsement is one of many received from individuals and civic organizations.

Iabbi Edgar F. Magnin of Temple B'nai B'rith, had indorsed the library bond proposition as being a means of obtaining needed library buildings.

In the opinion of H. S. Noble, associate director of the extension division of the University of California in Los Angeles, "the economy and utility of branch organization in a city covering so wide an area as Los Angeles should be apparent. The use of this type of organization by other enterprises in the city gives evidence of its practical value."

Reimsen D. Bird, president of Occidental College, has offered his services to assist in obtaining additional branch libraries for the city.

Harry C. James, founder and chief of the Western Rangers, has announced the boys of his organization are ready to do whatever they can for the cause.

Other indorsements of the bond proposition have come from Charles C. Draa, president of the Los Angeles Music Teachers' Association; the Allesandro Parent-Teacher Association; the board of directors of the Highland Park Ebell Club; the Gen. Fremont Chapter, D.A.R.; Los Angeles Parlor, No. 124, N.D.G.W., and from R. D. Hunt, president of the Historical Society of Southern California.

EVIDENCE IN ATTACKCASE NEARING END

Dasey Twins' Counsel May Conclude Testimony Today for Defense

Testimony in the trial of James and John Dasey, twins charged on two counts with attacking Josephine Price, employee of a downtown confectionery, is expected to be concluded this afternoon, it was stated yesterday in Judge Craig's court where the pair are on trial.

The State rested yesterday and Irvin G. Taplin, of counsel for the defendants, said the defense hoped to examine its closing witness before court adjourned this afternoon.

The defense attorneys put on their first witnesses yesterday after Judge Craig denied a motion of Attorney A. S. De Santos to discharge the defendants at the conclusion of the State's case. De Santos based his motion on the ground the testimony produced by the prosecution did not justify the charges against the youths.

Miss Price, the principal witness for the State, asserted the twins dragged her into an automobile one night as she was returning home from work, drove to a spot near Silver Lake and there attacked her.

The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Attys. Howell, Richardson and McKay.

SCIENTIST WILL SPEAK AT GAMUT AUDITORIUM

A free public lecture on Christian Science, its past, present and future, will be delivered by John V. Dittemore of Boston, in the Gamut Club Auditorium, 1044 South Hope street, Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Dittemore, said to be the only person now living who served as a director of Mrs. Eddy's church during her lifetime, is actively identified with the independent movement in Christian Science recently established under the leadership of Mrs. Annie C. Bill of London, Eng. Within less than a year the new organization is said to have established branches in more than fifty cities in America and England.

THIEF SAVES PLUNDER IN FIGHT WITH GUARD

After a fight with a nightwatchman, a burglar escaped early yesterday from the electric shop of David M. Palmer, 2317 East Sixteenth street, with a radio set and a hand drill. It was the eighth burglary in eight months at the Palmer place. A watchman for the Robinson Furniture Company, which occupies the second floor, detected the intruder and tried to arrest him, but the burglar threatened him with a piece of gas pipe and after a short struggle, broke away and ran, carrying his plunder with him.

GRIFFITH'S NEXT

FINISHES "POPPY," STARTS "THAT ROYLE GIRL"

By Grace Kingsley

Having completed "Poppy," D. W. Griffith has already settled on his next story, according to word received from New York. It is to be "The Royle Girl," from a magazine story, and will, like "Poppy," star Carol Dempster, who established herself in the foremost row of great emotional screen actresses by her work in "Isn't Life Wonderful."

It is likely, according to the same authority which let us in on the above news, that Miss Dempster will come west as soon as she finishes "The Royle Girl." She has purchased a house in Los Angeles.

In the meantime the star is laid up for a week or so with a sprained knee, the result of a fall suffered in a scene while Miss Dempster was making "Poppy," which is a circus picture.

And, by the way, when you see Carol Dempster in "Poppy" you are not to imagine for one minute that Miss Dempster as the little circus heroine isn't really doing all those stunts she is supposed to be doing. I have it on reliable authority that Carol spent many weeks in a gymnasium and riding school, learning to do all sorts of athletic and riding stunts, before starting work on the picture. When the trapeze pieces came along Mr. Griffith asked Miss Dempster if she wanted a double, and she scornfully answered no. She went in and played all the dangerous scenes herself.

When it came to working with the elephants, that is where Miss Dempster might have faltered, for she is very much afraid of these animals. She learned how to put the elephants through their paces. Indeed, it would seem that if Miss Dempster decided to join a circus she could quite easily get a job.

The circus scenes are naturally only a part of her work. She has all sorts of opportunity to play emotional scenes, and she also has much comedy.

REX'S NEXT TO BE INDIAN PONY ROLE

I suppose that when Rex, the horse player, as you might call the equine actor, goes to New York he will be greeted by a brass band, especially as his latest picture, "Black Cyclone," is booked into the Capitol Theater in New York.

The latest bulletin on Rex is that his next picture will be another big feature, but with the additional interest of Indian background of older days. Humans in the cast of a Rex picture do not have an opportunity to steal the story, but still they are sufficiently important to warrant interest in the fact that the next human associate of the wonderful horse star will be real honest-to-goodness Indians.

Just what Indians will have the honor to support Rex depends on how many sets of tires are worn out by Fred Wood Jackman, director of the Rex features, who shipped his car to Salt Lake city a week ago, and has followed it on the train. From Salt Lake he will start out and drive through Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, South Dakota and the upper part of Nevada. He will visit all the Indian reservations in those six States and pick out one with the right Indians, the right mountains, the right sunset, and the right amount of isolation from civilization.

One matter of delicate importance to the Rex picture is the fact that Lady, who, you remember, is Rex's mate, is soon to bring forth an heir for Rex, and as she is Rex's leading lady, you can see for yourself that it will be impossible for her to work until after the event. So the picture won't be started until around July 1.

When Jackman writes back to the Hal Roach studios his findings on the location trip, a company will be organized by Hal Roach, which, with Rex, Lady and the Pest, the last named a small burro found by the "Black Cyclone" troupe in Nevada, will be sent to the point where the picture is to be made. The company expects to be gone five or six months in making the picture.

Beaudine Directs Mary Pickford

Beaudine was loaned to Miss Pickford by Warner Brothers, to direct "Little Annie Rooney," which is now about completed. Miss Pickford was so pleased with Beaudine's work that she signed him to direct her next production, "Scraps."

"Mr. Beaudine understands the soul of children better than anyone I have worked with," Miss Pickford said yesterday. "He understands life, has an appreciation of drama and possesses all the qualities needed to successfully direct pictures of the type I do.

"I am looking forward to the time in the future when I can do several more pictures with him."

Beaudine was jubilant at the opportunity to again direct Miss Pickford.

"It was my ambition from the time we were associated at the old Biograph lot," he said. "I feel that I am fortunate indeed to be chosen to direct two successive pictures for Miss Pickford."

"Scraps" is to be a story along the lines of "Daddy Longlegs," a dramatic story with much opportunity for comedy relief.

Casting will start within a week or two, and work will be under way within a week from the time "Little Annie Rooney" is finished.

It is probable that the exteriors will be made in the swamp country of Louisiana.

Beaudine is still under contract to Warner Brothers, who released him only for the time needed to make the second Pickford production.

Carroll Nye Signs

Another handsome young juvenile has come into his own. Carroll Nye has just signed a contract with First National to appear opposite Corinne Griffith in a feature role in that star's forthcoming picture, "Classified."

Not only will Carroll have the opportunity of working with one of the biggest feminine stars in the movies, but he will satisfy a long-cherished desire to visit New York.

Miss Griffith is in New York at the present time, and Carroll will leave at once for Gotham to join her, and make initial scenes for the Edna Ferber story in Manhattan.

Carroll Nye has been working in the cast of "White Collars," which play, by the way, seems destined to run forever at Egan's Little Theater. He was under contract to Egan, but when the stage producer heard of the opportunity for the youth, he immediately canceled his agreement in order that Nye might take advantage of the chance.

The young actor was chosen only after screen tests had been made of at least a dozen young players, the role being a very important one.

Cop Spoke Out of Turn

When you are rehearsing a love scene for a play, don't do it down by the sad sea waves, especially when a handsome young man is giving you your cues. This is the solemn warning of Grace Gordon, playing a role in Maude Fulton's new play, "The Big Top," which will serve to reopen the Majestic on the 30th inst.

Miss Gordon and a young man friend had taken a trip to the beach, one evening after dinner last week, and Miss Gordon was studying Miss Fulton's role, for whom she is understudying. Perhaps, she threw more than the necessary professional fervor into her lines, which read: "Yes, darling, I love you! You are wonderful, and our love is the most beautiful thing in the world!" or words to that effect.

Anyhow two cops overheard, and, ever on the lookout to put a crimp in lo'e's young dream, they hastened over to the car, to find Miss Gordon and her escort bending over the script of the play 'neath the auto light.

"Well, I'll be d—d!" was the cop's only retort, as he gazed at the script.

"And," called Miss Gordon after the cop's retreat back, "You may just go back to your captain and tell him you spoke out of your turn and hereafter you'd better wait for your proper cue!"

Eddie Horton Vacations

Edward Everett Horton, hero of a thousand matinee girls at the Majestic, having finished his contract with Thomas Wilkes, is planning on having a nice vacation. He has bought a new car, and is to travel in it up to Vancouver and other points north.

"I've been working steadily on the stage and in pictures for the past fifty weeks," said Horton. "I'm mighty tired, and I'm going out into the great open spaces to remain at least a month. After that I shall be ready to go to work again, either on the stage or in pictures."

ARTHUR CAREW CHOSEN FOR "THE ONLY THING"

Arthur Edmund Carew has been chosen by Elinor Glyn to share stellar honors with Conrad Nagel and Eleanor Boardman in the Mme. Glyn production of "The Only Thing."

Carew, the noted Svengali of "Trilby" and the Sheik lover of Norma Talmadge in "A Song of Love," is to play the role of Gigberto, a dashing, poetic character of fascinating appeal.

ALLEN ORGAN RECITAL

The new Skinner organ recently installed in the Hollywood High School was dedicated Tuesday morning with a recital given by Warren D. Allen of Stanford University. A feature of the recital was the playing of several compositions of local composers. A large audience was present, with many of the profession represented.

Among the compositions to be especially mentioned are the Fireside Sketches by J. W. Clokey, and Roland Diggle's "Festal Commemoration," this last number having been written for the occasion. Borodin's "In the Steppes of Central Asia," arranged by Mr. Allen, was made very clever through the use of effective registration. The number is highly imaginative; one can almost see the caravan slowly moving across the endless desert.

This was a delightful contrast to Lemmens's "Fanfare" which preceded it. The Lemmens was played at a rapid tempo, with well defined rhythm and phasing.

The program closed with the Von Weber overture. "Euryanthe," the difficult composition was rendered in a truly masterful style. Frank H. Colby and Ernest Douglas, Los Angeles composers and organists, were represented with fine compositions. Oscar Schminke, Schubert, Beethoven, and Flemish folksongs, were also included on the program.

Pasadena Choral Club Concert

The Woman's Choral Club of Pasadena will appear tonight in concert at Chickering Hall, 806 South Broadway. For many years this organization has been an important factor in the musical life of Pasadena. After a year of training under the baton of William Tyroler, the club is prepared to present a program of pleasing variety and merit.

Presenting Some New Screen Faces

Bakhtiari Tribesmen in "Grass"

An Ilkhani, on the left, and an Ilbegi, seen at the right, make their cinematic debuts in "Grass," the epical screen story of Persia's migratory hordes.

"Grass" Affords Strong Contrast to Modern Luxury

It tells the story of life in a different world from ours. Today, as we have gone down by train or motor car to our daily work, have come home to a safe house of brick or wood, with soft beds, easy chairs, food brought by swift agents of civilization—we live the 365 days of the year, safe, secure.

But this is not the life of the whole world. Now, in the spring, from the Black Sea to the Gulf of Oman, 250,000 tents are down. A million tribesmen, with vast herds, on horseback, afoot, women carrying cradles on their backs and driving beasts loaded with their possessions, struggle onward. Up over hill and mountain, on through desert and forest, beaten by storms, sweating under burning sun, shivering in glacial snows—over 1000 miles of wilderness the migratory tribes of Persia are pressing on and on—to grass.

"Grass" was filmed by three explorers who joined the Bakhtiari tribe.

SEEKING MOTHER

Goldwyn Trying to Find New Type for "Stella Dallas"

Every day is Mother's Day with Samuel Goldwyn and Henry King at present. They are frantically searching for an actress to portray an entirely new type of mother in their forthcoming production of Olive Higgins Prouty's best seller, "Stella Dallas," which is looked upon as one of the season's most promising prospects in screenland.

It is easy enough to find mothers, and simple enough to secure girls who are able to convincingly portray mother roles, but you see, this is a particular, different kind of mother—one who has never made a screen bow. She must appear early in the picture as a sweet, girlish creature, of the "village choir" type, unrefined and empty-headed, and yet, with the seductive and insinuating qualities which enable her to capture a man far above her own station in life.

Then it is necessary that she gradually deteriorate into an over-ambitious woman of forty, tawdry, painted, outwardly reflecting the cheapest of sham, yet sacrificing everything in life for her daughter. The role is intensely emotional, running the gamut of comedy, love, self-denial, pathos and finally, tragedy.

King says that the girl fortunate enough to be chosen for the role will find herself a star overnight, when "Stella Dallas" receives its premiere.

EXPERT COSTUMER TO JOIN DE MILLE STAFF

General Manager Fred Kley of the De Mille Studio, announces the signing of William House to head the men's wardrobe department. Mr. House is one of the best known costumers in theatrical circles, as for a period of three years, he was head of the costume department in New York for Lee and J. J. Shubert. He handled some 150,000 costumes covering all the past and present productions of these famous stage producers. Mr. House is now assembling the male costumes for the first three productions of the De Mille Studio, namely, "Hell's Highroad," starring Leatrice Joy; "The Coming of Amos," starring Rod La Rocque, and the first Cecil De Mille personally directed picture, "The Road to Yesterday," adapted by Jeanie MacPherson and Beulah Marie Dix. "The Road to Yesterday" will call particularly upon Mr. House's resources as the play goes back 200 years and requires a wide variety fo costumes.

GUERRIERI TO TEACH

With a long season of opera for the fall, with choruses composed of resident singers, the fact that Fulgenzios Guerrieri, conductor of the San Carlo Opera Company, is to teach here this summer, is significant. Mr. Guerrieri has been engaged by the Hollywood Conservatory of Music and Arts for a special summer course. He will teach both privately and in class, with both active and auditor members. He will not only coach artists, et ceteras, but will drill singers in acting, explain operatic traditions, and train singers in the various combinations found in all the standard operas.

AGAIN PLAYING OPPOSITE

George O'Brien and Madge Bellamy, who play the two leading roles in "Havoc," the William Fox production made by Rowland V. Lee, are not strangers to each other as "opposites" in a Fox cast. They had the stellar roles in "The Iron Horse," the John Ford production which was one of the season's screen sensations, and Emmett Flynn's version of "The Dancers."

PLAYHOUSE IS TRIUMPH

Pasadena Has Theater of Unusual Beauty

Community Players Open Their New Home

New Play is Presented as First Attraction

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

The value of a dream and vision will need no further proof to those who take upon themselves the obligation and pleasure of a trip to Pasadena any evening of this week. For something both novel and amazingly beautiful is awaiting them in the new Community Playhouse which has just opened there. It is the fulfillment of an ideal long cherished by a group of people devoted to the drama in the Crown City and is representative of a devotion that has been unwavering to the cause of dramatic expression and theater art.

Early California really came to life in the new glowing white building with its red-tiled roof on El Molino avenue, just off Colorado street, with opening performance Monday night. The music of guitars filled the air in the vicinity of the welcoming patio, played by an orchestra in Spanish costumes, while the glamour of a premiere was everywhere apparent in the fashion and the quality of the arriving audience. It was indeed the romantic past meeting with the present.

Pasadena has had a Community Playhouse, of course, for all of eight years, but the home of the enterprise has heretofore been temporary. The new playhouse has been planned virtually from the beginning, but for long it looked to be an impossibility. The struggle to bring the plan into being has only been accomplished by overcoming many difficult obstacles, because in character the project does not partake of the commercial.

It is really indicative of the growth and power of the community idea as applied to the theater, and in this respect the present playhouse is one of the most remarkable achievements that has been carried out anywhere in the country.

Something about the atmosphere of the theater captivates one almost immediately. The motif of the exterior architecture echoes the mission days of California, while this mood in construction contrasts with the interior, which has the charm and refinement of the Spanish Renaissance.

The play presented was a new comedy, "the Amethyst," by Victor Mapes, and though it is of the light and conventional sort, built on misunderstandings between a husband who is a playwright and a wife who desires a career as a social butterfly, it suffices as an opening entertainment. Not all the dialogue is as bright as it should be and one or two of the acts seem talky, but there is a degree of merit to the consistent way in which the plot is presented, slender as it may be.

Leading parts were taken by Samuel S. Hinds, Margaret R. Clark, Douglass Montgomery, Dolly Doane, Frederick N. Cole, Robert Loofbourrow and John Duncan among others, and Mr. Hinds achieved a very popular note in his acting of the role of the playwright.

DUNSANY SATIRE WILL HEAD GARRET PROGRAM

"The Glittering Gate," by Lord Dunsany, a satire with a setting which transports the audience to the renowned pearly gates, will be the feature of the next bill at the Garret Club, 133½ South Spring street.

In an endeavor to give a contrast to each program of one-act plays staged, "Funiculi Funicula," a tragedy by Rita Weiman, has been billed for the same performance, which will be given next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. "The Sacrifice," another number, is tragi-comedy, calculated to provide many a laugh for the audience. A flash act, whose character has not yet been vouched for, will conclude the program. The author, Truman Curtis, one of the club's members, has named it "Jazzy, Jazzier, Jazziest."

Final Biltmore Symphony Program

In the third and last of the so successful morning musicales at the Biltmore, Adolph Tandler's Little Symphony will start the program with a suite, by Corelli.

The piece de resistance will be Albert Rousell, one of the big six of the ultra-modern French school. The adventures and happenings around and in a spider web, musically painted by Mr. Rousell, will prove a modern novelty of the greatest interest. In the closing number, Hugo Wolf's dainty Serenade, Phillip Carhgan will play the viola solo part.

Like in all previous concerts, the entire program consists of novelties. The event takes place this Saturday at 11 a.m., in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel, which lends itself so well to the character of this concert.

Rankin Acquires Racing Dog

As one of the earliest sponsors of the sport of whippet racing, Arthur Rankin, the film juvenile who is now playing in "Wrath" at the M.-G.-M. studios, has just purchased a racing dog, Papyrus, from the Nomad Kennels in New Jersey. The dog, who was accompanied west by an attendant, is soon to be entered in dog shows at Del Monte, Santa Barbara and elsewhere.

Papyrus attains all the dignity of a racing horse in that his food is carefully prepared and weighed and he is rubbed down each day. With the pride of a sportsman, Arthur Rankin is now comfortably sitting back and waiting for Papyrus to bring honors to the family.

Dorothy Farnum With M.-G.-M.

Speculations concerning Dorothy Farnum's future affiliations were set at rest this week by the announcement that the well known scenario writer has signed a year's contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to become effective at once.

Miss Farnum recently returned from a European tour with her husband, Maurice Barber, general manager of the Cinema Finance Corporation, having made the trip to study film conditions abroad and get atmosphere for original stories.

Roach Signs Leo McCarey to Continue

Leo McCarey, who has directed the Charley Chase comedies for Hal Roach during the past year, scoring consistent success, has been signed on a long-term contract by the Hal Roach studios to direct more Roach comedies in the future.

McCarey, who is a native of Los Angeles, graduated from a Los Angeles law school and practiced law for two years, only to give it up for the attraction of film work. Starting as an assistant director at Universal in 1919 and working in many of the studios, he went to Hal Roach's in the same capacity and was promoted after a few months to the post of director. His success has been unusual. The Chase-McCarey team has established the unique record of going up to two-reelers after less than one year of one-reel production, and their product is gaining phenomenally in popularity with exhibitors, according to trade journal reports.

CHARLEY MURRY IN ROACH STAR COMEDY

Charley Murray has been chosen as one of the principal players in the third Hal Roach star comedy of the new series of two-reelers, all star in principle, in which Hal Roach presents casts equal to feature caliber.

James W. Horne, director of three Glenn Tryon comedies, is handling the megaphone on this one. Other players chosen are Lucien Littlefield and Noah Young.

PLOT DECLARED CHIEF ELEMENT IN COMEDY

"Shakespeare spoke to the point when he said 'the play's the thing'," says Lloyd Bacon, now directing at Sennett's, who declares that in comedy valuation the story ranks 50 per cent. "We can reckon the cutting at 10 per cent, direction 20 per cent, cast 10 per cent, and the remaining 10 per cent, the crew," says Bacon. "You must have a good story. Involved with this is the cast, for actors have their way well paved for them with a good vehicle. But the material must be supplied to them. Also direction is involved with the story material and concerned with it in direct ratio. A good chef can't prove himself with poor materials. Nor can a director with a poor story. And when you think," adds Bacon, "that there are only seven plots in the world, there are easier things in the world than assembling a new combination."

CLARA HORTON BACK

Clara Horton is back from a week at Del Monte, after completion of her role in "The Wheel" for Victor Schertzinger and tomorrow will begin consideration of two ingenue roles offered her by telegraph while she was away.

Louise Fazenda is holding forth at two theaters this week and can be seen as a Spanish dancer in Paramount's "The Night Club," at Grauman's Metropolitan, and as a vaudevillian in "Declasse," at Loew's State. The comedienne will return this week from San Diego, where she has been busy in scenes for Warner Brothers' "Bobbed Hair," in time to see both productions.

Inglewood Announces Date of First Annual Community Fiesta

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

INGLEWOOD, May 19.—Inglewood is one of the first cities in Southern California, it believed, to plan a great community celebration in honor of the State's diamond jubilee. Tentative plans call for the presentation on a large scale, with hundreds in the cast of a play appropriate to the period, and with a background of a real Spanish hacienda, dating back to the year 1784, the year in which the Santa Barbara Mission was founded. It is further planned to present this play on the afternoon and evening of Admission Day, September 9, as being the most appropriate date, and to make it an annual event hereafter, such as the "Ramona" pageant at Hemet.

The Lions' Club of Inglewood has sponsored the movement at a directors' meeting. The Rotary, the Kiwanis, Elks, Woman's clubs, American Legion, the Chamber of Commerce, the City Trustees and all the civic organizations of the community will be asked to support the project.

Miss Hazel Rose Lawrence, dramatic instructor of Inglewood Union High School, has agreed to coach the players. She recently presented the senior class of the high school in "The Rose of the Rancho," David Belasco's famous play, and, as the locale in mind for presenting the diamond jubilee play offers a ready-made and ideal setting for this production, with its gorgeous array of costumes of courtly Dons and graceful senoritas, it is likely that this vehicle will be selected.

The Inglewood Lions' Club also plans to adopt the Spanish costume at once in observance of the diamond jubilee and all of the Inglewood contingent will wear these gorgeous habiliments to the district convention at San Diego, leaving here in motor caravan on the 26th inst.

RIVERSIDE KIWANIS STAGE CELEBRATION

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

RIVERSIDE, May 19.—Plans for an all Kiwanis night to be held here June 12 were discussed last night at a meeting of the board of directors of the Riverside-Arlington Height fruit exchange. R. J. Whitehead was appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements. The meeting is to be held in conjunction with similar observances by the 1400 clubs forming Kiwanis International and will be coincident with the opening of the international convention in St. Paul. The Riverside meeting will begin promptly at 5:45 o'clock and will be held in a local hall where dinner will be served. Although the proceedings at the international convention will be broadcast it is not expected that the station will be heard here and the local club will arrange its own program.

HOLD REMAINS OF SUPPOSED SUICIDE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE, May 19.—Word is being awaited from the Coroner's office as to whether an inquest will be conducted into the death of C. B. Hubbard, 60 years of age, who was found dead in a Windward-avenue hotel after he had eaten poison tablets. Hubbard was found in a sitting position on the floor near his bed last Thursday. It is believed he was a drug addict and an ex-convict, according to communications found in his room, and that he feared being returned to prison. The tablets were sent to the county laboratories for analysis. The body is being held at the Sharp & Nolan undertaking parlors.

PASADENA POLICE ON ANNUAL INSPECTION

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 19. — Pasadena's Board of City Directors, her City Manager and auu the august officials of the clay gathered at Library Park this morning, where Chief of Police Charles H. Kelley put his corps of officers through their annual drill and inspection.

For days the members of the local department have been engaged in shoe-shining, cleaning and pressing of uniforms, in preparation of the annual inspection.

The men were officially inspected by Chief Kelley, Harry A. Murphy, inspector of police, and Louis N. Odell, police captain. City Manager Konier and the entire Board of Directors reviewed the ceremony.

Alhambra's New Half-Million-Dollar Church Project

Projected First Methodist Church of Alhambra and Dr. Harry White, Pastor.

The church and subsidiary buildings will cost about $200,000, the entire project entailing an investment of $500,000. The architect is C. F. Skilling of Los Angeles.

CHURCH PLANS ANNOUNCED

Alhambra Methodists to Spend Large Sum on New and Beautiful House of Worship

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

ALHAMBRA, May 19.—Immediate construction of the new First Methodist Episcopal Church of Alhambra was announced today by its pastor, Dr. Harry W. White, following a meeting of the building committee which financed the project. Plans drawn by C. F. Skilling of Los Angeles have been accepted and a contract signed with the Wescott-De Camp Construction Company, also of Los Angeles.

The real estate and building project involves an outlay of close to $500,000, of which $200,000 will be expended for the church, its complementary buildings and their equipment. The site, measuring 250 by 315 feet, at the northwest corner of Main and Almansor streets, and standing slightly above the curb level, was formerly the Temple property and is richly adorned with shade trees, most of which it will be possible to preserve as an inclosure for the buildings. The church has disposed of its original property, at the corner of Main and Chapel streets.

The old Temple house itself will be saved for classrooms—a purpose to which it is admirably adapted—and the general plan calls for incorporating it as a unit of the educational plant. This plant, connected by a mission-style arcade with the auditorium of the church proper, is one of the important departments of the foundation. The Sunday-school has been designed to meet all the latest requirements of a thoroughly departmentalized curriculum and is fitted to provide for a religious educational program, rather than what has been known as merely Sunday-school work.

In architecture, the motif has been that of the Spanish renaissance. The body of the church will be of brick, incased in stucco and provided with sound-proof compartments to exclude street noises during the hours of worship. Entrance to the gallery will be from a mezzanine floor. Provision has been made for the installation, at a later date, of a pipe organ. The church always has maintained a surpliced choir of high order.

Surmounting the main building will be a reinforced concrete tower, eighty-five feet high. Tower and church will be roofed with tile and trimmed with ornamental stone.

The educational department includes a gymnasium, equipped with a stage, separate shower baths for boys and girls, and a kitchen adequate to care for banquets of 700. Particular attention has been paid to the requirements of Scout work, for the church maintains a crack Scout organization, which numbers several Eagle Scouts.

The building committee which has brought the plans to completion, is composed of Chester A. Harding, chairman; Dr. Harry W. White, pastor, Mrs. E. E. Clark, W. H. Kingery, treasurer; F. H. Harmon, Jessie H. Riley, Howard Winsor and John H. Wellman, associated with it as attorney.

Asks Citizens to Refrain From Throwing Bricks

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 19.—In an address before the Optimists' Club at the Hotel Maryland this noon, Franklin B. Cole, new Mayor of Pasadena, made a plea for citizens not to hurl bricks at the new Board of Directors.

"We are not supermen," he declared. "In fact, I have heard that we are 'anything but.' You would probably throw up your hands in horror if you should hear we had denied a permit for the building of a $1,000,000 apartment-house on South Euclid avenue. Our aim, however, is to bring about the best that there is for Pasadena and we seek your co-operation."

He urged that citizens withhold their "bricks of criticism" until they are sure their objections are justifiable. The apartment-house question is one of the most important now facing the new board. If they grant the permit for the building they will have to revise the zoning ordinance.

TARDY INVESTIGATION

News of Man's Death Kept From Police Records

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, May 19.—A. A. Schaub died in the Loamshier Hospital early this morning following injuries believed to have been self-inflicted yesterday afternoon. Police were not notified of the incident until late last night, according to reports.

Investigating officers stated that Schaub, who was engaged in the contracting business, was despondent over financial troubles. He walked into a bedroom, leaned over a shotgun and pulled the trigger. The man was found some time later by his wife and taken to the hospital, where an attempt to save his life was made. The full charge from the gun struck him in the stomach, according to police. The Coroner's office has been notified and an investigation to ascertain why hospital authorities did not notify police immediately after the affair will be conducted, police state.

The body was removed to the Mendenhall undertaking parlors. Schaub leaves a wife and a son, who was his partner in business.

VALLEY BOOSTER CLUB PLANS HUGE CAMPAIGN

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

VAN NUYS, May 19.—There is to be a big rally of all the Greater San Fernando Valley Association forces at the Hollywood Athletic Club on Thursday night. A delegation of 100 persons each will go from here, Lankershim, Burbank and from towns in the west end of San Fernando Valley to take part in the rally. The association's valley-wide campaign for the raising of $150,000 as a fund to advertise San Fernando Valley will begin on May 25. At the meeting Thursday Weber M. Jones, financial secretary for the drive, will instruct an army of workers in the first steps of the contemplated canvass. According to plans as laid out, all property owners and taxpayers in the valley will be asked to contribute their bit on a pro-rata basis to the advertising fund.

MRS. BROWN IN COURT

Defendant in Famous Hanford Murder Case Enters Plea of Not Guilty

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

HANFORD, May 19.—The most sensational of recent episodes in the Lee Camp murder case came this forenoon when Mrs. Lennie Laura Brown, foster mother of Lee Camp, and one of the four accused of his murder, appeared in court for the first time.

The court room was crowded and the woman who is the beneficiary under the dead man's will to all of his property and his large life insurance policies was the center of attraction. She has been an inmate at the County Hospital, from where she was brought to the Court House in an ambulance. She entered the courtroom soon after court opened at the same time as her other adopted son, Robert McCamish, another one of the accused, who has also been in the hospital, and recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Brown appeared to be in fair health and showed great interest in the court proceedings. Sitting up in court she showed great affection for her foster son McCamish, drawing his hands to her lips and fondling his face. Her nurse and the County Jail matron accompanied her.

The cases of John H. Tipton and Fred Mills, others of the quartette accused of murder were first considered and the motion made by their attorneys to squash the grand jury indictments were denied by Judge Van Zante as was also their motion that defendants be allowed released on bail. All four of the defendants, each being in court, pleaded not guilty. It was stipulated by attorneys for the defense that all evidence against Tipton and Mills should also be considered in the trials of Mrs. Brown and McCamish. The court set June 2 for the trial of the four accused. This means that all four will be tried jointly on the murder charge.

Much interest centers here in the case which will be resumed next Monday wherein Mrs. Pearl Camp King, sister of Lee Camp seeks to have the will of her brother Lee annulled. He willed all of his $89,000 worth of property to his foster mother, Mrs. Brown, and all his life insurance. The sister was given five dollars.

Poultry Flocks in Valley Show Huge Increase

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

VAN NUYS, May 19.—Figures dealing with the expansion of the poultry industry in San Fernando Valley within the last twelve months disclose that there has been an increase of 45 per cent in all parts of the enterprise.

Poultry growers, feed sellers, builders and contractors and banks that have handled the financial end of the various improvements, say that the 45 per cent increase is represented in the number of new poultry houses erected, in the increase of newcomers who have gone into the business, in the increase of White Leghorn flocks and in the increase of eggs that have been shipped to Los Angeles and other egg-buying markets.

The figures also show that if the present rate of increase maintains that within three years Van Nuys and immediate vicinity will vie with Petaluma as the egg-producing center of the United States.

This prediction is held not only by the poultry raisers alone, but by the various banks of the valley who have watched the development within the past two seasons.

DON SPANISH GARB TO HONOR McGROARTY

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

INGLEWOOD, May 19.—A Spanish pilgrimage of Inglewood and Lennox residents to see "La Golondrina," the second of the series of early California historical plays to be written by John Steven McGroarty, author of the Mission Play, will be made from here to the Mission Playhouse at San Gabriel on Thursday evening of this week.

John Steven McGroarty himself will be the guest of the Inglewood Rotarians tomorrow noon, with members of the Monrovia Rotary with him as guests of the local Rotarians. Rotarians, Lions, Kiwanians and all others are asked to make the pilgrimage on Thursday evening, through Broadway, Los Angeles, all attired in picturesque Spanish garb in keeping with the observance of the State's diamond jubilee. Mr. McGroarty comes here due to his friendship for a prominent Inglewood Rotarian, Sam Greene, both being natives of Pennsylvania.

COTTON EXPERT TALKS

Tulare County Growers Hear Government Agent

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PORTERVILLE, May 19.—Cotton growers of Tulare county today listened to W. B. Camp, government cotton expert, in a discussion of cotton thinning and cultivation. This morning he conducted a field meeting in the Bliss tract southeast of Tulare, while this afternoon he conducted a demonstration at the Flory Ranch in the Poplar district west of Porterville.

Mr. Camp is in charge of the experiment station at Shafter. He has been working on cotton problems for years and has been most active in developing the industry in the San Joaquin Valley. He is considered particularly well informed in the raising of Acala cotton, the variety favored in this district.

As the greater portion of Tulare county growers are about ready to thin, his message is expected to be particularly helpful.

OIL TO ALLAY DUST ON MULHOLLAND DRIVE

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

CAHUENGA PARK, May 19.—Efforts of the Ventura Boulevard Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations in San Fernando Valley have been rewarded in the announcement of Engineer Reaburn, in charge of Mulholland High Way, that the skyline boulevard will be oiled in preparation for the coming summer's heavy traffic. Experiments within the last few months disclose that a thin coating of oil will serve to put the skyline drive in first-class condition and will not cake or become rough under heavy traffic. Work of oiling the drive is soon to begin. Engineer Reaburn announces that while the oiling is taking place parts of the road will be closed for a few days. As soon as the whole of the road is oiled it is expected that traffic will double, for there have been many complaints from Los Angeles and valley motorists that dust on the highway has greatly retared its use.

Urge Governor Give Aid to Water Survey

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VISALIA, May 19.—A campaign is being carried on among members of the California State Irrigation Association in Visalia asking them to write Gov. Richardson urging him to sign Assembly bill No. 624, which appropriates $250,000 for continuation of the State water resource survey. Of this amount $50,000 would be used to study plans for a salt water dam at the upper reaches of the San Francisco Bay.

This action is declared to be in keeping with wishes of the Governor as he desires to hear from those vitally interested in the bill, to ascertain the real feeling of the people.

As residents of this section are vitally conscious of the seriousness of the water situation it is believed that many letters will pour in, especially from members of the irrigation association, which sponsored the campaign for the first $100,000 needed for this work.

ENCINO COUNTRY CLUB POOL IS SOON TO OPEN

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

ENCINO, May 19.—Extensive repairs on the Encino Country Club swimming pool will be finished in time for its opening on the 30th inst., when the pool will be in charge of Jack Settler, actively connected with the Los Angeles Athletic Club during the last four years. The Encino Country Club is one of the fashionable show places of the San Fernando Valley, its members being the wealthy business men and ranchers of the valley section.

AVOCADO IS FEATURE OF EXPOSITION

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

ANAHEIM, May 19.—An elaborate exhibit of the avocado, little-known fruit of epicures, will bid for the favor of visitors with the 750,000 Valencia oranges to be seen in featured displays in the fifth annual California Valencia Orange Show, which opens an eleven-day exposition Friday in Anaheim.

As avocados are rated an important product of Orange county and the Southland, the 400 members of the California Avocado Association are assembling the most magnificent specimens of the emerald pears from their orchards for what promises to be the most pretentious array of the fruit ever seen.

George B. Hodgkin, secretary of the association, is arranging a prize display of such noted varieties as Challenge, Sphinx, Dickenson, Lyon, Taft, Queen and others never before exhibited.

Herman Stern, director-general of the show, has arranged for the explanation of the approved methods of avocado culture and marketing, as great care is being exercised that the educational features of every exhibit in the exposition may not be overlooked.

Exhibits in the three great divisions, the citrus, automotive and industrial, rapidly are being installed and decorators are putting the finishing touches on the great drapes which transform the three tents into brilliant salons of the French Renaissance period, without a bit of canvas or rope visible to the eye.

In preparation for the dedication ceremonies to open the show Friday, a great stage is being completed in the citrus salon on which an elaborate program of entertainment will be given each afternoon and evening of the exposition.

Flames Destroy Automobile on Mountain Road

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

OXNARD, May 19.—While returning to Los Angeles from Oxnard last night, J. B. Howard of Los Angeles had a thrilling experience when his automobile caught fire and burned to the tires in the middle of the highway in the Conejo Hills.

Mr. Howard noticed a flare beneath the car and stopped the machine. When he got out the car burst into flames and he was unable to approach it again for fear of an explosion. Mr. Howard kept his distance until the gasoline tank exploded, showering the machine with flaming liquid. The automobile was demolished.

Mr. Howard was taken to Los Angeles by passing motorists.

PRESENTS OLD CLAIM

Bill Before Ontario Council Revives Alford Case

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ONTARIO, May 19.—Why were claims of the Pomona Manufacturing Company against the city of Ontario amounting to $1319.44 not paid before this time? That was a question confronting the City Council today, when a bill for that amount was presented by the manufacturing concern which says that the claim dates back to 1919 and 1920 and that a bill was presented to Fred E. Alford, former service manager, but never paid.

Two years ago Alford, since released on probation, was convicted of defrauding the city out of large sums of money and sentenced to serve a term of from two to twenty years in San Quentin.

After consideration the Council referred the claim to City Service Manager O. S. Roen and the water and finance committees of the Council for a careful check. The amount is said to be due for pump repair work and well testing.

LYMAN J. GAGE ILL AT POINT LOMA HOME

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN DIEGO, May 19.—Lyman J. Gage, Secretary of the Treasury under Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt, was reported seriously ill at his Point Loma home today, some alarm being expressed because of his advanced age, 85 years.

Mr. Gage has been suffering from bronchitis and his attending physician, Dr. F. H. Crabtree, fears this may turn into pneumonia. Dr. Crabtree admitted he was worried about the aged financier's condition.

MINISTER RAPS ORGANIZATIONS

Says Indian Aid Societies Harmful

Supports Policies of Federal Department

Opposes Transfer of Indian Bureau

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

GLENDALE, May 19.—In an address before the Exchange Club of Glendale today, Rev. David P. McAstocker, Catholic chaplain at the Sherman Indian School at Riverside, scored the activities of half a dozen organizations that are, he asserted, hampering the work of the government in its conduct of the Indian situation in California and who are sowing the seeds of Bolshevism among the Indians.

The Mission Indians, Father McAstocker pointed out, number 2500 souls, scattered over thirty-two reservations in California, but this small number has been more trouble to the United States government than practically all the rest of the nation's red wards combined.

"If these organizations," he said, "are anxious to help the Indian, they should wait until the government gets through with him, at the age of 21 years, and if they desire to help improve his condition then they are at liberty to do so. But at present they are complicating what is already a difficult situation by causing a spirit of discontent among the Indians and they are also, in many instances, alleging dishonesty among the officials of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. My experience with the officials, over a long period, disproves this charge. A consistent course of instruction of obedience to the law and in observance of discipline, Father McAstocker declared, will put the Indian on a footing of equality much more rapidly than the cultivation of self pity."

Father McAstocker opposed the proposal, which, he said, is likely to emanate from the Cabinet at Washington, to transfer the Bureau of Indian Affairs to the Department of Agriculture from the Department of the Interior, but he expressed his approval of the movement that looks to the ultimate abolishment of the Bureau of Indian Affairs after the ground has been prepared thoroughly in order that the Indian may be more self-reliant.

TO RESTORE OUTPOST

Building Used by Mission Padres to be Saved

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

REDLANDS, May 19.—A movement is now well under way here for the restoration of the San Bernardino Asistencia, a branch of the San Gabriel Mission, the ruins of which are on the Barton ranch west of the city. E. R. McCormick, now the owner of the property, is assisting in every way possible to aid the restoration.

The movement is headed by the Chamber of Commerce here with Lyman M. King and G. W. Beattie of East Highlands in charge. The plan is to restore the outpost of the mission, where there was a chapel and quite a gathering of Indians under several padres. The San Gabriel Mission had great flocks in this valley.

In olden days the hills west of Redlands where the mission outpost was built were called the Hills of Politana and part of the old adobe walls of the storehouse are still standing.

BOOTLEGGERS PAY EXTRA HEAVY FINES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

HANFORD, May 19.—Bootleggers are having a hard time paying heavy fines to keep out of the Kings County Jail. More than $6000 in fines has been levied in the past month in this county for liquor violations, most of the defendants having fines of $1000 against them or two charges of $500 each. One woman was assessed a $750 fine on a single charge.

The latest arrest is that of Mrs. Geneva Bennett of Fresno, who had ten gallons of brandy in her automobile, and was accompanied by her minor son. Her car was confiscated and she was released on bail furnished by her husband. At the County Jail the woman admitted she had been operating here for several months.

STAGE ANNUAL FROLIC

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 19. A caravan of Huntington Park real estate men and their families to the number of 100 at least, will leave this city early Saturday morning for La Jolla, where they will have their annual one-day outing and picnic. The party will be the guests on that day of C. C. Evans, who is one of the local real estate men. A program of outdoor sports has been arranged for the day.

ESCAPES SECOND WRECK

Automobile Taking Injured Man to Hospital in Collision With Another Car

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

GLENDALE, May 19.—Struck by a passing automobile while he was working on location at Kenneth Road and Highland avenue, Glendale, today, Joe Bujan, motion-picture director, had the second narrow escape from death or further injury when the car in which he was being rushed to the hospital collided with another machine at Lexington Drive and Central avenue.

Bujan was knocked down by a car driven by Ralph Wood, 1142 Spazier street, as he was crossing Kenneth Road to get into his own car to return to Hollywood. Eyewitnesses declared that he was rolled over three times and run over by Wood's car. Kenneth McDonald, an actor, working on location, placed Bujan in his car and started at a high rate of speed for the Glendale Hospital, and at Lexington Drive and Central avenue the car collided with another machine, receiving very slight damage but whirling completely around and jumping the curb when McDonald applied the brakes.

At the Glendale Hospital Dr. C. M. Hensley, who dressed Bujan's injuries said that his cheek bone was crushed in, his head badly cut and bruised, and that he had suffered possible internal injuries. No bones were broken, however, and Dr. Hensley declared that the man would recover from his injuries.

AN OPPORTUNITY THAT HAS PROVED ITSELF
TO BE A BIG WINNER.
Ten months ago I was given the opportunity to go into business and secure an investment in a company to be organized to manufacture and distribute an article of household direct to the consumer. The proposition looked so good that I took an option on the entire offering. Five months later the company started, and today this is the largest winner ever offered anyone. My option will soon expire and as I cannot handle all, am offering the balance I have under option to a few men who have the ability to know they wish to invest. The returns are paid every month and with initial production you will receive $4 per day and up on each $1000 invested. There never was such an opportunity ever offered and the only reason that it is open now is due to my own foresight ten months ago. Here is your opportunity to get a large permanent income and you can start the month without any services required. If you have the ready cash and want personal interview give address and phone number. Address B, box 553, TIMES BRANCH.

HUE AND CRY ON TRADE DERIDED

Business Writer Here Says Worry is Unwarranted

Lack of Prosperity Talk is Laid to Method Changes

"Hand-to-Mouth" Buying by Retailers is Cited

Profound changes in commercial and industrial methods now taking place are largely responsible for the notion that the country today is not so prosperous as some people think it should be, according to Samuel Crowther of New York, well-known writer on business and industrial subjects.

Mr. Crowther arrived in Los Angeles yesterday on a tour of the country to study business conditions with a view to writing a series of magazine articles on that subject later in the year. He has made an extensive survey of the situation in the Middle West and parts of the South and will now devote his attention to the Pacific Coast.

"As a matter of fact, this hue and cry about poor business is largely bunk," said Mr. Crowther. "The consumer is buying as much as ever, industry is active, the farmer's situation is better than at any time since the slump and there is no cause for worry in any line of business, so far as I have been able to learn.

"The true explanation of the situation seems to be that business is beginning to be conducted along lines that differ materially from the methods of the past. One of the most noticeable developments, especially in the Middle West, is what is being referred to in certain quarters as the 'hand-to-mouth buying' of the retailer. Large stocks of goods on the shelves of the retail merchant are no longer considered a necessity. It has been discovered that with the means of speedy transportation at hand today the retailer can supply all the wants of his customers without maintaining an enormous warehouse of commodities tying up large sums of money for long periods.

"Not only is the retailer beginning to operate on the principle of keeping a moderate stock on hand with frequent reorders to meet the demands of his customers, but other lines of business are adopting this method also. For instance not so long ago the railroads used to keep three months' supply of timber in their yards all the time to meet the lumber demand. Now they have cut it down to sixty days' supply. And other industries are operating in the same way, millions of dollars thus being saved by preventing the tying up of great amounts of capital in large stocks."

Mr. Crowther also spoke of the changed conditions in the cattle business. "For one thing, people eat less meat than formerly and they demand young stock rather than beef from animals three or four years old," he said. "I was told by the packers in Chicago that the average age of the animals now being used for food is a year and a half. This means a turnover every eighteen months of the cattle-grower's stock, necessitating an adjustment in this line of business."

A somewhat similar situation exists in the cotton business, Mr. Crowther said. There has been no decrease in the cotton acreage, but the type of finished product for which there is a demand today differs widely from that of a few years ago, he explained, thus necessitating extensive adjustments in that industry.

FOIL IN BOX CASE TESTIFIES

Mann Act, Defendant Denies Rhodes Story of Courtesy Wedding But Admits Paying Fares

An amazing story of traveling across the continent as the courtesy husband of a young woman, in order to protect her real companion from possible prosecution under the Mann Act, was related on the stand in Judge Jamey's court yesterday by Alex R. Rhodes. The trial is that of John W. Box, formerly of Freeport, N. Y.

Box took the stand later and denied categorically the whole of Rhodes's story, though he admitted he had paid for a trip here from Buffalo for himself, Rhodes and Mrs. Rhodes, who was Jeane R. Taylor, a Freeport heiress.

Rhodes has already pleaded guilty to violation of the Mann Act. Incidentally, through marrying Miss Taylor in Buffalo, he figures as a possible heir to her $100,000 fortune. She died in February from blood poisoning from rouging her lips with an artificial flower, a month before she was to come into the money.

"If I get it I will give the whole amount to charity," Rhodes declared.

Rhodes said he, Box and Mrs. Box started from Freeport and got as far as Buffalo, where Box and his wife had a violent quarrel and she left him. Box, he said, then wired Miss Taylor and she came on. Rhodes said she went through a marriage ceremony with him as soon as she arrived in Buffalo, but said she spent her time on the entire trip in Box's company. Box, he declared, paid all the expenses.

The trio arrived here late in January and were arrested in a Glendale bungalow court February 18, he said. There, he said, Mrs. Rhodes was known as Mrs. Box and he was known as her brother.

Other government witnesses included Richard W. Engreth of Freeport, John Edward Sharpe, a ticket agent of Erie, Pa.; George S. Vane of Erie, Fred C. Hawkins of Los Angeles, Aubrey Fisher and Mrs. Elizabeth Wiltse of San Diego, H. J. Treviey and E. T. Weight and his wife of Glendale. These corroborated various details of Rhodes's story. Some were fellow-passengers of the party on the train; these declared Rhodes spent all his time playing cards and paid no attention to his supposed wife.

Box admitted paying for the tickets and telegrams, but said he did so as a favor to Rhodes and that Rhodes promised to pay his share.

The evidence probably will close today. Dep. U. S. Atty. Ohannesian is conducting the prosecution and Thomas C. Whitlock is attorney for Box. Both Box and Rhodes face larceny charges after the present cases are disposed of.

X-Raying Your Gas Bill.

III.

We present

Mr. T. N. Kellett

Superintendent Gas Manufacture

He Says

"SPEAKING of gas production costs, the average pay of the men now employed by Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation in the manufacture of gas is 85 per cent higher than it was August 1, 1914."

This is in keeping with the high price level of commodities and labor generally.

And yet—

The cost of a given gas service in Los Angeles today is 20% less than it was at the outbreak of the World War, August 1, 1914, price and quality both considered.

BARON SEES NO FOREIGN FILM INFLUX

Says Germany, Japan Not in Position to Compete With American Producers

"So far as Germany is concerned, it has its hands full with so many other things that the motion-picture industry there is far behind that of America," said Von Kettler. "The Japanese are producing pictures on a limited scale, due largely to the fact that there is a duty of 100 per cent on importations of photographic films.

"Furthermore, while the Japanese are clever actors, their pictures lack the international angle. They are designed to appeal solely to the Japanese. As a matter of fact, it does not seem likely they can ever develop the art of acting to the point where Japanese actors can play the roles of any other people."

Commenting on the recent election of Hindenburg, the Baron said he believed this would have a greater stabilizing effect on the German people than any other event since the war.

"Hindenburg personifies the German idea of what a ruler should be — a personage they can look up to and greet with 'hoch'," he commented. "At best a President in Germany is more or les of a figurehead, but that's what the people want."

Auto Engineers to Launch Local Section Friday

The Society of Automotive Engineers will inaugurate formally the Southern California section Friday evening at the City Club, 833 South Spring street. This is the first section of the national society to be established on the Pacific Coast.

The president of the society, H. L. Horning, will come from the East to make the principal address. Mayor Cryer will welcome him. Another speaker will be W. L. Moreland, who was nominated first chairman of the local section.

Co-operating with the Society of Automotive Engineers to make this a memorable event are the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' Association, Service Managers' Association, Automotive Council, Automobile Club of Southern California and other organizations.

Mr. Horning, whose research work in automotive engineering is known in Europe as well as in this country, will discuss the "Latest Developments in the Automotive Industry."

Reservations can be made through Ethelbert Favary, Box 317, Los Angeles.

Local Children Gather Bundles for Near East

Even before the day set for the assembling of the bundles of cast-off clothing for the little orphans of the Near East—Bundle Day, Thursday, May 21—the children of the schools of Los Angeles have begun the work of gathering together their contributions.

Already in some of the schools immense piles of bundles, representing the gifts of some of the pupils, are to be seen in the basements. The need in the stricken countries this year is said to be particularly acute. Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, Superintendent of Schools, was so moved by the necessity for extraordinary effort on the part of American children this year, that she instructed all of the teachers under her jurisdiction to give their especial efforts to telling the children of the need.

Harbor Suspect Puts Up Bond in Mail Arson Case

Nick Franetovitch, Los Angeles Harbor fisherman, yesterday was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Finn on a secret Federal indictment charging misuse of the mails to incite arson. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner Turney and furnished $5000 bond pending examination Saturday.

Postal inspectors assert Franetovitch hired John D. Blaine to insure his home in South Bisbee, Arizona, for $1200 early in the year and then to destroy it by fire.

The insurance company refused to pay and investigations resulted in Federal indictment. Instructions for insuring and burning the house were sent through the mails, it is charged.

Miller to Face Trial Again in Rum Plot Case

Jack Miller yesterday was arrested and arraigned before United States Commissioner Turney on a charge of violating the national Prohibition Act by engaging in a rum conspiracy. He waived examination and was ordered held for removal to San Francisco, where he was indicted.

Miller provided $5000 in addition to $25,000 he posted last year when convicted on a similar charge involving a huge consignment of liquor. Half a dozen men were arrested at that time, including a Long Beach capitalist. His appeal in this case is pending.

PARLEY HITS CABIN SITE LOTTERIES

Scheme to Dispose of Real Estate Declared Violation of State Law

In a conference yesterday at which State, county and city law-enforcement bodies and civic organizations were represented action was decided on as a means to abolish the increasing practice of disposing of California real estate by the questionable method of giving out lottery tickets in motion-picture theaters and other public meeting places.

It was brought out that nearly a dozen real-estate firms are known to be distributing such tickets and promising free lots, chiefly for cabin-site purposes, in various parts of of Southern California. While the lucky winner is assured that he is receiving a free lot, an investigation has shown, the representatives were told, that the winner more than pays for the lot by being assessed for improvements and filing fees.

It was determined at the conference that the State Real Estate Commission should notify the promoters to discontinue the practice or face prosecution.

An opinion of the Attorney-General was read at the conference which holds that such lottery schemes are in violation of State law.

The conference was presided over by J. H. Richardson, deputy Real Estate Commissioner in charge of the local office, and attended by Ferris Miller of the Better Business Bureau, Tom Ingersoll of the local Realty Board, Deputy City Prosecutor Concannon, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Pierce Works, Police Lieutenant Luke Lane and George Townsend of the Long Beach Better Business Bureau.

Deputy Leaves Car, Gets Man Who Fired Shot

Riding home on a street car last night Deputy Sheriff T. O. Daniels heard a shot. He jumped off the car at Seventh and Gladys streets and took into custody William J. Murphy, 52 years of age, of 801½ East Seventh street, said to have admitted firing the shot.

Murphy, according to Deputy Daniels, said that the shot at a man who beat him Monday night.

A charge of carrying a concealed weapon was placed against Murphy at the City Jail and Daniels has started investigation to determine if the shot took effect. The object of the asserted pistol fire fled, it was said.

Telegrapher's Poison Death Investigated

Whether William Malloy, 35 years of age, chose the apartment of a friend, Stanley Young, at 947 Francisco street, to commit suicide by swallowing poison or took the deadly potion accidentally, was being investigated by Detective Lieutenant Stevens last night.

Young found Malloy's body in his apartment yesterday morning. An empty bottle that had contained lysol was beside the body. No note or other clew pointing to suicide was found, Detective Stevens said. The body was taken to the L. F. Utter mortuary. Malloy was a telegraph operator for United Press and lived at the Palms Auto Camp in Palms.

MRS. YUENGLING LOSES

Jury Finds for Defense in Claim Based on Attack Charge

Mathilda Yuengling yesterday lost her fight for $25,000 damages from George W. Petty, real estate operator, on charges that he had attempted to attack her in the spring of 1923. A jury in Judge Walton J. Wood's department of the Superior Court, where the trial had been in progress for a week, returned a verdict for Petty.

The case was tried last November, but at that time the jury disagreed. Mrs. Yuengling, a real estate saleswoman, charged that she and Petty were inspecting a vacant house when the latter made the unsuccessful attempt to assault her. Petty was represented in court by Attorney John L. Richardson.

HALE DUE TODAY AT SAN DIEGO

Senate Naval Chief Will Embark on Tour of West Coast Bases

Senator Hale of Maine, chairman of the Senate Naval Committee, will arrive in Southern California today and with Senator Shortridge, a member of the committee, will make an inspection of the naval establishment on this Coast.

Senator Shortridge, who is at the Biltmore, says he will meet Senator Hale tonight at San Diego, and after spending a day there they will come to Los Angeles, where a couple of days will be spent in inspecting Los Angeles Harbor. The two Senators then will go to San Francisco to view the harbor and naval property there. Senator Hale then will sail for Honolulu.

"As far as I know this is Senator Hale's first trip to the Pacific," Senator Shortridge said yesterday. "There is no special significance to the trip of inspection. Some time ago I convinced Senator Hale that he should visit California and I shall accompany him. Senator Hale, as chairman of the Senate Naval Committee, fills the same post his father filled years ago."

Senator Shortridge has not heard that Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania committee, will be a member of the committee, will be a meber of the party on the inspection, as reported some days ago at San Diego.

Heroic Names Adorn Veterans' Dance Program

Heroes whose names thrilled the nation in 1898 will be honored on the dance program at the military ball to be staged by the Spanish War Veterans Saturday night at the Ambassador ballroom to raise funds for a permanent Spanish War Veterans' home in Hollywood. Each dance during the evening will have a distinctive nomenclature appropriate to the conflict with Spain. Here are a few of them, as announced by P. F. Roller, general chairman.

ARSON CHARGE FILED

A complaint charging arson was issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Works yesterday against Benjamin Morhar. The complaint charges that Morhar set fire to his home at 5353 Carlin street, Monday, for the purpose of collecting the insurance. His wife and their two small children were in the house at the time, according to investigators, but Morhar raced inside and saved them.
